Description.

"Know all men by these presents that I, Andrew Seltice chief of the Cœur d'Alene Indians, did on the first day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-one, with the consent of my people, when the country on both sides of the Spokane River belonged to me and my people, for a valuable consideration sell to Frederick Post the place now known as Post Falls, in Kootenai County, Idaho, to improve and use the same (water-power); said sale included all three of the river channels and islands, with enough land on the north and south shores for water-power and improvements; and have always protected the said Frederick Post, for eighteen years, in the rights there and then conveyed, and he has always done right with me and my people. We, the chiefs of the Cœur d'Alenes, have signed articles of agreement with the Government to sell the portion of the reservation joining Post Falls, in which we have excepted the above-prescribed rights, before conveyed to Frederick Post, and no Indian and no white man except Frederick Post have any rights on the above-described lands and river channels; the said Frederick Post has fulfilled all of his agreements with me and my people by improving the water-power and building mills at great expense, and I hereby authorize him to build a house and take full possession of the above-described lands on the reservation side, so that when the treaty is confirmed he may have full possession and protection of the Government in the same.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent a claimant from making his final entry and receiving his patent at an earlier date than

SEC. 6. SEC. 8. That the provisions of the act to which this is an amendment, and the amendments thereto, shall apply to and be in force in the State of Colorado, as well as the States named in the original act; and no person shall be entitled to make entry of desert land except he be a resident citizen of the State or Territory in which the land sought to be entered is located."

SEC. 3. That section twenty-two hundred and eighty-eight of the Revised Statutes be amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 2288. Any bona fide settler under the pre-emption, homestead, or other settlement law shall have the right to transfer, by warranty against his own acts, any portion of his claim for church, cemetery, or school purposes, or for the right of way of railroads, canals, reservoirs, or ditches for irrigation or drainage across it; and the transfer for such public purposes shall in no way vitiate the right to complete and perfect the title to his claim."

Assent of Samoa.

Règlement d'Exécution de la Convention instituant un Bureau international pour la publication des Tarifs Douaniers.

Regulations for the execution of the Convention creating an International Bureau for the publication of Customs Tariffs.

Ante, p. 1521.

[Article 13 de la Convention.]

[Art. 13 of the Convention.]

Bulletin to be printed in German, English, Spanish, French and Italian.

ARTICLE 1^{er}. Le Bulletin international des douanes sera publié en cinq langues, savoir : en Allemand, en Anglais, en Espagnol, en Français et en Italien.

ARTICLE 1. The international Customs Bulletin shall be published in five languages, viz : German, English, Spanish, French and Italian.

Translations into other languages.

ART. 2. Chaque État faisant partie de l'Union a la faculté de faire traduire et de publier à ses frais tout ou partie du Bulletin dans telle langue qu'il trouve utile, pourvu que ce ne soit pas l'une des langues adoptées par le Bureau international.

ARTICLE 2. Each State belonging to the Union shall have the privilege of causing to be translated and publishing at its own expense, the whole or any part of the Bulletin in any language that it may see fit, provided that such language be not one of those adopted by the International Bureau.

Publication of extracts.

Chacun des États de l'Union aura de même le droit de faire reproduire de simples extraits de tarifs ou, exceptionnellement, des

Each of the States of the Union shall likewise have the right to reproduce mere extracts from tariffs, or, by way of exception, por-parties du Bulletin, soit dans un organe officiel local, soit dans ses documents parlementaires.

Il est entendu d'ailleurs que chaque État reste libre comme par le passé de publier dans la langue originale ou en traduction tous les tarifs douaniers, pourvu que le texte publié ne soit pas l'œuvre même du Bureau international.

ART. 3. Le Bureau international s'engage à apporter les plus grands soins dans la traduction des lois de douane et des publications officielles interprétatives de ces lois, mais il est entendu que les Gouvernements intéressés n'assument pas de responsabilité quant à l'exactitude de ces traductions et qu'en cas de contestation le texte original sera leur seul guide.

