

Resolved, That the thanks of Congress are hereby tendered to Gen. G. T. Beauregard and the other surviving officers and privates of that army for the signal exhibition of skill and gallantry displayed by them on that memorable occasion; and all who contributed to that signal triumph, in the judgment of Congress, are entitled to the gratitude of their country.

Thanks of Congress to Gen. Beauregard and other surviving officers and privates.

Resolved, That the intelligence of the death of General Albert Sidney Johnston, Commander-in-Chief, when leading the Confederate forces to victory on the sixth of April, in Tennessee, while it affects Congress with profound sorrow, at the same time obscures our joy with a shade of sadness at the loss of an officer, so able, skillful and gallant.

Sorrow of Congress occasioned by the intelligence of the death of Gen. Johnston.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be made known by appropriate general orders by the Generals in command, to the officers and troops to whom they are addressed, and that they also be communicated to the family of General Johnston.

These resolutions to be made known to the officers, etc., to whom addressed.

APPROVED April 15, 1862.

[No. 10.] Joint resolution of thanks to General H. H. Sibley and his command.

April 16, 1862.

Resolved by the Congress of the Confederate States of America, That the thanks of Congress are hereby tendered to Brig. Gen. H. H. Sibley, and to the officers and men under his command, for the complete and brilliant victories achieved over our enemies in New Mexico.

Thanks of Congress to Brig. Gen. Sibley and his command.

APPROVED April 16, 1862.

[No. 11.] Resolution of thanks to the officers and crews of the Patrick Henry, Jamestown, Teazer and other vessels for gallant conduct.

April 16, 1862.

Resolved by the Congress of the Confederate States of America, That the thanks of Congress are due, and are hereby tendered to the officers and crews of the Patrick Henry, Jamestown, Teazer and other vessels engaged, for their gallant conduct and bearing in the naval combat and brilliant victory on the waters of James river, on the 8th and 9th of March, 1862.

Thanks of Congress to the officers and crews of the Patrick Henry, Jamestown, Teazer and other vessels.

APPROVED April 16, 1862.

[No. 12.] Resolution for the preservation of public documents.

April 19, 1862.

Resolved by the Congress of the Confederate States of America, That two hundred copies of all documents printed by order of either House of Congress shall be delivered by the Superintendent of Public Printing to the Attorney General, and at the end of each session of Congress, the Attorney General shall cause the same to be properly indexed and bound in volumes of convenient size, including in each volume one copy of each document; but no document from which the seal of secrecy has not been removed shall be placed in said bound volumes.

Preservation of documents printed by order of either House of Congress.

To be indexed and bound.

Resolved further, That one copy of said volumes, when bound, shall be retained for the use of the Department of Justice, and the remaining copies together with the secret documents, held subject to the order of Congress.

How disposed of
