* There is a coloured paper wrapper to each catalogue, with the exception of that of the first sale by Private Treaty, and many of the catalogues have the prices added in manuscript or in separate lists. The two Private Treaty sales and sales 2 to measure 8 inches and the remainder about 9 inches. Up to sale 200 each day is reckoned as a separate sale. Sales 151, 152 and 153 were held on March 3, 4 and 5, 1904. The wrapper of the catalogue of the first sale bears "21st sale" and that of the catalogue of the following sale of May 3 and 4, 1904, bears "201st sale," and the numbering is then continued with each catalogue counted as one sale, whether the sale lasted one, two or more days. Sales nos. 9 and 10 were held at Birmingham. The catalogue of the 241st sale has in error "240th sale" on page 1, but the numbering on the wrapper is correct.
