[No. 37.] Joint Resolution relative to the Claim and Letters-Patent of William Wheeler Hubbell.

Claim of William Wheeler
Hubbell to be referred to court of claims.

WHEREAS William Wheeler Hubbell claims compensation for the use of his patent for the thunderbolt shell and fuse, which he claims were patented by him, and have been used by the government, under a verbal contract, as he alleges, between him and the late George Bomford, colonel of ordnance of the United States, and for the use of his patent percussion apparatus for exploding shells, and said letters-patent are dated January twenty-two, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, reissued January nineteen, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, for fourteen years for the shell, January seven, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, for seventeen years for the fuse, and January twenty-four, eighteen hundred and sixty, for fourteen years for the percussion device; and whereas the testimony in support of said claim submitted with said patents, and especially with regard to the validity of the same and the verbal contract aforesaid, is very voluminous, and the shells and fuses in the service, which said Hubbell claims, are made and used in great numbers by the government, and this committee feel that they have neither the time nor means for procuring witnesses and giving the case the careful legal investigation which its importance demands: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the claim of William Wheeler Hubbell be referred to the court of claims, which is hereby vested with jurisdiction, and whose duty it shall be to investigate and determine —

Points to be determined by court.

First. Is William Wheeler Hubbell the original inventor of the shell and fuse and percussion device aforesaid, or either of them, and has he a just and equitable right to compensation for the same; and —

Second. What amount of compensation is he entitled to receive for the use of his inventions and patents, as claimed, up to the time of adjudication, and for a full and entire transfer of his patents to the United States.

Appeal to supreme court.

Third. And be it further resolved, That either party may appeal to the supreme court of the United States within ninety days, and the court of claims shall certify any judgment that may be rendered in favor of said William Wheeler Hubbell, his heirs or legal representatives in the same manner, and the same when presented to the Secretary of the Treasury shall have the same effect as now provided by law, and be paid out of any general appropriation in relation to judgments of said court, or for private claims: Provided, That the sum hereby authorized to be paid shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, which sum the claimant agrees to accept in full of all claims whatever by virtue of said patents and contract against the government. And the payment of such judgment shall vest the full and absolute right to said patents in the United States.

APPROVED, June 3, 1864.

July 2, 1864.

WHEREAS Alexander Cross heretofore filed his petition in the court of claims of the United States, praying relief on account of certain rents alleged to be due from the United States to him as assignee of one Daniel Saffarans, by virtue of certain alleged contract of lease between the said Daniel Saffarans (who is now deceased) and the United States; and whereas the said court of claims, on the twenty-fourth of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, rendered a decision adverse to the prayer of said petition, on the sole ground of an alleged technical defect in the assignment of said lease from the said Daniel Saffarans to the said petitioner: Now, therefore,

Petition of Alexander Cross
to be referred back to the court of claims.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the said cause be remanded to said court of claims for a further hearing, upon the testimony hereto-

No money to be paid until bond is given.

fore filed therein, and such further testimony as either party may take and file pursuant to the rules of said court ; and if, upon the further hearing of said cause, it shall appear that the said petitioner is the equitable owner of said lease, and in justice and equity entitled to the rents (if any) due thereon from the United States, the said court shall be authorized to render judgment therefor in his favor, notwithstanding any technical defect in the assignment of said lease : Provided, That no money shall be paid out of the treasury upon any judgment which shall be rendered in favor of the petitioner in said cause, until he shall have filed with the Secretary of the Treasury a bond, with ample security, in such sum as will fully indemnify the United States against any demand which may be set up and established by, or on behalf of, the heirs or representatives of the said Daniel Saffarans, deceased, under, or by virtue of, said contract or lease.

APPROVED, July 2. 1864.
