

March 20, 1888.

CHAP. 33.—An act for the relief of A. B. Norton.

A. B. Norton.
Payment to.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to A. B. Norton, late postmaster, Dallas, Texas, the sum of one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three dollars, being the amount paid by him involuntarily, under protest and moral duress, to the inspectors of the Post-Office Department, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, on account of certain money-order remittances made by the postmasters at Cleburne and Granbury, Texas.

Approved, March 20, 1888.

March 23, 1888.

CHAP. 35.—An act increasing the pension of John C. Johnston.

John C. Johnston.
Pension increased.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the pension of John C. Johnston, certificate numbered forty-five thousand three hundred and three, as private Company A, Sixty-first Pennsylvania Infantry Volunteers, be increased to thirty-six dollars per month, the same to be in lieu of the pension he is now receiving.

Approved, March 23, 1888.

March 23, 1888.

CHAP. 36.—An act granting a pension to Mrs Eliza L. Mace.

Eliza L. Mace.
Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the laws regulating pensions, the name of Mrs Eliza L. Mace, widow of Richard E. Mace, late of Company I, Third Maine Volunteers, deceased.

Approved, March 23, 1888.

March 23, 1888.

CHAP. 37.—An act granting a pension to John Humes.

John Humes.
Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, subject to the pension laws, the name of John Humes, father of George W. Humes, deceased, late a private in Company E, Second Maine Cavalry Volunteers.

Approved, March 23, 1888.

March 23, 1888.

CHAP. 38.—An act granting a pension to Mary Everingham Brown.

Mary Everingham
Brown.
Pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension-roll, the name of Mary Everingham Brown, a volunteer nurse during the war of the rebellion, and pay her a pension of twelve dollars a month.

Approved, March 23, 1888.