

CHAP. 595.—An act for the relief of Saint Patrick's Church in the city of Washington, District of Columbia.

June 30, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the congregation of Saint Patrick's Church in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, be permitted to pay the general taxes in arrears upon lots numbered from thirty-six to forty-six, both inclusive, in square numbered three hundred and seventy-six, in the said city of Washington, for the years from June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, to June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty, without the interest, penalties, and costs that have accrued thereon; and that upon the payment of said principal sum of the taxes, all interest, penalties, and costs that have accrued thereon be remitted and released by the District of Columbia.

Saint Patrick's Church, Washington, D. C.

Remission of interest, etc., on delinquent taxes, upon payment of principal.

Approved, June 30, 1886.

CHAP. 596.—An act for the relief of E. J. Phillips.

June 30, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Postmaster-General be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to settle and adjust the accounts of E. J. Phillips, postmaster at Oberlin, Ohio, and credit him in said settlement with the sum of two thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and eighty-nine cents, the same being for United States postage-stamps of the value of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven dollars and sixty-four cents, and money-order funds amounting to two hundred and seventy-seven dollars and twenty-five cents, lost by a burglary, without any fault or negligence of the postmaster.

E. J. Phillips. Allowance to, for stamps and postal funds stolen.

Approved, June 30, 1886.

CHAP. 597.—An act for the relief of William Fisher.

June 30, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of two hundred and thirty-one dollars and thirty-cents, being the amount of revenue tax imposed by law upon William Fisher, of Franklin County, Virginia, for the manufacture, and so forth, of two hundred and fifty-seven gallons of distilled spirits which were destroyed by fire at the house of said Fisher, in said county, on the eleventh day of March, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, without fault or negligence upon his part, and the interest and penalties imposed for the non-payment of said tax, be, and the same are hereby, released and remitted to him; and if, prior to the passage of this act, the whole or any part of said tax, interest, or penalties shall have been paid by him, then the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to refund and repay to the said William Fisher the sum or sums of money so paid by him by reason of the liabilities hereinbefore mentioned.

William Fisher. Remission of revenue tax, etc., on spirits destroyed by fire.

Refund of tax, etc., if already paid.

Approved, June 30, 1886.

CHAP. 598.—An act for the relief of Lafayette Fowler.

June 30, 1886.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of one hundred and thirty dollars and fifty cents, being the amount of revenue tax imposed by law upon Lafayette Fowler, of Carroll County, Virginia, for the manufacture, and so forth, of one hundred and forty-five gallons of distilled spirits which were destroyed by fire in the storehouse of said Fowler, in said county, on the twenty-second day of February, eighteen

Lafayette Fowler. Remission of revenue tax, etc., on spirits destroyed by fire.