CHAP. LXIII. - An Act for the Relief of Jones and Boker.

June 13, 1848.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary paid Jones and of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay Boker, in full for to Jones and Boker, of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, the their claim for sum of eleven hundred dollars, out of any moneys in the treasury not notes belowing otherwise appropriated, in full satisfaction of their claim for eight to them, which treasury notes, of which they were the lawful owners, and which were were stolen, &c. abstracted and stolen from the mail at the post-office at Fayetteville, in the State of Arkansas: one of five hundred dollars, five of one hundred dollars each, and two of fifty dollars each; and, for a more particular description of said notes, reference may be had to the report accompanying this bill; and which said notes, after being altered and forged, were by some person unknown presented to and redeemed by the Bank of America, as the fiscal agent of the United States.

APPROVED, June 13, 1848.

CHAP. LXIV. - An Act for the Relief of Richard Bloss and others.

June 13, 1848.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized, after ascertaining of the Treasury and deducting all the costs charges and expenses incurred by the to ascertain and and deducting all the costs, charges, and expenses incurred by the payRichard Bloss United States in and about the arrest, detention, and commitment of and others the Thaddeus P. Haskell, to the custody of the marshal of the United amount of their recog-States for the northern district of the State of New York, in October, nizances for the eighteen hundred and forty-five, on a charge for passing counterfeit appearance of money, to repay to the bail of said Thaddeus, Richard Bloss, and kell, after deductothers, the amount paid by them on the forfeited recognizance and ing all bond for the appearance of said Thaddeus; the said Thaddeus having charges, &c. since his default been retaken and convicted and imprisoned for said offence.

APPROVED, June 13, 1848.

CHAP. LXV. - An Act for the Relief of Joseph Wilson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the accounting officers of the Treasury Department be, and they are hereby, author- to be allowed, in ized to allow to Joseph Wilson, a purser in the United States navy, in the settlement or his accounts, for the settlement of his accounts, for such deficiency as he shall show to deficiencies causexist by reason of his making his deposits of the public money in the deposits in the Phænix Bank, at Charlestown, Massachusetts, subsequent to the twenty- Phænix Bank, of fifth of February, eighteen hundred and forty-two, after a final liquida- Charlestown tion and distribution of the effects of said bank shall have been made; and shall also allow to said Wilson such reasonable and proper expenses as he has actually incurred and paid, or may incur and pay, in penses to be allowed. a suit now pending in the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, and prosecuting the same to final judgment, brought to enforce the supposed priority of the claims of the United States over other creditors upon the assets of said bank in the hands of trustees; the proper evidence thereof being furnished by said Wilson to the accounting officers

APPROVED, June 13, 1848.

aforesaid.

June 13, 1848.

Joseph Wilson Massachusetts.

Certain