

Additional article of agreement between the Post Office Departments of the United States of America and Newfoundland.

Sept. 26 and Oct. 6, 1876.

SOLE ARTICLE.

It is agreed that the single rate of international letter-postage, in full to destination, shall be five cents on each letter weighing half an ounce (15 grammes) or less, and an additional rate of five cents for each additional weight of half an ounce (15 grammes) or fraction thereof, the prepayment of which shall be compulsory at the office of mailing in either country.

Letter-rate reduced.

This article shall take effect immediately, superseding the provisions of the second paragraph of article 3 of the Postal Convention of 13-20 November, 1872, which paragraph is hereby rescinded.

Convention of 13-20 Nov., 1872. 17 Stat., 945. Article 3, par. 2 rescinded.

In witness whereof the Postmaster General of the United States of America and the Postmaster General of Newfoundland have hereto set their hands and affixed their seals at the date set opposite to each respectively.

Signatures.

JAS. N. TYNER,

Postmaster General of the United States of America.

October 6, 1876.

JOHN DELANEY,

Postmaster General Newfoundland.

September 22, 1876.

I hereby approve the foregoing additional article, and in testimony thereof I have caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Approval.
