CHAP. 6.—For the relief of Joseph Cox, administrator of Charles Pasters, deceased. February 1, 1888.

Whereas, Charles Pasters, of Randolph County, Indiana, was, on the twelfth day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty-four, granted a pension, for which a certificate was then and there duly issued to him; that there was due said Pasters on said certificate the sum of four hundred and eighty-three dollars and seventy-three cents; that a voucher for said sum was duly executed by said Pasters, in his lifetime, and returned to the proper United States pension agent at Indianapolis, Indiana; and Preamble.

Whereas, said Pasters, on the twenty-fifth day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty-four, and, before he received the check for said sum, died, leaving no widow or child surviving him; and

Whereas, afterwards, to wit, on the thirty-first day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty-four, the United States pension agent aforesaid issued a check for the sum aforesaid payable to said Pasters; and

Whereas, said check was delivered to Joseph Cox, who was the duly appointed administrator of said Pasters, as a part of his, said Pasters' estate; and

Whereas, the said Cox, as such administrator, under the direction of the circuit court of said Randolph County, applied, in good faith, the proceeds of said check, to wit, the sum aforesaid, to the payment of the funeral expenses and other indebtedness of said Pasters; and

Whereas, the United States has brought suit against the said Joseph Cox to recover the sum aforesaid; Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said Joseph Cox be, and he is hereby, fully acquitted and discharged from all liability to the United States on account of the collection of the check aforesaid, or the appropriation thereof, or of its proceeds, or of the sum of the four hundred and eighty-three dollars and seventy-three cents, so allowed said Charles Pasters, deceased, as aforesaid.

CHAP. 1236.—An act to amend the naval record of Nickolas Leuschen, Peter Leuschen, and Loth Possum.

October 19, 1888.

Whereas, Nicholas Leuschen, Peter Leuschen, and Loth Possum, citizens of the United States and residents of Erie, Pennsylvania, did, on the thirtieth day of July, anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-four, enlist at Erie, Pennsylvania, as volunteers in the United States Navy for three years or during the war; and Preamble.

Whereas, they were taken to Buffalo, in the State of New York, and there, without their knowledge or consent, sold as substitutes, so that their names now appear on the records of the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting as substitutes, credited as such to the Thirtieth Congressional district, in the State of New York, instead of as volunteers from the twenty-seventh Congressional district, in the State of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas they were honorably discharged at the expiration of their three years of service:

Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of Navy be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to cause the names of Nickolas Leuschen, Peter Leuschen, and Loth Possum to be entered on the appropriate records of the Navy Department as volunteers, enlisted in the United States Navy July thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, at Erie, Pennsylvania, and to cause them to be credited to the Twenty-seventh Congressional district of the State of Pennsylvania.

Naval records of Nickolas Leuschen, Peter Leuschen, and Loth Possum.

SEC. 2. That they are hereby restored to the standing and to all the rights, privileges, advantages, immunities, and emoluments, past, present, and prospective, now enjoyed or to be hereafter enjoyed by volunteer soldiers and sailors of the United States.

To be rated as volunteers.

[No. 28.] Joint Resolution to arbitrate and settle the questions at issue between the District of Columbia and Samuel Strong.

Preamble.

Whereas for many years there has been vexatious and expensive litigation between the District of Columbia and Samuel Strong, that is likely to continue for many years to come, involving each year additional expense to the parties concerned; and

Whereas experience shows that matters of account so complicated and extensive consume the whole term of the court trying the same, to the delay of other causes; and

Whereas it is the duty of the Government and the interest of the citizen that such controversies should be ended as speedily and satisfactorily as possible: Therefore,

Samuel Strong.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the matters in controversy, as shown by the pleadings, between the District of Columbia and Samuel Strong, known in the circuit court of the District of Columbia as causes at law numbered fourteen thousand seven hundred and six and fourteen thousand seven hundred and thirty-six, be submitted to the arbitration of three persons to be appointed by the President of the United States, and the award of said arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be final and conclusive as to the matters in issue between the parties under the pleadings in said causes, which award shall be filed in the papers of the said causes in the district court of the District of Columbia, and noted on the records of said court, and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed, should the award be in favor of the said Samuel Strong, to pay said award, when duly certified to him by the clerk of said court, in the same manner that judgments against the District of Columbia are paid when rendered by the Court of Claims.

Suit against District of Columbia submitted to arbitration.

Evidence.

SEC. 2. That it shall be lawful for said arbitrators to consider any competent evidence heretofore taken either before any of the courts where said causes were pending, or before any of the referees heretofore appointed, including the evidence taken before William Penn Clark, Albert E. Payne, and Edward Clark, and if, in the judgment of said arbitrators, further evidence shall be deemed necessary, the same may be taken by them, under the rules now governing the taking of evidence, to be used before the courts of the District of Columbia.

Consent to be entered on court record.

SEC. 3. That before the President of the United States shall appoint the said arbitrators, the said Samuel Strong shall consent in writing to the appointment of the said arbitrators as provided in this joint resolution, and, further, that any award made by them, or a majority of them, shall be final and conclusive as to matter in issue between the parties to these causes, which consent shall be entered of record in the court in which the cases are pending, and shall be certified by the clerk of said court to the President of the United States.

Former decisions of law to be followed.

SEC. 4. That the said arbitrators in passing upon any questions of law, involved in the pleadings in said causes, shall follow and be bound in making their award by any judgment or decision heretofore rendered in the said causes, or either of them, by the supreme court of the District of Columbia in general term, and in stating the account between the parties shall credit the District of Columbia with the face value of the certificates issued.

Compensation.

SEC. 5. That the compensation of said arbitrators shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars each.

Approved July 10, 1888.

[No. 40.] Joint resolution in recognition of the services of Joseph Francis.

August 27, 1888.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in view of the life-long services to humanity and to his country of the now venerable Joseph Francis, in the construction and perfection of life-saving appliances by which many thousands of lives have been saved, the Director of the Mint is hereby authorized and required to strike a gold medal, with a suitable device and inscription, prepared under the direction of the Joint Committee on the Library, to be presented by the President of the United States to Mr. Francis, in recognition of his eminent services.

Joseph Francis.
Gold medal awarded to, for life-saving appliances.

SEC. 2. That a sufficient sum of money to carry this resolution into effect is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Appropriation.

Approved, August 27, 1888.

[No. 53.] Joint resolution authorizing Brigadier-General Absalom Baird, United States Army, to accept from the President of the French Republic a diploma conferring the decoration of Commander of the National Order of the Legion of Honor.

October 19, 1888.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Brigadier-General Absalom Baird, of the United States Army, is hereby authorized to accept from the President of the French Republic a diploma conferring upon him the decoration of Commander of the National Order of the Legion of Honor.

Absalom Baird.
May accept decoration from French Republic.

Approved, October 19, 1888.
