He shall then ascertain the actual amount of grain mashed by them during each of said months, and the yield of spirits per bushel from such grain for each month. He shall next ascertain whether any accidents which were unavoidable occurred during either or both of said months, in the breaking or destruction of machinery or in the scarcity of water at their distillery, which prevented or delayed them in the mashing of grain or in the filling or emptying of tubs at the proper time. If he shall find that any such accidents did occur, he shall next ascertain the amount of loss that said distillers sustained thereby for each of said months. He shall next ascertain if said distillers fully accounted to the government for all the spirits produced by them at their distillery during each of said months, and, if so, whether the amount so produced each month, after deducting from the capacity or amount charged against them all losses and detention sustained by accident as aforesaid, if any accidents occurred, was equal to eighty per centum of the capacity actually used by them for each of said months; and if he shall so find, he shall then abate the assessments, in whole or in part, made against said distillers for said months, which are as follows: For the month of October, a sum not exceeding thirteen thousand one hundred and ninety-eight dollars and fifty cents; and for the month of January, a sum not exceeding five thousand seven hundred and ninety-five dollars and six cents; and no assessment for deficiency tax for these months shall be made against them except as herein provided. But if said Commissioner shall find that said distillers did not make eighty per centum of the capacity used by them during each of said months, after making the proper deductions for accidents as aforesaid, if any occurred, during either or both of said months, then he shall change the assessments made for said months so as to conform them to the amount of deficiency that he shall find due

CHAP. 123.—An act to permit Elias C. Boudinot, of the Cherokee Nation, to sue in the Court of Claims.

1868, ch. 186.
Stat., 15, 167.
Preamble.

Whereas, the United States by the enactment of the one hundred and seventh section of the act of Congress approved the twentieth day of July, anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-eight superseded the tenth section of the treaty entered into by and between the United States and the Cherokee Nation on the nineteenth day of July, anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-six; and

Whereas the property of Elias C. Boudinot, a Cherokee Indian, was seized and disposed of by the authorities of the United States in consequence of the enactment of said one hundred and seventh section, although the Supreme Court of the United States in its opinion expressed in the case prosecuted by said Elias C. Boudinot to test the constitutionality of said one hundred and seventh section and the validity of the said seizure and disposition of his property, and reported in eleventh Wallace United States Supreme Court Reports, page six hundred and sixteen entitled "The Cherokee Tobacco", declared "that there was no ground for any imputation upon the integrity or good faith of" him, the said Elias C. Boudinot; and, further, that it is to be presumed that if a wrong has been done to him, the said Elias C. Boudinot, the Congress of the United States will promptly give the proper relief if applied to by the said Elias C. Boudinot; and

Whereas the Supreme Court of the United States was not called upon to decide, and did not decide, whether the executive officers of the United States had taken the necessary steps to make operative said one hundred and seventh section in said Cherokee Nation anterior to said seizure of the property of said Elias C. Boudinot; and

Whereas there is grave doubt that such steps were taken, and it manifestly appears that a wrong has been done to said Elias C. Boudinot, in consequence of the casual infraction of the said treaty, which should be repaired by appropriate satisfaction in maintenance of said treaty, which still subsists; Now therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in order to give Elias C. Boudinot, of the Cherokee Nation the proper relief for the wrong done him by reason of said seizure and disposition of his property, he, the said Elias C. Boudinot, be, and he is hereby, authorized to bring suit in the Court of Claims against the United States Government, to recover what may be due to him in justice and equity for the loss inflicted upon him by reason of said seizure for an alleged violation of the internal-revenue laws, of his property, a tobacco factory, its detention, and damage thereto whilst under seizure, the value of the tobacco, material, and other personal property also seized, and the expenses to which he was subjected thereby.
