

March 23 and
April 13, 1944
[E. A. S. 412]

Agreement between the United States of America and Guatemala respecting the exchange of official publications. Effectuated by exchange of notes signed at Guatemala March 23 and April 13, 1944; effective March 23, 1944.

The American Ambassador to the Guatemalan Minister of Foreign Affairs

EMBASSY OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

No. 109

Guatemala, March 23, 1944.

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to refer to Your Excellency's courteous note no. 3388 of March 13, 1944, [¹] and to earlier correspondence regarding the exchange of official publications between the United States of America and Guatemala.

It gives me great pleasure to inform Your Excellency that my Government will be glad to undertake an exchange of official publications with the Government of Guatemala, which will be carried out in accordance with the following provisions:

1. The official exchange offices for the transmission of official publications shall be, on the part of the United States of America, the Smithsonian Institution; and, on the part of the Republic of Guatemala, the Tipografía Nacional.
2. The publications exchanged shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress; and on behalf of the Republic of Guatemala by the Biblioteca Nacional de Guatemala.
3. The Government of the United States of America shall furnish regularly to the Government of the Republic of Guatemala one copy of each of the official publications enumerated in the annex entitled "List I"; and the Government of the Republic of Guatemala shall furnish regularly to the Government of the United States of America one copy of each of the official publications enumerated in the annex entitled "List II".
4. Each Government shall furnish regularly to the other Government, without the necessity of subsequent negotiation, (a) one copy of any important publication that is not enumerated in "List I" or "List II" and which may be issued in the future by a department or other instrumentality of such Government, (b) one copy of any important publication that may be issued in the future by a department or other instrumentality of such Government which does not at present issue publications, and (c) one copy of any important publication that may be issued by a department or other instrumentality which may subsequently be established by such Government.

Post, p. 1364.

Post, p. 1365.

[Not printed.]

Mar. 23, 1944
Apr. 13, 1944

5. Neither Government shall be obliged by this agreement to furnish confidential publications, blank forms, or circular letters which are not of a public nature.
6. Each Government agrees to bear postal, railroad, steamship, and other charges arising in its own territory.
7. Each Government agrees to expedite shipments as far as possible.
8. This agreement shall not be understood to modify any agreement regarding the exchange of official publications in effect between a department or other instrumentality of one of the two Governments and a department or other instrumentality of the other Government.

If the Government of Guatemala is in accord with the foregoing text, my Government will, upon receipt of a corresponding note from Your Excellency, consider the agreement concluded and in effect from March 23, 1944.

Please accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest and most distinguished consideration.

BOAZ LONG.

342-P (73-0)

GUATEMALA, 13 de abril de 1944.

SEÑOR EMBAJADOR:

He tenido el honor de recibir la atenta nota de Vuestra Excelencia, número 109, de fecha 23 del mes de marzo recién pasado, en la cual se sirve comunicarme que el ilustrado Gobierno de los Estados Unidos está de acuerdo en poner en práctica un intercambio de publicaciones oficiales con el Gobierno de Guatemala.

Me es grato manifestar a Vuestra Excelencia que el Gobierno de Guatemala conviene, desde luego, en que dicho intercambio de publicaciones se lleve a cabo, de acuerdo con las siguientes cláusulas:

1—Las oficinas encargadas de la trasmisión de las publicaciones oficiales de intercambio, serán, por parte de Guatemala, la Tipografía Nacional, y por parte de los Estados Unidos, la Institución "Smithsonian."

2—Por parte de la República de Guatemala, recibirá las publicaciones del canje la Biblioteca Nacional de Guatemala; y por parte de los Estados Unidos, la Biblioteca del Congreso.

3—El Gobierno de la República de Guatemala proporcionará regularmente al Gobierno de los Estados Unidos un ejemplar de cada una de las publicaciones oficiales enumeradas en el anexo titulado "Lista II," y el Gobierno de los Estados Unidos proporcionará regularmente al Gobierno de la República de Guatemala un ejemplar de cada una de las publicaciones oficiales enumeradas en el anexo titulado "Lista I."

