2d CONGRESS.]

No. 35.

[2d SESSION.

ERRORS IN PRINTING CONGRESSIONAL DOCUMENTS.

COMMUNICATED TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, FEBRUARY 27, 1793.

SIR:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, February 25, 1793.

I beg leave, through you, to observe to the House of Representatives, that the statements communicated by my first and second letters in answer to their resolutions of the 23d of January last, which were printed by order of the House, have been printed in an incorrect and very confused manner.

In page 4 of my last letter, a sum of $605,883 08 is expressed in $605,83 08.

The mercantile form of debtor and creditor sides, which was observed in the accounts transmitted, and which is material to perspicuity, has been dropped; and a statement in succession of the opposite sides of the account substituted. In addition to this, headings have been introduced which are not in the original, and these headings have been, in one important case, inverted.

In statement A, transmitted with my first letter, receipts have been put for expenditures, and expenditures for receipts. Other inaccuracies less material might be noticed.

The effect of relinquishing the mercantile form of an account current will be perceived at once upon an inspection of either of the statements, but it will be particularly striking in statement No. 2 of my second letter, (page 19,) showing half-yearly the application of the fund for reducing the public debt constituted by the act of the 8th of May last.

It was the practice till the present session, to send to the Treasury proof sheets of the reports from the Department, which were printed by direction of the House, in order to their being examined and corrected before they were finally struck off. This useful practice, however, has been discontinued during the present session.

The House will be at no loss to perceive that their own satisfaction on any point of inquiry, the due information of the public, and the reputation of the Department from which any report or statement proceeds, are alike concerned in the accuracy of the form under which it is presented.

With a particular eye to the last consideration, I take the liberty to express a wish to the House that some regulations may be adopted to enable the head of this Department to secure the fidelity and correctness of the printed copies of the reports which shall hereafter be made to the House, and shall be committed to the press by their order.

With perfect respect, I have the honor to be, sir, your most obedient and humble servant,

ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Secretary of the Treasury.

The Hon. the SPEAKER of the House of Representatives.
