[No. 31.] A Resolution in Relation to the Claim of Marshall O. Roberts for the Loss of the Steamer "Star of the West."

May 20, 1862.

Whereas the Secretary of War has declined to act upon a claim of Marshall O. Roberts for compensation for the loss of the steamship "Star of the West," while in the service and under the direction of the United States, upon the ground that before his appointment as Secretary of War he had been consulted as counsel in the case: Therefore—

Marshall O. Roberts, payment to.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the said claim be referred to the Attorney General, with authority to act upon the same in the same manner as the Secretary of War could have done had he not been consulted as counsel in the case, and that such sum as shall be ascertained to be due, if any, be paid in the same manner as if the same had been allowed by the Secretary of War, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

APPROVED, May 20, 1862.
