TABLE OF CONTENTS.

MISCELLANEOUS....VOLUME I.

. .	MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.
No.	With desire from Rhode Island to preserve friendly relations with the United States, 1789, -	. 1	Page.
	Announcing the death of the Dauphin of France, 1789,	_	10
	Fugitives from justice from Pennsylvania to Virginia, 1791,	-	38
25	Attorney General and district attorneys of the United States, their duties and offices, 1791, -	-	48
	Objections to the bill "for apportionment of representatives among the States," &c., 1792,	-	48
30	Opinions of circuit judges of New York district on certain duties assigned them by act of Congress, 1792,	,	49
3 L	Opinions of circuit judges of Pennsylvania on ditto, 1792,	•	50
32	Opinions of circuit judges of North Carolina; also a letter from the Chief Justice and associate justices on a reorganization of the Supreme Court of the United States, 1792,	8,	51
33	Boundary between Virginia and Territory south of the Ohio, 1792,	-	53
	Advances for the relief of General Lafayette, while a prisoner at Olmutz, 1793,	-	70
	Defects in the judiciary system, as represented by the judges of the Supreme Court of the U.S., 1794	1,	77
56	Opposition to the excise law in Pennsylvania, with proclamations, &c., 1794,	-	83
60	Weights and measures—Defects in the judiciary system of the Northwestern Territory, 1794,	••	115
	On execution of the act for establishing a seat of Government, public buildings, &c., 1794, -	-	133
	Constitution of Tennessee, from the convention thereof, 1796,  Difficulties in the execution of the "act for the relief of persons imprisoned for debt," 1798,	-	147 169
	General Washington's acceptance of the command of the army, 1798,	-	181
	Insurrection in Pennsylvania, 1799,	-	185
113	On the death of General Washington, 1799,	-	189
118	On the subject of removing the remains of General Washington to the city of Washington, 1800,	-	195
119	On complaint of John Randolph, member of the House of Representatives, on breach of privilege by	y
	certain officers of the army, 1800,	-	195
150	With letter from the commissioners, relative to the affairs of the city of Washington, &c., 1801, Same, same, 1802,	_	219 254
	Same, same, 1802, List of officers, civil, military, and naval, in the service of the United States, 1802,	-	260
155	List of suits decided and depending in the courts of the United States, 1802,	-	319
159	On resale of lots, appointment of superintendent and surveyor, and building of jail for the city of Wash	1-
	ington, 1803,	-	337
164	Compendium of information concerning Louisiana, 1803,	••	344
	Arrest of Zachariah Cox, a lawless adventurer, in the Mississippi Territory, 1803,	-	358
168	Digest of the laws of Louisiana, 1803,	-	362
100	On the subject of importation of slaves into Louisiana, 1804, In reply to an inquiry whether a member of the House of Representatives had accepted a military ap	-	390
130	pointment, 1805,		421
217	On the secret expedition or conspiracy of Aaron Burr and others, 1807,	_	468
218	On same, with further disclosures, 1807,	-	471
219	On same, same, 1807,	-	473
	On progress made in constructing the Cumberland road, 1807,	-	474
221	On the movements of Agron Burr in his secret expedition, 1807,	-	47
೧೩೮	On the arrest of Aaron Burr in Mississippi Territory, 1807, With the trial and proceedings against Aaron Burr in the circuit court of the U.S. in Virginia 1807.	-	478 486
240	With the trial and proceedings against Aaron Burr in the circuit court of the U. S., in Virginia, 1807, With proceedings relative to the connexion of General James Wilkinson with Aaron Burr, and his illicity	it	400
210	intercourse with the Spanish Government, 1808,	-	700
241	With correspondence concerning intrigues between Spanish officers in Louisiana, and others, for a dis	3-	•••
	memberment of the Union. 1808.	-	712
243	With report of commissioners relative to location and opening the route of the Cumberland road, 1808,	-	714
249	On the progress made on the public buildings in the city of Washington in 1807, communicated in 1808,	,	719
251	Concerning letters from Matthew Nimmo and John Smith, of Ohio, in relation to Burr's conspiracy &c., 1808.	,	921
257	With proclamation for suppressing of an insurrectionary combination near Lake Champlain, 1808,	-	940
	With report of the commissioners for making the Cumberland road, 1808,	_	940
	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
	REPORTS FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE.
