Osterman, captain, Quartermaster Corps, $17.60; A. J. Tagliabue, first lieutenant, Finance Department, $35.07; and George N. Watson, Major, Finance Department (now retired), $29.25, said amounts being public funds for which they are accountable and which represent amounts due to minor errors in computation of pay and allowances due military personnel, who are no longer in the service of the United States, and which amounts have been disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Major F. J. Baker.

SEC. 2. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit the accounts of F. J. Baker, major, Finance Department, $149.31, of which amount $105.57 represents payments made to three former officers of the National Guard; $37.80 representing payments made to two former Reserve Officers' Training Corps students of the University of Florida and for which efforts to collect from the individual payees for the overpayments have been unsuccessful; and $5.94 paid to an officer of the Army for Pullman accommodations used by him on a change of station under proper orders, but for which the cash receipt necessary to support the voucher covering payment was lost, all of which amounts were disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States in the accounts of Major Baker.

Lieutenant Roy W. Camblin.

SEC. 3. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit in the accounts of Roy W. Camblin, first lieutenant, Air Corps (formerly disbursing officer, Ellington Field, Texas), the amount of $27.46, said amount being public funds for which he is accountable and which represents amounts due to errors in computing ration savings due organizations of the Army which have since been disbanded.

SEC. 4. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Roy W. Camblin, first lieutenant, Air Corps, $107.36, representing an amount erroneously stopped against his pay by the Secretary of War for disallowances appearing in his accounts as disbursing officer at Ellington Field, Texas, in 1921 and 1922, and which disallowances had been cleared by the Comptroller General of the United States under authority of law prior to the collection of the stoppage.

SEC. 5. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit the accounts of F. A. Englehart, major, Ordnance Department, $44.87, public funds for which he is accountable and which represent the proceeds due the United States from a cashier's check for $70 drawn on March 30, 1925, on the First National Bank, Conyers, Georgia, which bank failed between date of receiving check by the Government, April 2, 1925, and date of its presentation for payment, April 17, 1925, $44.87 being the balance outstanding after the affairs of the above-mentioned bank had been liquidated.

SEC. 6. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit in the accounts of John B. Harper, major, Finance Department, the sum of $80.64, public funds for which he is accountable and which were paid by him to Joseph F. Battley, first lieutenant, Chemical Warfare Service, for mileage performed under War Department orders and which amount was disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States: Provided, That the amount so paid shall not be charged against any moneys otherwise due payee.

SEC. 7. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit in the accounts of C. Newton, Junior, major, Finance Department, the sum of $100, said amount being public funds for which he is accountable and which represents a payment made to William A. Weaver for services in testifying as an expert witness at a general court martial of an officer, which amount has been disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States.

SEC. 8. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit in the accounts of K. W. Slauson, captain, Quartermaster Corps, the sum of $22.26, public funds for which he is accountable and which were paid to George L. Dewey, first lieutenant, Infantry, for traveling expenses and disallowed by the Comptroller General of the United States.

SEC. 9. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to George L. Dewey, first lieutenant, United States Army, the sum of $160.49, being the amount properly due him for traveling expenses, voucher for which was approved for payment by the General Accounting Office but used as an offset against the disallowances in the accounts of Captain K. W. Slauson, Quartermaster Corps, for a previous payment made Lieutenant Dewey for travel allowance while on duty as a language student in France: Provided, That no charge shall be raised in the accounts of K. W. Slauson, captain, Quartermaster Corps, and E. J. Heller, captain, Quartermaster Corps, on account of this payment.

SEC. 10. That the Comptroller General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to credit in the accounts of George N. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the Court of Claims of the United States, notwithstanding the lapse of time or the statute of limitation and the fact that George B. Gates was an employee of the United States as a draftsman at the Boston Navy Yard when he made his invention, and notwithstanding the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 25, 1910, and the amendatory Act approved July 1, 1918, to hear, adjudicate, and render judgment on the claim of the said George B. Gates for compensation for the use and manufacture by or for the United States of an invention of said George B. Gates described in and covered by Letters Patent Numbered 997616, issued by the Patent Office of the United States July 11, 1911. That the claim of George B. Gates now pending in the Court of Claims, Numbered 17320, pursuant to Senate resolution considered and agreed to February 9, 1920, be dismissed: Provided, however, That the testimony and exhibits heretofore adduced on behalf of claimant and the defendant constitute the record in the present claim for the decision by the Court of Claims.

SEC. 2. From any decision or judgment rendered under the authority of this Act application for appellate review may be made by either party in conformity to the law applicable to suits in the Court of Claims by owners of patents under and by virtue of the statute of June 25, 1910, as amended by the Act of July 1, 1918; and any judgment in favor of claimant for compensation for the use of his invention shall be paid in the same manner as other judgments for compensation rendered by the Court of Claims.

That where the payment to be made under this Act is less than $1,000, and the person who rendered the service is dead, and no demand is presented by a duly appointed legal representative of his estate, payment may be made to the decedent's widow or legal heirs as is provided by existing law relating to the settlement of accounts of deceased officers or enlisted men of the Army (34 Stat. L. 750): Provided, That in all cases where the original claimants were adjudicated bankrupts, payments shall be made to the next of kin instead of to the assignees in bankruptcy: And provided further, That wherever under this Act it is provided that a payment be made to an executor or an administrator, whether original or ancillary or de bonis non, and such executor or administrator is dead or no longer holds his office, payment shall be made to the successor therein, his title to hold such office being established to the satisfaction of the Comptroller General of the United States.

SEC. 3. That no part of the amount of any claim appropriated for in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any attorney on account of services rendered in connection with said claim: Provided, That in each case, payment for which is herein provided, the Comptroller General shall deduct a sum equal to said 10 per centum and pay one-half of the same to the attorney or attorneys who appeared for the claimant in the Court of Claims, as found by said court, and as set forth in the Senate documents aforesaid, and pay the other one-half of the same to the attorney or attorneys who performed services toward securing provision for the payment herein of the amounts so found; and in event of the death of any of said attorney or attorneys, payment of said 10 per centum to be made to his or their legal representatives, upon execution of a full release and a complete discharge to the claimant for all services rendered therein, and after the payment for such services the balance thereof to be paid to the claimant. It shall be unlawful for any agent or agents, attorney or attorneys, to exact, collect, withhold, or receive any sum which in the aggregate exceeds 10 per centum of the amount of any item appropriated in this Act on account of services rendered or advances made in connection with said claim, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Harry F. Stern.
Payment to estate of.

Condition.

Proviso.
Limitation on attorney's, etc., fees.

Penalty for violation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the legal representatives of Harry F. Stern the sum of $18,704.89, but such payment shall not be made unless the Secretary of the Treasury receives evidence satisfactory to him that such legal representatives have paid a like sum (plus any penalty imposed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania) to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania before the expiration of ninety days after the date of the enactment of this Act. Such sum, payable to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as part of the inheritance tax imposed by the laws of such Commonwealth on the estate of the said Harry F. Stern, was erroneously paid to the United States as part of the Federal tax, and its recovery has been barred by the statute of limitations: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or agents, attorney or attorneys, on account of services rendered in connection with said claim.
