RESOLUTIONS.

May 16, 1840.

No. 2. Joint Resolution for the relief of Masterton and Smith, and for other purposes.

Preamble.

Whereas, the contractors for furnishing the marble, and building the same in the erection of the new building now erecting for the use of the General Post Office Department, are unable to complete the said work within the time specified in their contract, owing to causes not now within their control, and

Whereas the public interest will be promoted by an extension of the time for the fulfilment of the contract by the contractors; therefore,

Certain contracts extended,
&c.

Be it resolved, &c., That the contractors aforesaid have the time for completing their contracts extended until the first day of June, eighteen hundred and forty-one; and that all other contractors for material, or work for said Post Office building, have a proportional extension of time if the Postmaster-General shall deem it expedient or necessary: Provided, That all contractors be liable to all penalties, restrictions and reservations provided for, and covenanted to be made and kept in their present contracts, except as to time, anything in this resolution to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it further resolved, That all the duties imposed upon, or required to be performed by the President, in the act of Congress approved third March, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, entitled "An act providing for the erection of a fire-proof building for the use of the General Post Office Department," shall, hereafter, be performed by the Postmaster-General.

Duties imposed on the President by act of March 3, 1839, ch. 87, to be performed by P. M. Gen.

APPROVED, May 16, 1840.

No. 6. A Resolution authorizing an examination and payment of the claims of the stone-cutters and other workmen upon the public buildings.

July 20, 1840.

Be it resolved, &c., That the commissioners appointed by the President of the United States to superintend the prosecution of the work in the construction of the new Treasury building, and the Patent Office building, be, and they are hereby authorized to examine the claims of the stone-cutters and other workmen to indemnity for the loss of their time during the suspension of the work upon said buildings, by order of the superintendent of public buildings, in consequence of the want of the necessary means to carry on the said work; and that the said commissioners allow to such of said workmen, respectively, as were suspended from labor, under the assurance, that, upon an appropriation being made for the continuation of said work, their labor would again be required by the Government, and who, intermediately, had no opportunity of obtaining employment in the city of Washington, such reasonable indemnity for loss of wages for labor, during the suspension of the work, as, under the circumstances of their respective cases, justice and equity may require, not exceeding, however, in any case, the average rate of the earnings of said workmen in the employment of the Government for a like preceding period of time.

Examination of claims of certain workmen, &c.

APPROVED, July 20, 1840.