15	On establishing uniformity in the coinage, weights, and measures of the United States, 1790,	_	13
	Same, same, 1791,	_	36
	On the manner of authenticating printed editions of the laws of the United States, 1791,	-	37
24	On a plan for converting salt water into fresh, 1791,	-	44
	With list of patents for useful inventions, 1805,	-	423
	DEDODES EDON THE SECTION OF MILE PRESCRIPT
	REPORTS FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.
34	List of civil officers of the United States, except judges, with their emoluments, 1792,	-	57
35	Errors in printing congressional documents, 1793,	-	66
39	Alexander Hamilton, Secretary, asks further inquiry into his official conduct, 1793,	-	70
144	Books and papers destroyed by fire in the Treasury Department, 1801.	-	241
101	On the debt and fiscal concerns relating to the city of Washington, 1802, List of civil officers of the United States, 1802,	-	258 260
	On extra allowances to district attorneys and assistant counsel, 1804,	-	392
	Same, same, same, 1805, -	_	406
_

TABLE OF CONTENTS ..

No.	REPORTS FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY—Continued.	77
	On extending the jurisdiction of judges of State courts to certain cases arising under the revenue laws of	Page.
242	the United States, 1806.  On reimbursing Smith and Gates the amount paid for real estate sold for the benefit of the United States,	436
	the title being defective, 1808.	713
	On the progress made on the Cumberland road; stating the amount of the 5 per cent. on nett proceeds of the public lands sold in the State of Ohio since July 1, 1802, &c., 1808.	718
250 263	On the utility and expediency of a system for the construction of artificial roads and canals, 1808, On the expenditures made on account of the Cumberland road, 1809,	724 947
200	•	347
.177	REPORTS FROM THE SECRETARY OF WAR.  Decision of the Supreme Court on the redidity of contain along for invalid persions. 1774	# 0
142	Decision of the Supreme Court on the validity of certain claims for invalid pensions, 1794, - On the destruction of the books and papers of that Department by fire, 1800,	78 232
	REPORT FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.
116	On the treatment of French officers imprisoned at Burlington, New Jersey, 1799,	191
	REPORTS FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.
17	On the judiciary system of the United States, 1790,	21
22	On apprehending fugitives from justice from one State to another, 1791,	41
25 61	On his duties, and those of the district attorneys of the United States, 1791, On establishing fees for officers of courts, and others, 1795,	45 117
71	On application of James Mackey for discharge from imprisonment at the suit of the United States, 1796, On an inquiry into the official conduct of George Turner, a judge of the Territory northwest of the Ohio,	138
	1796,	151
237	With tables of fees and compensation of the attorneys and officers, jurors, and witnesses of the courts in each State, 1807,	656
246	On the propriety of defining and punishing the crime of treason against the United States, &c., 1808,	717
	REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE SENATE.
7	On styles or titles of the President and Vice President of the United States, 1789,	8
	On contested election of Albert Gallatin, of Pennsylvania, as a Senator of the United States, 1793, Same, same, same, - 1794, -	73 73
49	On the illegality of the appointment of Kensey Johns as a Senator from Delaware, 1794, -	80
51	On the remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794,	81
79	On charges against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from Kentucky, 1796.	144
86	On authorizing Ebenezer Zane to establish ferries in Northwestern Territory, 1796, On the admission of Tennessee into the Union, 1796,	145 150
105	On the boundary line between Georgia and Florida, 1798,	178 190
115	On the death of General Washington, 1799, On the arrangements for the funeral of General Washington, 1799,	191
126	On the prosecution of Wm. Duane for breach of privileges of the Senate, by a newspaper publication, 1800, Same, same, same,	208 209
129	Same, same, same,	210
132 160	Same, same, same, same, On the memorial of Richard Basset and others, judges of the United States, complaining of being re-	212
100	moved from office, 1803,	340
	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805,	419
195	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805,	419 432
195 199 209	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806,	419
195 199 209	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio	419 432 437
195 199 209 224 229	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the	419 432 437 454 479
195 199 209 224 229	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the	419 432 437 454
195 199 209 224 229	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the	419 432 437 454 479
195 199 209 224 229	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.	419 432 437 454 479 484
195 199 209 224 229 238	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—	419 432 437 454 479 484
195 199 209 224 229 238	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.— David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same. same.	419 432 437 454 479 484 701
195 199 209 224 229 238	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.— David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, same, same, Same, same, Sundry citizens of New Jersey vs. delegation from that State in the House of Representatives, 1789,	419 432 437 454 479 484 701
195 199 209 224 229 238	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, Sam	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 43
195 199 209 224 229 238 1 6 8 9 23 38 43	moved from office, 1803,  On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805,  On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805,  On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806,  On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806,  On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807,  On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807,  On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.  On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789,  Same, same, same, same,  Sundry citizens of New Jersey vs. delegation from that State in the House of Representatives, 1789,  Same, same, same, same,  James Jackson vs. Anthony Wayne, of Georgia, 1791,  Henry K. Van Rensselaer vs. John E. Van Allen, of New York, 1793,  Henry Latimer vs. John Patten, of Belaware, 1794.	419 432 437 454 479 484 701