Un avertissement dans ce sens sera imprimé en note et en caractères gras au bas de la première page de chaque livraison.

ART. 4. Le format du Bulletin sera déterminé par le Bureau.

ART. 5. Chaque Gouvernement fera connaître en quelle langue, parmi celles adoptées par le Bureau international, il désire recevoir les exemplaires du Bulletin qui représenteront sa part d'intervention dans les frais de l'institution.

Un Gouvernement pourra prendre un certain nombre d'exemplaires en une langue et le restant en d'autres langues.

ART. 6. Le Bureau international ne peut fournir d'abonnements qu'aux Gouvernements des pays faisant partie de l'Union.

ART. 7. Le montant de la contribution proportionnelle de chaque État lui est rendu en abonnements au Bulletin de l'Union, calculés au pris de 15 francs chacun.

ART. 8. Les dépenses sont calculées approximativement comme suit:

	Francs.
(a) Traitement des fonctionnaires et employés du Bureau international, y compris un supplément de traitement de 15 %.....	75,000
(b) Frais d'impression et d'envoi du Bulletin de l'Union	30,000

tions of the Bulletin, either in a local official organ or in its parliamentary documents.

It is understood moreover, that each State is to be at liberty, as has hitherto been the case, to publish all the tariffs in the original language or in a translation, provided that the text published be not the work of the International Bureau.

ARTICLE 3. The International Bureau pledges itself to take the utmost care in the translation of the customs laws and of the official publications that serve to interpret said laws, but it is understood that the Governments interested assume no responsibility with regard to the accuracy of these translations, and that, in case of dispute, the original text shall be their sole guide.

A notice to this effect shall be printed in large type at the foot of the first page of each number.

ARTICLE 4. The size of the Bulletin shall be determined by the Bureau.

ARTICLE 5. Each Government shall make known in which of the languages adopted by the International Bureau it desires to receive the copies of the Bulletin which are to be furnished to it in return for the amount payable by it for the support of the institution.

Any government may take a certain number of copies in one language, and the remainder in other languages.

ARTICLE 6. The International Bureau can supply the Bulletin to no Governments save those belonging to the Union.

ARTICLE 7. The amount of the quota payable by each State shall be returned to it in subscriptions to the Bulletin of the Union, computed at the rate of 15 francs each.

ARTICLE 8. The expenditures are computed approximately as follows:

	Francs.
(a) Salaries of the officers and employés of the International Bureau, including an addition thereto of 15 per cent.....	75,000
(b) Cost of printing and sending the Bulletin of the Union	30,000

Organization.

ART. 9. Le Ministre des Affaires Étrangères de Belgique est chargé de prendre les mesures nécessaires pour l'organisation et le fonctionnement du Bureau international, en restant dans les limites tracées par la Convention et par le présent Règlement.

ARTICLE 9. It shall be the duty of the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Belgium to take such measures as may be necessary for the organization of the International Bureau, and for putting it in working order, keeping within the limits fixed by the Convention and by these regulations.

Use of balance authorized.

ART. 10. Le chef du Bureau international est autorisé, sous l'approbation du Ministre des Affaires Étrangères de Belgique, à reporter sur l'exercice en cours les sommes non employées de l'exercice écoulé. Ces sommes serviront, le cas échéant, à constituer un fonds de réserve destiné à parer aux dépenses imprévues. Ladite réserve ne pourra, en aucun cas, dépasser 25,000 francs. Le surplus permettra éventuellement d'abaisser le prix de l'abonnement au Bulletin, sans accroissement du nombre d'exemplaires garanti par les États contractants; cet excédent pourra servir aussi à couvrir les frais qu'occasionnerait l'adjonction d'une nouvelle langue de traduction à celles énumérées à l'article 1^{er}.

