

PRIVATE ACTS OF THE PROVISIONAL CONGRESS

OF THE

CONFEDERATE STATES.

Passed at the fifth session of the Provisional Congress, which was begun and held at the City of Richmond, on Monday, the eighteenth day of November, 1861, and ended on the eighteenth day of February, 1862.

JEFFERSON DAVIS, President. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS, Vice-President of the Confederate States. HOWELL COBB, President of the Congress.

Jan. 16, 1862. CHAP. I.—An Act to reward the loyalty of the Principal Chief of the Seminole Nation.

The loyalty of Hemha Micco or John Jumper, principal chief of the Seminole Nation, rewarded. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That the President of the Confederate States be authorized to present to Hemha Micco, or John Jumper, a commission, conferring upon him the honorary title of Lieutenant Colonel of the army of the Confederate States, but without creating or imposing the duties of actual service or command, or pay, as a complimentary mark of honor, and a token of good will and confidence in his friendship, good faith and loyalty to this government, and to procure and present him with a complete uniform of that rank and grade, a sabre and a Maynard rifle, with a liberal supply of ammunition for the same. And the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars is hereby appropriated for the purchase of the said uniform and arms.

APPROVED January 16, 1862.

Jan. 23, 1862.

CHAP. II.—An Act for the relief of Dillon Jordan and F. Glackmyer.

Accounts of Dillon Jordan and F. Glackmyer, for postal services, to be audited. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That the Postmaster General cause the account of Dillon Jordan and F. Glackmyer, for postal services rendered by them respectively, for the Confederate States, at Montgomery, Alabama, and Pensacola, Florida, between the twenty-ninth day of January and the first June, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, [to be audited] and that he report to this Congress what sums will be a just and proper compensation to said parties respectively for said services.