195 199 209 224 229 238 1 6 8 9 23 38 43	moved from office, 1803,  On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805,  On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805,  On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806,  On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806,  On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807,  On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807,  On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.  On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789,  Same, same, same, same,  Sundry citizens of New Jersey vs. delegation from that State in the House of Representatives, 1789,  Same, same, same, same,  James Jackson vs. Anthony Wayne, of Georgia, 1791,  Henry K. Van Rensselaer vs. John E. Van Allen, of New York, 1793,  Henry Latimer vs. John Patten, of Belaware, 1794.	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 43 70 75 83
195 199 209 224 229 238 1 6 8 9 23 38 43 55 68	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.— David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, Sam	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 43 70 75 83 134
195 199 209 224 229 238 1 6 8 9 23 38 43 55 68 72 88	moved from office, 1803,  On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805,  On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805,  On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806,  On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806,  On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807,  On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807,  On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.  On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789,  Same, same, same, same,  Same, same, same,  Same, same, same,  James Jackson vs. Anthony Wayne, of Georgia, 1791,  Henry K. Van Rensselaer vs. John E. Van Allen, of New York, 1793,  Henry Latimer vs. John Patten, of Delaware, 1794,  Election of James White as Delegate from the Territory south of the Ohio, 1794,  Claim of John Richards to a seat as a Representative from Pennsylvania, 1796,  Matthew Lyon vs. Israel Smith, of Vermont, 1796,  Same. same, sam	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 43 70 75 83 134 139 152
195 199 209 224 229 238 1 6 8 9 23 38 43 55 68 72 88 77 80	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, James Jackson vs. Anthony Wayne, of Georgia, 1791, Henry K. Van Rensselaer vs. John E. Van Allen, of New York, 1793, Henry Latimer vs. John Patten, of Delaware, 1794, Election of James White as Delegate from the Territory south of the Ohio, 1794, Claim of John Richards to a seat as a Representative from Pennsylvania, 1796, Same,	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 9 43 70 75 83 134 139 152 145
195 199 209 224 229 238 1 6 8 9 23 343 55 68 72 88 77 80 97	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, Sa	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 43 70 75 83 134 139 152
195 199 229 224 229 238 16 6 8 9 23 36 43 55 68 72 88 77 80 97 99	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805. On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, same, same, Same, same, same, Sundry citizens of New Jersey vs. delegation from that State in the House of Representatives, 1789, Same, same, same, James Jackson vs. Anthony Wayne, of Georgia, 1791, Henry K. Van Rensselaer vs. John E. Van Allen, of New York, 1793, Henry Latimer vs. John Patten, of Delaware, 1794, Claim of John Richards to a seat as a Representative from Pennsylvania, 1796, Aaron Brown vs. Joseph Bradley Varnum, of Massachusetts, 1796, Same, sa	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 9 43 70 75 83 134 139 152 142 145 158 159
195 199 209 224 229 238 168 9 23 388 72 88 77 80 97 99 158	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, Sa	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 43 70 75 83 139 152 142 145 158 159
195 199 209 224 229 238 16 8 9 23 38 43 55 68 77 80 97 99 158	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, Sa	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 43 70 75 83 134 139 142 145 158 159 336 389
195 199 209 224 229 238 166 8 9 23 388 43 35 568 72 88 77 99 158 174 176 179 182	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, S	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 43 70 75 83 139 152 145 158 159 336 387 389 392 395
195 199 209 224 229 238 168 9 23 388 923 388 77 80 97 99 158 174 176 179 178 179 178 179	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On augmenting the library of Congress, 1806, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.— David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, same, same, Same, same, same, Same, same, same, James Jackson vs. Anthony Wayne, of Georgia, 1791, Henry K. Van Rensselaer vs. John E. Van Allen, of New York, 1793, Henry Latimer vs. John Patten, of Delaware, 1794, Election of James White as Delegate from the Territory south of the Ohio, 1794, Election of John Richards to a seat as a Representative from Pennsylvania, 1796, Aaron Brown vs. Joseph Bradley Varnum, of Massachusetts, 1796, Aaron Brown vs. Joseph Bradley Varnum, of Massachusetts, 1796, Inquiry whether John P. Van Ness, by accepting and exercising command as a major of militia in the District of Columbia, had not forfeited his seat as a Representative, 1802, Andrew Moore vs. Thomas Lewis, of Virginia, 1804, Duncan McFarland vs. Samuel D. Purviance, of North Carolina, 1804, Election of John Hoge, of Pennsylvania, 1804, Election of John Hoge, of Pennsylvania, 1804, Election of John Hoge, of Pennsylvania, 1805,	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 43 70 75 83 134 139 152 145 158 159 336 387 389 392
195 199 209 224 229 238 16 8 9 23 38 43 55 68 77 99 158 174 1179 1182 1194 1194 1194 1194 1194 1194 1194 119	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.  On contested elections of Representatives, &c.—  David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, Sam	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 43 70 75 83 134 139 152 142 145 158 159 336 387 392 395 431 436 484
