CHAP. CCXIX. — An Act for the Relief of Addison Goodell, of Illinois.

March 1, 1873.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the commissioner of the general land office be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to state an account in favor of Addison Goodell, of Illinois, for the repayment of four hundred dollars, paid as the purchase-money of the northwest quarter of section number twenty-five, in township twenty-four, north of range ten east, entered by Thomas G. L. Wamsley, on the twenty-ninth of November, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, per Danville, Illinois, certificate number eighteen thousand three hundred and twenty, and sold by him to said Addison Goodell, the entry having been cancelled at the general land office: Provided, That before the said sum of four hundred dollars shall be paid to the said Addison Goodell, he shall execute a bond to the United States, in the sum of eight hundred dollars, with sufficient surety to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, conditioned to save harmless the United States from any liability to said Thomas G. L. Wamsley, or any person claiming under him, by reason of the payment hereby authorized to be made to the said Addison Goodell.

Repayment to Addison Goodell.

Bond of indemnity to the United States.

APPROVED, March 1, 1873.

CHAP. CCXX. — An Act for the Relief of Isabella Orange.

March 1, 1873.

Whereas, Isabella Orange, widow of John C. Orange, late a private, company D, seventh regiment West Virginia volunteers, purchased and came into possession of the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section thirty-five, township four, range six, in Monroe county, Ohio, believing she had received a good title for the same; and whereas, she paid the purchase-money for said lands out of the proceeds of her pension received on account of the death of her husband in the United States service, and she has made valuable improvements on said land; and whereas, said land has never been sold or disposed of by the United States government: Therefore,

Preamble.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the commissioner of the general land office be directed to issue a patent to Isabella Orange, of Monroe county, Ohio, for the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section thirty-five, township four of range six, in Monroe county, Ohio.

Patent for land in Ohio to issue to Isabella Orange.

APPROVED, March 1, 1873.

CHAP. CCXXI. — An Act to authorize the accounting Officers of the Treasury to settle the Accounts of Charles T. Brown and J. J. S. Hassler, late Agents for the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota, on the Grounds of Equity and Justice.

March 1, 1873.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the accounting officers of the treasury be, and they are hereby, authorized to settle the accounts of Charles T. Brown and J. J. S. Hassler, late agents for the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota, on the grounds of equity and justice; but on the same principle, as far as practicable, as the accounts of other agents are settled.

Accounts of Charles T. Brown and J. J. S. Hassler to be settled equitably.

APPROVED, March 1, 1873.

March 1, 1873. CHAP. CCXXII. — An Act for the Relief of Benjamin H. Campbell, Marshal of the United States, for the northern District of Illinois.

Credit to be allowed Benjamin H. Campbell in settlement of accounts for treasury notes, &c., burned.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Attorney-General be, and he is hereby, authorized, in the settlement of the accounts of Benjamin H. Campbell, marshal of the northern district of Illinois, to allow him credit for such sum of United States treasury and national bank notes as were in his hands as marshal, belonging to the United States, not to exceed seven thousand six hundred and seventy-nine dollars and twenty-three cents, as he may be satisfied was burned in said marshal's office in the custom-house building at Chicago, Illinois, on the ninth day of October, anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-one, and the accounts of said marshal occurring prior to said fire may be settled upon such evidence as shall satisfy the proper accounting officers that credits claimed by him in respect to matters happening before said fire are just and true.

APPROVED, March 1, 1873.

CHAP. CCCXXXV. — An Act for the Relief of Horace Tyler.

Payment to Horace Tyler.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, do pay to Horace Tyler, of New Orleans, of the State of Louisiana, the sum of thirty-four thousand nine hundred and eighty-eight dollars and fifty-three cents, in full satisfaction for all work done by him or by his authority on the bar at the mouth of the southwest pass of the mouth of the Mississippi river, and for all claims under and by virtue of a contract entered into between him and Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel M. D. McAles-ter, of the date of fifth November, eighteen hundred and sixty-six.

APPROVED, March 3, 1873.

March 3, 1873.

CHAP. CCCXXXVI. — An Act for the Relief of Hiram W. Hayden.

Preamble.

Whereas, on the sixteenth day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-one, letters-patent of the United States were granted to Hiram W. Hayden for machinery for making kettles and articles of like character from disks of metal, which were extended by the commissioner of patents, and were afterward, on the thirteenth day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-six, reissued to the said Hayden, and were afterward, to wit, on the twenty-fourth day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy, surrendered and reissued to the Waterbury Brass Company, as assignees of the said Hiram W. Hayden, in two divisions, numbered, respectively, three thousand nine hundred and ninety-five and three thousand nine hundred and ninety-six, and which will expire on the sixteenth day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-two; and whereas, it appears that the said inventions and machinery of the said Hiram W. Hayden are novel, and that he is the original and first inventor thereof, and that the same are of great value and importance to the public, and that the said Hiram W. Hayden has received no adequate reward for the service conferred on the public by said invention: Therefore,

Letters-patent to Hiram W. Hayden extended.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the said letters-patent, as reissued May twenty-fourth, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy, be, and the same are hereby, extended, for the term of seven years, from the sixteenth day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-two, to the said Hiram W. Hayden, his heirs and legal representatives; and the commissioner of patents is hereby directed, upon the presentation of said letters-patent and the payment of the fees and charges provided by law, to make a certificate of this extension on the said letters-patent, or on a certified copy thereof, and to cause this extension to be recorded in the records of the Patent-Office.

APPROVED, March 3, 1873.

CHAP. CCCXXXVII. — An Act for the Relief of William Spence.

March 3, 1873.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the Secretary of the Treasury do pay to William Spence, of Murfreesborough, Tennessee, the sum of twenty-four thousand two hundred and ninety dollars and eighty cents, in full satisfaction for all grain, horses, cattle, mules, and hogs of the property of said Spence, taken, and used by the proper military authorities of the United States during the late war of the rebellion, for the support of the army, at or near said Murfreesborough, during the years eighteen hundred and sixty-two and eighteen hundred and sixty-three.

Payment to William Spence.

APPROVED, March 3, 1873.

CHAP. CCCXXXVIII. — An Act for the Relief of Ethan A. Sawyer

March 3, 1873.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers of the treasury be, and they are hereby authorized and required to pay, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Ethan A. Sawyer, the sum of five thousand dollars, for services rendered as scout, guide, and recruiting officer in the United States army, and for property taken by the United States forces and appropriated to their use.

Payment to Ethan A.
Sawyer.

APPROVED, March 3, 1873.

CHAP. CCCXXXIX. — An Act making Appropriations for the Payment of Claims reported allowed by the Commissioners of Claims under the Act of Congress of March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

March 3, 1873.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to pay, out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the several persons in this act named, the several sums mentioned therein, the same being in full for, and the receipt of the same to be taken and accepted in each case as a full and final discharge of, the several claims presented by such persons to the commissioners of claims under the act of March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, and reported to the House of Representatives under the said act; that is to say:

CHAP. CCCXL. — An Act for the Relief of the Heirs at Law and next of Kin of James B. Armstrong deceased — March 3, 1873.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he hereby, is directed, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay to the heirs at law, and next of kin, of James B. Armstrong, late of Cameron county, Texas, in such proportion, as, under the statute of distribution, or laws of Texas, they may be entitled to the same, the sum of thirteen thousand, three hundred and eighty-five dollars and nine cents in full for all sums due the estate of said deceased, as damages for breach of contract entered into by the said James B. Armstrong with the United States, on the fourteenth day of June A.D. eighteen hundred and fifty-five, for transportation of men, provisions, munitions of war, &c., upon the Rio Grande, for which sum aforesaid the court of claims reported a bill to Congress on the eighteenth day of December A.D. eighteen hundred and sixty: Provided, That before any such payment be made proof shall be made satisfactory to the Secretary of the Treasury that said heirs at law and next of kin or such thereof as shall demand their aliquot shares under and by virtue of this act, remained loyal adherents to the cause and government of the United States during the war of the rebellion: And provided further That if proofs shall be made satisfactory to the Secretary of the Treasury, that such heirs at law and next of kin are entitled to said sum, or any part thereof, as aforesaid, and that the administrators of the said James B. Armstrong, deceased, heretofore, to wit, on the twenty-fifth of January eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, appointed by the probate court of Cameron county, Texas, have not been discharged from their said trust as administrators, and have given adequate security for the funds of said

CHAP. CCCXLI. — An Act for the Relief of Miles Greenwood.

Claim of Miles Greenwood may be submitted to the court of claims;

basis of investigation;

compensation for alterations.

Certain payments to be deducted.

If changes saved expense, &c.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the claim of Miles Greenwood, of Cincinnati, Ohio, for further compensation for the construction of the iron-clad monitor "Tippecanoe" may be submitted by said Greenwood, within six months after the passage of this act, to the court of claims, under and in compliance with the rules and regulations of said court; and said court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine and render judgment upon the same: Provided, however, That the investigation of said claim shall be made upon the following basis: The said court shall ascertain the additional cost which was necessarily incurred by the contractor for building the iron-clad monitor "Tippecanoe," in the completion of the same, by reason of any changes or alterations in the plans and specifications required, and delays in the prosecution of the work, which were not provided for in the original contract; but no allowance for any advance in the price of labor or material shall be considered, unless such advance occurred during the prolonged term for completing the work rendered necessary by the delay resulting from the action of the government aforesaid, and then only when such advance could not have been avoided by the exercise of ordinary prudence and diligence on the part of the contractor: And provided further, That the compensation fixed by the contract between the contractor and the government for specific alterations shall be conclusive as to the compensation to be made therefor: And provided further, That all moneys paid to said contractor by the government over and above the original contract-price for the building of said vessel shall be deducted from any amounts allowed by said court, by reason of the matters hereinbefore stated: And provided further, That if any of such changes caused less work and expense to the contractor than the original plans and specifications, a corresponding reduction shall be made from the contract-price, and the amount thereof be deducted from any allowance to be made by said court to said claimant.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That jurisdiction and authority are hereby conferred on the court of claims to adjudicate, on terms of equity and justice, the claims of the heirs and legal representatives of Leonidas Haskell, deceased, for stores furnished the quartermaster's department of the army of the United States in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and thereafter; and there shall be the right of appeal from the finding and judgment of said court of claims to the supreme court of the United States, as in other cases.

Court of claims may determine the claims of the heirs, &c., of Leonidas Haskell.

Appeal.

APPROVED, March 3, 1873.

CHAP. CDLXXV. — An Act granting a Pension to Mrs. Mollie L. Roberts.

March 3, 1873.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place the name of Mrs. Mollie L. Roberts, widow of John S. Roberts, late first lieutenant in the twenty-second regiment of Indiana volunteers, on the pension roll, at the rate of fifteen dollars per month from the death of her husband, who at the time of his death was receiving a pension as such lieutenant, and to continue during her widowhood.

Pension to Mrs. Mollie L. Roberts.

APPROVED, March 3, 1873.
