[No. 14.] — Joint Resolution for the Relief of William B. Stokes, surviving Partner of John N. C. Stockton and Company.

Postmaster-General to pay Wm. B. Stokes such compensation as shall be an adequate remuneration for carrying the mail in Florida in the years 1835 and 1836.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Postmaster-General be, and he is hereby, directed to pay to William B. Stokes, surviving partner of John N. C. Stockton and Company, for carrying the mail in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-six, on the lower or Florida route, in consequence of the interruption of the mail by the Creek hostilities on the upper route, such compensation as shall be established to be an adequate remuneration for the same, taking into consideration the value of the services performed, and the loss to the said contractors by the exclusion of passengers, as directed by the then Postmaster-General; and it shall be the duty of the Postmaster-General to pay the amount so allowed out of the current appropriation for mail transportation.

APPROVED, March 3, 1847.
