(PHILATELIC SOCIETY, LONDON) Obliteration marks, mata-sellos, on Spanish stamps. By Don Mariano Pardo Figueroa. [London, 1872].

4°. 84 in. (2) pp. + (2) blank pages.

* * * This was a printed copy of the translation made by Mr. V. G. de Yasa of Don M. P. de Figueroa's article, for presentation at the meeting of the Philatelic Society, London, held on May 6th, 1871, vide the proceedings of the society published in "The Philatelist" of June, 1871. Although the translation was ordered at that meeting to be printed and sent gratis to each member of the society, it appears from the society's minutes that it was not printed until sometime between July 4th and December 7th, 1872.

The article is dated at the end "Medina Sidonia, Spain, 29th March, 1871," and this edition of it probably only consisted of proof copies to lay before a meeting of the society.

Ms. St. Jour. 43 (8).

This edition was evidently circulated amongst the members of the society. Ms. St. Jour. 43 (8b).

It was then placed as Treasurer, but I never touched or ever saw a penny of the money subscribed, or had anything at all to do with the pecuniary transactions.—C. W. Viner."