195 199 209 224 229 238 168 9 23 383 55 68 97 99 158 174 176 1198 1198 1198 1198 1198 1198 1199 119	moved from office, 1803, On the application for assistance in making a canal from the head to the foot of the rapids of the Ohio river, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation and application of funds for the Cumberland road, 1805, On the appropriation to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the proposition to appropriate a quantity of land to assist in making a canal at the rapids of the Ohio river, 1807, On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the Indiana Territory, 1807, On the expulsion of John Smith, a Senator from Ohio, from his seat in the Senate, on account of his connexion with Aaron Burr, 1807,  REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. On contested elections of Representatives, &c.— David Ramsay vs. William Smith, of South Carolina, 1789, Same, same, same, Sundry citizens of New Jersey vs. delegation from that State in the House of Representatives, 1789, Same, same, same, James Jackson vs. Anthony Wayne, of Georgia, 1791. Henry K. Van Rensselaer vs. John E. Van Allen, of New York, 1793, Henry K. Van Rensselaer vs. John E. Van Allen, of New York, 1794, Claim of John Richards to a seat as a Representative from Pennsylvania, 1796, Matthew Lyon vs. Israel Smith, of Vermont, 1796, Same, Sa	419 432 437 454 479 484 701 5 8 8 9 9 43 70 75 83 134 139 158 158 159 336 389 392 395 431 436

```
REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES-Continued.
   No.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Page.
         3 On styles or titles of the President and Vice President of the United States, 1789,
     3 On styles or titles of the President and Vice President of the United States, 1789,

13 On the abolition of slavery and the slave trade, 1789,

20 On the administration of the finances under the late superintendent, Robert Morris, 1791,

21 On the weights and measures of the United States, 1791,

22 On the duties of the Attorney General and district attorneys of the United States, 1792,

23 On the alterations in the Treasury and War Departments, 1792,

24 On the weights and measures of the United States, 1792,

25 On the letter from the Secretary of the Treasury relating to errors in printing congressional documents,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           38
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           38
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           46
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           46
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           69
                     1793
      44 On the abolition of the slave trade, 1794,
45 On the petition of William F. Ast, for a general plan of insurance against loss by fire, 1794,
50 On publishing the laws in the German language, 1794,
52 On reservations of States in cessions of land for light-houses, &c., 1794,
53 On the laws of the Northwestern Territory, 1794,
54 On the fees of courts, 1794
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           76
77
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           81
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           82
      54 On the fees of courts, 1794,
57 On the boundary between Virginia and the Territory south of the river Ohio, 1794,
58 On granting concurrent jurisdiction to States that have ceded lands for light-houses without reservation,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           82
                    1794,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       114
               On the promulgation of the laws, 1794,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        114
     62 Same, same, 1795,
63 On establishing fees in the courts of the United States, 1795,
64 On appointing reporters to preserve debates in Congress, 1795,
65 On the remonstrance of New Hampshire against the exercise of certain powers by the Judiciary of the 122
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        123
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        123
                     United States, 1795,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        123
      70 On the progress in establishing the seat of Government at Washington, 1796, 73 On the appointment of stenographers to the House of Representatives, 1796,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       136
140
      74 On the encouragement for useful inventions and discoveries, 1796,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        140
      75 On the encouragement of mineralogy and metallurgy, 1796,
77 On the plan of the public buildings in Washington, and on authorizing a loan for completing the same,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        140
     &c., 1796,

33 On the admission of Tennessee into the Union, 1796,

44 On establishing the weights and measures of the United States, 1796,

45 On the arrival of G. W. M. Lafayette, son of General Lafayette, into the United States, 1796,

46 On the compensation to district attorneys of the United States, 1796,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        142
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        147
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       148
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       149

89 On the compensation to district attorneys of the United States, 1796,
90 On the provision for employment of stenographers, and for furnishing the members with copies of the debates in Congress, 1796,
91 On the establishment of a National University, 1796,
92 On the encouragement of agriculture, 1797,
93 On the subject of kidnapping negroes, &c., 1797,
94 On the suability of the States, 1797,
95 On the conduct of George Turner, a judge of the supreme court of the Northwestern Territory, 1797,
96 On the petition of Joseph Rittenhouse to be discharged from imprisonment at suit of the U. States, 1797,
98 On the petition of Thomas Carpenter for the patronage of Congress to a work called the "American Senator," or Debates in Congress, 1797,
100 On the petition of William Bell to be discharged from imprisonment at the suit of the United States, 1798,
102 On the memorial of certain Quakers complaining of the laws of North Carolina, under which certain liberated slaves were again reduced to slavery, 1798,
103 On breach of privileges of the House, in the case of Matthew Lyon and Oliver Griswold, 1798,

                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        152
