[No. 102.] Joint Resolution to prevent the further Enforcement of the Joint Resolution, (No. 77,) approved July 4, 1864, against Officers and Soldiers of the United States, who have been honorably discharged, so as to relieve them from the further Payment of the special Five Per Cent Income Tax imposed thereby. July 28, 1866. Vol. xiii. p. 417.

WHEREAS by the Joint Resolution (No. 77) of Congress, approved July fourth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, a special income tax of five per cent on all incomes exceeding six hundred dollars was directed to be assessed and collected and was enforced generally upon all citizens accessible to the revenue officers, but was not enforced against all our soldiers then in the field in the active service of the country; and whereas since the surrender of the insurrectionary armies, and the disbanding and return of the federal soldiers to their homes, said tax is being with manifest hardship assessed and collected of them in many parts of the country: Therefore,

Preamble.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said special tax, so imposed, shall not be further enforced against officers or soldiers lately in the service of the United States, and who have been honorably discharged therefrom, and that the Secretary of the Treasury direct the proper observance of this resolution by all revenue officers.

APPROVED, July 28, 1866.

Special income tax not to be further enforced against certain officers and soldiers.