ARTICLE 10. The Superintendent of the International Bureau is hereby authorized, subject to the approval of the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Belgium, to use, during the current fiscal year, such sums, appropriated for the past year, as may not have been then used. These sums shall, the case arising, go to form a reserve fund for the payment of contingent expenses. The said reserve shall in no case exceed 25,000 francs. The surplus will, perhaps, render it possible to reduce the price of subscription to the Bulletin, without increasing the number of copies guaranteed by the contracting States; this surplus may also serve to meet the expense that would be occasioned by the addition of a new language to those enumerated in article 1.

Cette dernière mesure ne pourra se réaliser qu'avec l'assentiment unanime des États et Colonies faisant partie de l'Union.

This last measure shall not be carried out without the unanimous consent of the States and Colonies belonging to the Union.

Cuando se solicite la extradición de un individuo acusado de cualquiera de los crímenes ó delitos ya expresados, la petición deberá estar apoyada en la órden legalizada del arresto, extendida conforme á las leyes del país que la hace y en las disposiciones en que se basa. Si el individuo, cuya extradición se exige, hubiere sido ya convicto, la solicitud habrá de estar acompañada de la respectiva copia auténtica de la sentencia del Tribunal por la cual se le declaró convicto, y con la atestación del correspondiente empleado ejecutivo, documento que estará revestido de la legalización del Ministro ó Cónsul del Gobierno ante el cual se hace la petición.

ARTÍCULO IV.

ARTICLE VII.

On being informed by telegraph, or other written communication, through the diplomatic channel, that a lawful warrant has been issued, by a competent authority, upon probable cause, for the arrest of a fugitive criminal, charged with any of the crimes enumerated in Article II of this Convention, and on being assured, through the same source, that a request for the surrender of such criminal is about to be made, in accordance with the provisions of this Convention, each government will endeavor to procure, so far as it lawfully may, the personal arrest of such criminal, and may keep him in safe custody, for a reasonable time, not exceeding three months, to await the production of the documents, upon which the claim for extradition is founded.

ARTICLE VIII.

La solicitud de extradición se hará por medio de los Agentes diplomáticos de las partes contratantes, y en el caso de hallarse éstos ausentes del país ó de la Capital, por los empleados consulares superiores. El prófugo no podrá ser entregado sino en tanto que las pruebas de su culpabilidad sean tales que justificarian el arresto y el seguimiento de causa conforme á las leyes del país en que se le halle, si en ese país hubiera cometido el delito.

ARTÍCULO VII.

Al recibirse informe por parte telegráfico ó por otra comunicación escrita por el conducto diplomático, de que se ha dictado alguna providencia legal por autoridades competentes, sustentada en causa probable, para el arresto de un reo prófugo, complicado en alguno ó algunos de los delitos enumerados en el Artículo II de esta Convención, y al tener seguridad por el mismo órgano de que se solicitará el arresto del mismo reo, de acuerdo con los términos de esta Convención, cada Gobierno procurará, en cuanto legalmente le sea posible, el arresto personal de dicho reo, y lo podrá tener custodiado por un tiempo razonable, que no ha de exceder de tres meses, hasta la presentación de los documentos en que se funde la reclamación de extradición.

podrán ser entregados al Gobierno reclamante, así como también todo el dinero y efectos que tuviere en su poder ó se hallaren bajo su dependencia, efectos cuya posesión ilegal constituya el delito, en todo ó en parte, por el cual se solicita la extradición.

ARTICLE IX.

ARTÍCULO IX.

Information to Government of foreigner of either country.

In case a person, who is equally a foreigner in the United States of America and in the Republic of Colombia, takes refuge in either country, after having committed any of the foregoing crimes, within one or the other jurisdiction, extradition can be accorded only after the Government, or its Representative, of which the criminal is a citizen or subject, has been duly informed, and afforded an opportunity to file objections to the extradition.

En caso que se solicite la extradición de una persona que sea igualmente extranjera en la República de Colombia y en los Estados Unidos de América, aquella no se concederá mientras el Gobierno ó el Representante del país del cual es dicho criminal ciudadano ó súbdito, haya tenido oportunidad de hacer objeciones á la extradición.

ARTÍCULO X.