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       153
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       153
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       154
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        155
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       156
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       157
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       157
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       159
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        160
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       163
  103 On breach of privileges of the House, in the case of Matthew Lyon and Oliver Griswold, 1798, 166
  104 Same,
  104 Same, same, same, same, 106 On the revision of the act for the relief of persons imprisoned for debt, 1798,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                              same,
             On the same; and also on the act for mitigating or remitting the forfeitures, penalties, and disabilities
 108 On naturalization, and regulations respecting aliens, 1798,

109 On the repeal of the alien and sedition laws, 1799,

110 On the repeal of the alien and sedition laws, 1799,

120 On the complaint of John Randolph, member of the House of Representatives, of insult to him by certain officers of the army for words spoken in debate, 1800,

120 On a amplication for alterations in the political system established for the government of the Mississippi
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       180
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       180
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       181
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       185
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       196
 122 On an application for alterations in the political system established for the government of the Mississippi
Territory, 1800,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      203
             On same.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      207
  123 On the division of the Northwestern Territory into two Governments, 1800, 206
  125 On the naturalization of aliens, 1800,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       208
 130 On the remission of forfeitures under the act prohibiting the exportation of arms and ammunition, 1800, -
133 On the relief of insolvent debtors to the United States, 1800,
134 On the admission of slaves, from foreign ports or places into the Mississippi Territory in certain cases,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      210
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      213
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       213
            On the erection of a statue or monument to the memory of General Washington, 1800, 214

    136 On the objections to certain acts passed by the Governor and judges of the Mississippi Territory, 1800,
    138 On erecting a mausoleum to General Washington, 1800,
    139 On the letter from J. Wheaton, sergeant-at-arms, who was arrested by warrant from a magistrate for attempting to arrest an individual by order of the House of Representatives, 1800,
    140 On the propositions to amend the constitution in relation to the elections of President and Vice President, and of members of the House of Representatives, 1800,

                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       214
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      215
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      216

143 On the official conduct of the Governor of the Mississippi Territory, 1801,

145 On the report of the commissioners for establishing the seat of Government at Washington city, 1801,

146 On an inquiry into the causes of the late fires in the War and Treasury Departments, 1801,

147 On the right of the Mississippi Territory to a Delegate in Congress, 1801,

148 On the subject of expediting the printing of the House of Representatives, 1801,

149 On the arrangement of a library for Congress, 1801,

149 On the interpretations a company for a capal through the city of Washington 1802
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      216
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      233
243
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      247
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      252
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      253
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      253
149 On the arrangement of a norary for Congress, 1601,
152 On incorporating a company for making a canal through the city of Washington, 1802, 153 On establishing the office of commissioner of the city of Washington, and providing for the payment of the debts of said city, 1802,
156 On the application to erect the Northwestern Territory (Ohio) into a State, 1802,
157 On the adjustment of differences concerning certain alterations in the plan of the city of Washington, 1802,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     258
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      260
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       325
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      330
161 On the constitution for the State of Ohio, and sundry propositions relative thereto, 1803,

162 On the expediency of concentrating the public buildings in the city of Washington, 1803,

163 On the application for subscription to stock in the Allegany Turnpike Company, 1803,

165 On reprinting the laws, journals, and other documents of Congress, 1803,

167 On the arrest of Zachariah Cox by the Governor of the Mississippi Territory, 1803,

168 On an extension of the powers of the judges of the United States in the Territories, and appeals from 340
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      344
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      344
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       357
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      384
                  their decisions, 1803,
```

No. 170	REPORTS OF COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—Continued.  On disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the bill fixing the salaries of the Postmaster General and other	Page.
