Vol. xvi. p. 271.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the thirty-second section of said act is hereby amended by adding to the last clause thereof as follows: Provided, That in case of difference in width of gauges of connecting railroads, the goods may be immediately transferred from one car to another under the personal supervision of an inspector, and such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

APPROVED, April 20, 1871.

April 20, 1871. CHAP. XXVI. — An Act to amend the Act approved June sixteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, entitled "An Act providing for the [S]election of Jurors to serve in the several Courts of the District of Columbia.

Preamble.

1871, ch. 62.
Vol. xvi. p. 419.

WHEREAS, by the first section of said act, the list of jurors to serve in said courts is to be made by the register of Washington city, and the clerks of the city of Georgetown, and levy court of Washington county, and said officers are abolished by the act approved February twenty-first, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, entitled "An act to provide a government for the District of Columbia": Therefore,

Supreme court of the District of Columbia to designate persons to make lists of jurors.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, until the legislative assembly shall otherwise provide, the supreme court of the District of Columbia may, by orders in general term from time to time, designate necessary officers or persons to make the lists of jurors for service in said court, instead of said abolished officers.

Justice of circuit court may order talesmen to be summoned.

SEC. 2. That the justice holding the special term usually called the circuit court, may order talesmen to be summoned by the marshal whenever the panel drawn for service in said court, for any reason, becomes defective.

APPROVED, April 20, 1871.