Neither country bound to deliver its citizens.

Neither of the high contracting parties shall be bound to deliver up its own citizens, under the stipulations of this Convention.

Ninguna de las altas partes contratantes será obligada á entregar sus propios ciudadanos segun las estipulaciones de esta Convención.

ARTICLE XI.

ARTÍCULO XI.

Indebtedness not to prevent extradition.

The fact that the person whose extradition is demanded, has contracted obligations of which extradition would hinder the performance, shall be no bar to his extradition.

El hecho de que la persona cuya extradición se demanda tenga contraídas obligaciones cuyo cumplimiento hubiera de ser impedido por la extradición, no será obstáculo para efectuar esta.

ARTICLE XII.

ARTÍCULO XII.

The expenses of the arrest, detention, examination and transportation of the accused shall be paid by the Government requesting the extradition.

Los gastos de captura, detención, exámen y conducción del individuo acusado, seran pagados por el Gobierno que pida la extradición.

A PROCLAMATION.

A hundred years have passed since the Government which our forefathers founded was formally organized. At noon on the thirtieth day of April, seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, in the city of New York, and in the presence of an assemblage of the heroic men whose patriotic devotion had led the Colonies to victory and independence, George Washington took the oath of office as Chief Magistrate of the new-born Republic. This impressive act was preceded, at nine o'clock in the morning, in all the churches of the city, by prayer for God's blessing on the Government and its first President.

The centennial of this illustrious event in our history has been declared a general holiday by act of Congress, to the end that the people of the whole country may join in commemorative exercises appropriate to the day.

In order that the joy of the occasion may be associated with a deep thankfulness in the minds of the people for all our blessings in the past, and a devout supplication to God for their gracious continuance in the future, the representatives of the religious creeds, both Christian and Hebrew, have memorialized the Government to designate an hour for prayer and thanksgiving on that day.

Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, in response to this pious and reasonable request, do recommend that on Tuesday, April 30th, at the hour of nine o'clock in the morning, the people of the entire country repair to their respective places of Divine worship, to implore the favor of God that the blessings of liberty, prosperity and peace may abide with us as a people, and that His hand may lead us in the paths of righteousness and good deeds.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done in the City of Washington this 4th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and eighty-[SEAL.] nine, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirteenth.

Whereas the Congress of the United States did by an act approved on the twenty-second day of February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine provide that the inhabitants of the Territory of Dakota might, upon the conditions prescribed in said act become the States of North Dakota and South Dakota;

And whereas it was provided by said act that the area comprising the Territory of Dakota should, for the purposes of the act, be divided on the line of the seventh standard parallel produced due west to the western boundary of said Territory and that the delegates elected as therein provided to the Constitutional convention in districts north of said parallel should assemble in convention, at the time prescribed in the act, at the city of Bismarck;

And whereas it was provided by the said act that the delegates elected as aforesaid should, after they had met and organized, declare on behalf of the people of North Dakota, that they adopt the Constitution of the United States; whereupon the said convention should be authorized to form a constitution and State Government for the proposed State of North Dakota;

And whereas it was provided by said act that the Constitution so adopted should be republican in form and make no distinction in civil or political rights on account of race or color, except as to Indians not taxed, and not be repugnant to the Constitution of the United States and the principles of the Declaration of Independence; and that the Convention should, by an ordinance irrevocable without the consent of the United States and the people of said States, make certain provisions prescribed in said act;

And whereas it was provided by said act that the Constitutions of North Dakota and South Dakota should, respectively, incorporate an agreement to be reached in accordance with the provision of the act, for an equitable division of all property belonging to the Territory of Dakota, the disposition of all public records, and also for the apportionment of the debts and liabilities of said Territory, and that each of said States should obligate itself to pay its proportion of such debts and liabilities the same as if they had been created by such States respectively;