	officers, 1803,	385
172	On applications for divorces in the District of Columbia, 1804,	386
	On the subjects of slavery, elective franchise, and public lands in the Indiana Territory, 1804,	387
	On the exploration of the unknown parts of Louisiana, 1804,	390
	On empowering committees to appoint their chairmen in certain cases, 1804,	395 416
	On extending the patent right of Oliver Evans, 1805,	417
	On extending the jurisdiction of the circuit courts in favor of aliens, 1805,	419
	On erecting a bridge over the Potomac river at Washington, 1805,	422
192	On extending the right of suffrage, and increasing the members of the Assembly of Mississippi Territory,
	1805,	422
197	On vesting State courts with power to mitigate or remit forfeitures, penalties, and disabilities accruing	495
200	under the revenue laws in certain cases, 1806,  On sundry memorials for erecting a bridge across the Potomac at Washington, 1806,	435 437
	On the disputed boundary between Georgia and North Carolina, 1806,	439
	On extending the right of suffrage and admission of slavery for a limited time in, and division of, the In-	200
	diana Territory, 1806,	450
	On prohibiting the importation of slaves into the Territories, 1806, -	451
	On procuring for the use of members the Journals of Congress under the confederation, 1806,	452
	On application of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company for pecuniary assistance, 1806, On application of George Dodge and others for an extension of their patent right, 1806,	452 453
	On memorial of the Legislature of Kentucky, soliciting the co-operation of the United States in opening	700
	a canal to avoid the rapids of the Ohio river, 1806,	453
	On procuring books, draughts, and models for the War Department, 1806,	456
212	On the exploration of the western waters of the United States by Lewis and Clarke, and Pike and Free-	400
012	man, 1806, On the petition of the Highland Turnpike Company of New York for pecuniary assistance, 1807,	463 463
	On the inexpediency of suspending the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves into the	400
	Indiana Territory, 1807,	477
	On application of Oliver Evans to extend his patent right for manufacturing flour, 1807,	646
235	On petition of University of Vincennes, that a tax be laid on salt made at the public works and on Indian
040	traders for support of said institution, 1807,	654
248	On compensating Captain Zebulon M. Pike and others, for services in exploring the Mississippi, Osage, Arkansas, and La Plate rivers, 1808,	719
253	On an application of the people of the counties of Randolph and St. Clair, for a division of the Indiana	715
	Territory, 1808,	922
254	On the conduct of Harry Innis, district judge of the United States for the district of Kentucky, in being a party or privy to intrigues of the Spanish officers in Louisiana against the United States, 1808,	922
	On progress on, and making further provision for, the public buildings in the city of Washington, 1808,	935
209	On propriety of compensating Captain Zebulon M. Pike and others, for services in their expedition to the source of the Mississippi river, 1808,	942
261	On expediency of dividing the Indiana Territory, agreeably to the ordinance of Congress, 1808,	945
	On expediency of improving the navigation of the Catawba and Wateree rivers, 1809,	946
	PROCEEDINGS OF STATES, LEGISLATURES, &c.
