

Additional articles of agreement between the Post-Office Departments of the United States of America and of Newfoundland, establishing an exchange of postal cards between the two countries. Aug. 21 and Sept. 15, 1873.

ARTICLE I.

For the purpose of providing additional facilities of mail communication between the United States and Newfoundland, it is hereby mutually agreed that United States postal cards mailed at any post-office in the United States and addressed to Newfoundland, and Newfoundland postal cards mailed at any post-office in Newfoundland and addressed to the United States, when prepaid an additional postage of one cent, by affixing thereto an ordinary one-cent postage-stamp of the country of origin in addition to the stamp printed or impressed on the card, shall be reciprocally forwarded and delivered in the country of destination, free of charge. Postal cards not so prepaid will not be forwarded in the mails between the two countries. Postal cards.

ARTICLE II.

The regulations and instructions governing the use and treatment of postal cards in the domestic mails of the United States and of Newfoundland, respectively, shall apply equally to the postal cards mailed in either country and addressed to the other country. Regulations for postal cards.

ARTICLE III.

Each country will retain to its own use the postage it collects at the prescribed rate on postal cards forwarded to the other country. Postages.

ARTICLE IV.

The present articles shall be considered additional to those agreed upon between the two offices on the 13th of November, A. D. 1872, and shall come into operation on the 1st of October, 1873. In addition to articles 13 and 20, November, 1872, vol. xvii, p. 945.

In witness whereof the Postmaster-General of the United States of America and the Postmaster-General of Newfoundland have hereto set their hands and affixed their seals, at the date set opposite to each respectively. Signatures.