And whereas it was provided by said act that the Constitution thus formed for the people of North Dakota should, by an ordinance of the Convention forming the same, be submitted to the people of North Dakota at an election to be held therein on the first Tuesday in October, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, for ratification or rejection by the qualified voters of said proposed State and that the returns of said election should be made to the Secretary of the Territory of Dakota, who, with the Governor, and Chief Justice thereof, or any two of them, should canvass the same; and if a majority of the legal votes cast should be for the Constitution, the Governor should certify the result to the President of the United States, together with a statement of the votes cast thereon, and upon separate articles or propositions and a copy of said Constitution, articles, propositions and ordinances;

And whereas it has been certified to me by the Governor of the Territory of Dakota that within the time prescribed by said act of Congress a Constitution for the proposed State of North Dakota has been adopted and the same ratified by a majority of the qualified voters of said proposed State in accordance with the conditions prescribed in said act;

And whereas it is also certified to me by the said Governor that at the same time that the body of said Constitution was submitted to a vote of the people, a separate article, numbered twenty and entitled "Prohibition," was also submitted and received a majority of all the votes cast for and against said article as well as a majority of all the votes cast for and against the Constitution, and was adopted.

And whereas a duly authenticated copy of said Constitution, article, ordinances and propositions, as required by said act has been received by me:

Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, do, in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress aforesaid, declare and proclaim the fact that the conditions imposed by Congress on the State of North Dakota to entitle that State to admission to the Union have been ratified and accepted and that the admission of the said State into the Union is now complete.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, that portion of the Indian Territory, commonly known as the Cherokee Strip or Outlet, has been for some years in the occupancy of an association or associations of white persons under certain contracts, said to have been made with the Cherokee Nation in the nature of a lease or leases for grazing purposes; and

Whereas, an opinion has been given to me by the Attorney General, concurring with the opinion given to my predecessor by the late Attorney General, that whatever the right or title of said Cherokee Nation or of the United States to or in said lands may be, no right exists in said Cherokee Nation under the Statutes of the United States to make such leases or grazing contracts, and that such contracts are wholly illegal and void; and

Whereas, the continued use of said lands thereunder for grazing purposes is prejudicial to the public interests;

Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and give notice:

First. That no cattle or live stock shall hereafter be brought upon said lands for herding or grazing thereon;

Second. That all cattle and other live stock now on said Outlet must be removed therefrom not later than October 1, 1890, and so much sooner as said lands or any of them may be or become lawfully open to settlement by citizens of the United States; and that all persons connected with said cattle companies or associations must, not later than the time above indicated, depart from said lands.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this seventeenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and [SEAL.] ninety, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and fourteenth.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, pursuant to Section three of the Act of Congress approved October 1, 1890, entitled "An Act to reduce the revenue and equalize duties on imports, and for other purposes," the Secretary of State of the United States of America communicated to the Government of the United States of Brazil the action of the Congress of the United States of America, with a view to secure reciprocal trade, in declaring the articles enumerated in said Section three, to wit, sugars, molasses, coffee and hides, to be exempt from duty upon their importation into the United States of America;

And whereas the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Brazil at Washington has communicated to the Secretary of State the fact that, in due reciprocity for and consideration of the admission into the United States of America free of all duty of the articles enumerated in Section three of said Act, the Government of Brazil has, by legal enactment, authorized the admission, from and after April 1, 1891, into all the established ports of entry of Brazil, free of all duty, whether national, state, or municipal, of the articles or merchandise named in the following schedule, provided that the same be the product and manufacture of the United States of America:

And that the Government of Brazil has, by legal enactment, further authorized the admission into all the established ports of entry of Brazil, with a reduction of twenty-five per centum of the duty designated on the respective article in the tariff now in force or which may hereafter be adopted in the United States of Brazil, whether national, state, or municipal, of the articles or merchandise named in the following schedule, provided that the same be the product or manufacture of the United States of America:

And whereas the Secretary of State has, by my direction, given assurance to the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Brazil at Washington that this action of the Government of Brazil in granting exemption of duties to the products and manufactures of the United States of America, is accepted as a due reciprocity for the action of Congress, as set forth in Section three of said Act:
