

February 14, 1889.

CHAP. 167.—An act for the relief of William R. Blakeslee.

William R. Blakeslee.
Honorable discharge to.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to remove the record of "dismissal from the service on account of incompetency," now standing against the name of William R. Blakeslee, late surgeon of the One hundred and fifteenth Pennsylvania Volunteers, and instead thereof show him as being honorably discharged.

Approved, February 14, 1889.

February 15, 1889.

CHAP. 170.—An act for the relief of the trustees of the First Baptist Church, at Smithland, Kentucky.

First Baptist Church,
Smithland, Ky.
Payment to.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to the trustees of the First Baptist Church, at Smithland, Kentucky, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five hundred dollars, for the use and occupation of their church building by the Army of the United States during the late war.

Approved, February 15, 1889.

February 16, 1889.

CHAP. 173.—An act for the relief of William H. Robertson and Edward L. Hedden, late collector of customs for the district of the city of New York.

William H. Robertson.
Allowance in accounts of.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to allow William H. Robertson, collector of the district of the city of New York, in settlement of his accounts, a credit for the sum of two thousand three hundred and forty-six dollars and twenty-five cents, the same being a sum now charged to the said William H. Robertson as collector of said district for moneys received at the post-office in the city of New York, and for remittances made by postmasters at other points in the United States, for duties collected on books imported through the mails between the twenty-first day of August, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, and the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and for which one Douglas Smith, a late clerk in the custom-house at the port of New York, assigned to the duty of verifying such moneys, failed to account, without default or negligence of the said Collector Robertson; and that the proper accounting officers be, and they are hereby, authorized to allow Edward L. Hedden, collector of the district of the city of New York, in settlement of his account a credit for the sum of three thousand and seventy-three dollars and seventy-four cents, the same being now charged to the said Edward L. Hedden as collector of said district, for moneys received at the post-office in the city of New York, and for remittances made by postmasters at other places in the United States, for duties collected on books imported through the mails between the first day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and the twenty-ninth day of August, eighteen hundred and eighty-six, and for which the said Douglas Smith also has failed to account without default or negligence of the said Collector Hedden.

Approved, February 16, 1889.

Edward L. Hedden.
Allowance in accounts of.