4		6
	PROCEEDINGS OF STATES, LEGISLATURES, &c.  Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, -  Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, -	6 7
5 10	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789,	7 9
5 10 22	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791,	7
5 10 22	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States,	7 9 38
5 10 22 48	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - 1	7 9
5 10 22 48 56	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, -	7 9 38
5 10 22 48 56	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Con-	7 9 38 79 97
5 10 22 48 56 76	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislaure of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795,	7 9 38 79 97
5 10 22 48 56 76	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, - Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796,	7 9 38 79 97
5 10 22 48 56 76	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United	7 9 38 79 97
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804.	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, - Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, - Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, -	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, - Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, - Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, - Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, -	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Resolutions of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807,	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, - Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, - Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolution of Pennsylvania to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 216	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, - Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c) 1807, - Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, - Resolution of Pennsylvania to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves into the United States, 1808,	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 464
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 216	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of Slaves therein, 1807, Resolution of Pennsylvania to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves therein, 1807, Resolution of Pennsylvania to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves into the United States, 1808, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin,	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 244	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, - Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, - Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolution of Pennsylvania to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves into the United States, 1808, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding index of that Territory, 1808.	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 244	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of Slaves therein, 1807, Resolution of Pennsylvania to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves therein, 1807, Resolution of Pennsylvania to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves into the United States, 1808, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin,	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 244	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, - Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolution of Pennsylvania to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, Resolutions of Legislature of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808,	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 244 252 260	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, - Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, - Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, - Resolution of Pennsylvania to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves into the United States, 1808, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, - Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, - Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, - Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808,	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944
5 10 22 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 244 252 260	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789,  Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789,  Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789,  Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791,  Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794,  Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794,  Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795,  Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796,  Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804,  Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804,  Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807,  Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807,  Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807,  Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808,  Resolutions of Legislature of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808,  MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS.  Of Robert Morris, soliciting an inquiry into his official conduct as Superintendent of Finance, 1790,	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 216 244 252 260	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c) 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, Resolutions of Legislature of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808,  MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS.  Of Robert Morris, soliciting an inquiry into his official conduct as Superintendent of Finance, 1790, Of Iohn Fitch, on application of steam to payigation, 1790.	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 216 244 252 260	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1799, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, - Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c) 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves into the United States, 1808, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Finance, 1790, Of John Fitch, on application of steam to navigation, 1790, Of the College of Physicians of	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 244 252 260	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, - Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, - Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, - Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, - Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, - Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, - Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, - Resolutions of Legislative of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808, - MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS.  Of Robert Morris, soliciting an inquiry into his official conduct as Superintendent of Finance, 1790, of John Fitch, on application of steam to navigation, 1790, of the Colle	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 2260 12 14 16 121	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves into the United States, 1808, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, Resolutions of Legislature of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808,  MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS.  Of Robert Morris, soliciting an inquiry into his official conduct as Superintendent of Finance, 1790, Of John Fitch, on application of steam to navigation, 1790, Of the College of Physicians of Philadel	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944 11 12 20 202
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 244 252 260 12 14 16	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain friendly relations with the United States, 1791, - Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, - Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, - Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, - Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, - Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, - Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, - Resolutions of Legislature of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808, - Resolution of states in on a polication of steam to navigation, 1790, of John Fitch, on application of steam to navigation, 1790, of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia, remonstrating again	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944 11 12 20