4—Cada Gobierno suministrará regularmente al otro Gobierno, sin necesidad de nueva negociación, (a) un ejemplar de cualquier publicación importante que no esté enumerada en la "Lista I" ni en la "Lista II" y la cual pueda ser editada en el futuro por un Departamento u otra Dependencia gubernativa; (b) un ejemplar de cualquier publicación importante que pueda hacerse en el futuro por un Departamento u otra Dependencia gubernativa, que al presente no haga publicaciones; y (c) un ejemplar de cualquier publicación importante que pueda hacer un Departamento u otra Dependencia gubernativa que pueda establecerse con posterioridad.

5—Ninguno de los dos Gobiernos estará obligado por este convenio a proporcionar publicaciones confidenciales, formularios en blanco, ni cartas circulares que no sean para el conocimiento público.

6—Cada Gobierno conviene en sufragar los derechos postales, ferroviarios, navieros y otros gastos, dentro de su propio territorio.

7—Cada Gobierno conviene en facilitar lo más posible los despachos de publicaciones.

Mar. 23, 1944
Apr. 13, 1944

8—No se entenderá que este convenio modifique ningún arreglo relativo a canje de publicaciones oficiales en vigor entre un Departamento u otra Dependencia gubernativa de cualquiera de ambos Gobiernos y otro Departamento u Dependencia del otro Gobierno.

El Gobierno de Guatemala está de acuerdo en que esta nota y la muy atenta de Vuestra Excelencia, número 109, del día 23 de marzo último, con las listas anexas, constituyan el convenio para intercambio de publicaciones oficiales entre Guatemala y los Estados Unidos; y, asimismo, en que dicho convenio se considere en vigor, a partir del 23 de marzo de 1944.

Aprovecho la oportunidad para renovar a Vuestra Excelencia los sentimientos de mi más alta y distinguida consideración,

CARLOS SALAZAR

Excelentísimo Señor BOAZ LONG,

Embajador Extraordinario y Plenipotenciario de los Estados Unidos.

GUATEMALA, April 13, 1944.

MR. AMBASSADOR:

I have had the honor of receiving Your Excellency's kind note, number 109, dated March 23 last, in which you are good enough to communicate to me that the United States Government is agreeable to effecting an exchange of official publications with the Government of Guatemala.

It gives me pleasure to inform Your Excellency that the Government of Guatemala agrees hereby that the said exchange of publications shall be effected, in accordance with the following clauses:

1. The offices charged with the transmission of the official exchange publications shall be, on the part of Guatemala, the Tipografía Nacional, and on the part of the United States, the Smithsonian Institution.

2. The publications exchanged shall be received on behalf of the Republic of Guatemala by the Biblioteca Nacional de Guatemala; and on behalf of the United States by the Library of Congress.

3. The Government of the Republic of Guatemala shall furnish regularly to the Government of the United States one copy of each of the official publications enumerated in the annex entitled "List II", and the Government of the United States shall furnish regularly to the Government of the Republic of Guatemala one copy of each of the official publications enumerated in the annex entitled "List I".

Post, p. 1372.

Post, p. 1371.

4. Each Government shall furnish regularly to the other Government, without the necessity of subsequent negotiation, (a) one copy of any important publication which is not enumerated by "List I" or "List II" and which may be issued in the future by a department or other instrumentality of such Government; (b) one copy of any important publication that may be issued in the future by a department or other instrumentality of such Government which does not at present issue publications; and (c) one copy of any important publication which may be issued by a department or other instrumentality which may subsequently be established by such Government.

5. Neither Government shall be obliged by this agreement to furnish confidential publications, blank forms, or circular letters which are not of a public nature.

6. Each Government agrees to bear postal, railroad, steamship, and other charges arising in its own territory.

7. Each Government agrees to expedite shipments as far as possible.

8. This agreement shall not be understood to modify any agreement regarding the exchange of official publications in effect between a department or other instrumentality of one of the two Governments and a department or other instrumentality of the other Government.

The Government of Guatemala is agreed that this note and Your Excellency's very kind note number 109, of March 23 last, with the annexed lists, constitute the agreement for the exchange of official publications between Guatemala and the United States; and, likewise, that the said agreement be considered in force from March 23, 1944.

I avail myself of the opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the expression of the sentiments of my highest and most distinguished consideration.

CARLOS SALAZAR

His Excellency BOAZ LONG,
*Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United States.
