B[AGG] (S. H.)—American philatelic literature. In The Philatelist, London and Brighton, Vol. I., No. 6, May 1, 1867.

8°. 84 in.

* * * The list contains the journals of the United States and Canada arranged in chronological order under their titles, and these are followed by the manuals, price catalogues and albums. The list was compiled by Lyman H. Bagg, of Springfield, Mass.

BOERBON (P. DE.)—Bibliographie Timbrologique de la France et de la Belgique. Brussels, J. B. Moens, 1878.

8°. 84 in. xiii. + 74 pp. Coloured paper wrapper.

* * * This work was reprinted from the Bulletin de la Société Française de Timbrologie, Nos. 4-10, July, 1876-January, 1878, and forms the second volume of the Bibliothèque Timbrologique de la Société. The publications of each country are kept separate, and these two divisions are subdivided under eight headings: "I. Catalogues. II. Publications spéciales. III. Journaux spéciaux. IV. Albums. V. Articles insérés dans divers ouvrages ou dans divers journaux. VI. Prix Courants, Annonces, Prospectus. VII. Dessins, Cartes, Vignettes, Photographies. VIII. Morceaux de musique"; and in addition for France: "IX. Documents divers. X. Documents législatifs et Réglementaires." Although published in 1878 this is still a very useful work of reference for the collector who wants information upon the early literature of France and Belgium.

BOSTON PHILATELIC SOCIETY, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS—

Catalogue of books of philately in the Public Library of the city of Boston. . . .

8°. 94 in. 31 pp. + (1) p. Coloured paper wrapper.

* * * The arrangement is alphabetical, the monographs and catalogues being given under the names of the authors and the journals coming in under the first word of each title, without, as usual, taking account of the article "The" etc., when present. The list is somewhat marred by the fact that it contains no cross references, and no details whatever, not even the date, are given of some of the journals listed.