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 244 252 260 12 14 16	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, - Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnavious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves into the United States, 1808, Resolutions of Legislature Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1508, Resolutions of Legislature of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808,  MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS.  Of Robert Morris, soliciting an inquiry into his official conduct as Superintendent of Finance, 1790, Of John Fitch, on application of steam to avigation, 1790, Of the American Convention for Pro	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944 11 12 20 202 215
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 244 252 260 12 14 16 121 137	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1799, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, - Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1608, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1608, Resolutions of Peters of Physicalator of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808,  MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS.  Of Robert Morris, soliciting an inquiry into his official conduct as Superintendent of Finance, 1790, Of John Fitch, on applications of Philadelphia, remonstrating against certain	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944 11 12 20 202
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 216 244 252 260 112 14 16 137 171 183	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, - Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnavious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain an amendment of the constitution to prevent the importation of slaves into the United States, 1808, Resolutions of Legislature Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1508, Resolutions of Legislature of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808,  MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS.  Of Robert Morris, soliciting an inquiry into his official conduct as Superintendent of Finance, 1790, Of John Fitch, on application of steam to avigation, 1790, Of the American Convention for Pro	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944 11 12 20 202 215 386 396
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 226 244 252 260 12 14 16 121 137 171 183 185	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, Resolutions of Legislature of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808,  MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS.  Of Robert Morris, soliciting an inquiry into his official conduct as Superintendent of Finance, 1790, Of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia, remonstrating against certain resolutions of the Senate against William Duane, for breach of its privileges, 1800, Of certain citizens of Philadelphia, remonstrating against certain resolution	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944 11 12 20 202 215 386 396 409
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 216 244 252 260 121 137 171 183 185 196	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Legislature Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, Resolutions of Legislature of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1806,  MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS.  Of Robert Morris, soliciting an inquiry into his official conduct as Superintendent of Finance, 1790, Of John Fitch, on application of steam to navigation, 1790, Of the American Philosophical Society, suggesting improvements in the mode of taking	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944 11 12 20 202 215 386 396
5 100 222 48 56 76 82 175 188 214 215 216 244 252 260 121 137 171 183 185 196	Application of Virginia for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Application of New York for a convention to report amendments to the constitution, 1789, - Desires of Rhode Island to maintain friendly relations with the United States, 1789, - Application from Pennsylvania to obtain fugitives from justice in Virginia, 1791, Remonstrance of New Hampshire against certain powers exercised by the Judiciary of the United States, 1794, - Correspondence of Governor of Pennsylvania with the President, relative to opposition to the excise law in that State, 1794, - Charges from Legislature of Kentucky against Humphrey Marshall, a Senator from that State in Congress, 1795, Constitution of Tennessee transmitted by the convention thereof, 1796, Resolutions of Pennsylvania to obtain a law fixing the standard of weights and measures in the United States, 1804, Remonstrance of the General Assembly of the Territory of Louisiana against the system of laws adopted by Congress for them, 1804, Resolutions of Ohio to obtain a law to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States, 1807, Resolutions of Virginia on the subject of colonizing persons obnoxious to the laws, or dangerous to the peace of society, (free negroes, &c.,) 1807, Resolutions of Indiana Territory to obtain the suspension of the article of compact prohibiting the introduction of slaves therein, 1807, Resolutions of Legislative Council of the Territory of Mississippi for the impeachment of Peter B. Bruin, presiding judge of that Territory, 1808, Resolutions of Legislature of North Carolina, approving the measures of the Government as regards its foreign relations, 1808,  MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS.  Of Robert Morris, soliciting an inquiry into his official conduct as Superintendent of Finance, 1790, Of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia, remonstrating against certain resolutions of the Senate against William Duane, for breach of its privileges, 1800, Of certain citizens of Philadelphia, remonstrating against certain resolution	7 9 38 79 97 141 146 388 400 464 467 716 921 944 11 12 20 202 215 386 396 409

	MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS—Continued.
No.		Page.
211	Of Augustus B. Woodward, on the necessary provisions for settling titles to lands and other subjects in	101
005	the Territory of Michigan, &c., 1806, Of sundry citizens of Pennsylvania, to obtain an amendment of the constitution limiting the judicial pow-	461
الندند	ers of the United States, &c., 1807,	479
226	Of the people of Washington county, Mississippi, on the subject of British aggressions, 1807,	481
236	Of Anthony Boucherie, an alien, for a patent right in an invention for manufacturing sugar, 1807.	655
254	Of the people of Kentucky, complaining of the insults and injuries from Great Britain and Spain, 1793,	930
	MISCELLANEOUS DOCUMENTS.
2	Report of Charles Thompson, on delivery of certificate of election as President to George Washington,
	1789,	5
30	Opinion of the circuit judges for New York district on certain duties assigned them by act of Congress,	49
31	Opinion of the circuit judges for Pennsylvania district on certain duties assigned them by act of Congress, 1792,	51
32	Opinion of the circuit judges for North Carolina district on certain duties assigned them by act of Con-
93	gress, 1792,	51
	Opinion of the judges of Supreme Court on reorganization of same, 1792,  Report from Commissioners of Accounts of the balances due to and from the several States, 1793,	52 69
	List of French officers destined to serve in army of United States, 1776,	71
	Opinion of judges of Supreme Court of defects in the judiciary system of the United States, 1794,	77
	Proceedings of the House of Representatives against Robert Randall, for breach of privileges, 1794,	125
	Oration of Major General Henry Lee on the death of General Washington, 1799,	192
	Letters from William Duane to the Senate, relative to his prosecution by that body for a breach of its 10, 211
227	Report from the Surveyor of the Public Buildings, relative to the architectural arrangements of the south wing of the Capitol in Washington, 1807,	482
239	Statement of Daniel Clark, showing an illicit connexion between Brigadier General James Wilkinson,	402
~-0	United States army, and the Spanish Government of Louisiana, 1808,	704
256	6 On the subject of an illicit connexion between Gen. James Wilkinson and the Spanish Government, 1808,	936

