CHAP. CLXXXVII. — An Act to define the Intent of an Act entitled "An Act to allow Deputy Collectors of internal Revenue acting as Collectors the Pay of Collector, and for other Purposes," approved March one, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine.

July 1, 1870.
1869, ch. 57.
Vol. xv. p. 282.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the true intent and meaning of an act approved March one, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, entitled "An act to allow deputy collectors of internal revenue acting as collectors, the pay of collectors and for other purposes," is as follows, to wit: That any deputy collector of internal revenue who has performed, or may hereafter perform, under authority of law, the duties of collector of internal revenue in consequence of any vacancy in the office of said collector, shall be entitled to, and shall receive the salary and commissions allowed by law to such collector, or the allowance in lieu of said salary and commissions allowed by the Secretary of the Treasury to such collector, and that the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make to the said deputy collector such allowance in lieu of salary and commissions as he would by law be authorized to make to said collector. And said deputy collector shall not be debarred from receiving said salary and commissions, or allowance in lieu thereof, by reason of the holding of another federal office by said collector during the time for which said deputy collector acts as collector: Provided, That all payments to said deputy collector shall be upon duly audited vouchers. Deputy collectors of internal revenue performing duties of collector, &c. to receive salary, &c. of collector, &c.
