CHAP. 185.—An Act For the relief of Benjamin F. Jones.

Benjamin F. Jones.
Preamble.

Whereas, to wit, on the twenty-second day of April, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, when Benjamin F. Jones was postmaster at the town of Beauregard, Mississippi, the said town was destroyed by a cyclone and every building in the town was swept away, including post-office building. In consequence of this disaster there was a loss of money belonging to the Government deposited in said post-office building, which said Jones was compelled to make good to the Government. The Illinois Central Railway, carrying mails to said town of Beauregard, ceased to deposit them at Beauregard depot and carried them to the town of Wesson, one mile from Beauregard, compelling said B. F. Jones, at his own expense, to transport the mails from Wesson to Beauregard, the cost being ninety-seven dollars, which the Post-Office Department refused to allow because of want of lawful authority. The Government sued said Jones on his official bond as postmaster, in the circuit court of the United States for southern district of Mississippi, and said court refused to allow the said item of ninety-seven dollars as an offset; but both the presiding judge, Honorable R. A. Hill, and the attorney for the Government fully recognized the equity of the claim in open court and signed a recommendation to allow said item of set-off: Therefore,

Convention for the exchange of money orders between the United States of America and the Republic of Honduras.

June 25, 1896.
July 16, 1896.

ARTICLE I. There shall be a regular exchange of money orders between the United States of America and the Republic of Honduras.

Exchange of money orders.

ART. II. The amounts of orders in both directions shall be expressed in United States money, and, on account of the frequent fluctuations of the rate of exchange between the two countries, it is agreed that all amounts shall be converted into their proper equivalents, by the post-office department of Honduras; that is to say, the sums received by the post-office department of Honduras for orders drawn on the United States shall be converted, at the time of issue, into United States money, at the current rate of exchange, and the amounts of orders drawn in the United States on Honduras, shall, in like manner, be rendered by the post-office department of Honduras into the currency of Honduras, at the current rate of exchange on the day of the arrival on the exchange list.

To be expressed in U. S. money, etc.

ART. III. The maximum amount for which a money order may be drawn in either country upon the other shall be $100.

Maximum amount.

ART. IV. No money order shall contain a fractional part of a cent.

Fractions.

ART. V. The amounts of money orders shall be deposited by the remitters and paid to the payee in gold coin, or in any other legal money of the same current value. However, in case there should be in circulation in either country a paper money of legal tender, but of less value than gold, the administration of that country shall have the right to receive and employ the same in its relations with the public, taking into account the difference in value.

Payment in legal money, etc.

ART. VI. The Post-Office Department of Honduras and the Post-Office Department of the United States shall each have the power to fix, from time to time, the rates of commission to be charged on all money orders they may respectively issue. This commission shall belong to the issuing postal administration, but the post-office department of Honduras shall pay to the Post-Office Department of the United States one-half of 1 per cent on the amount of money orders issued in Honduras and payable in the United States, and the Post-Office Department of the United States shall make a like payment to the post-office department of Honduras for money orders issued in the United States and payable in Honduras.

Rates of commission.

ART. VII. No money order shall be issued unless the applicant furnish, in full, the surname, and at least the initial of one given name, both of the remitter and the payee, or the name of the firm or company who are the remitters or payees, together with the address of the remitter and that of payee.

Names.

If, however, any applicant for a money order shall tender the name of either the remitter or payee at greater length, such particulars shall be received and entered in the list.

ART. VIII. The service of the postal money-order system between the two countries shall be performed exclusively by the agency of the offices of exchange. On the part of Honduras, the office of exchange shall be Tegucigalpa, and on the part of the United States, New York, N. Y.

Offices of exchange.

ART. IX. The particulars of all money orders drawn in the United States upon Honduras shall be entered at the exchange office, New York, in a list similar to the form marked A (in the Appendix) in which shall be shown the amount of each order in United States money, which list, after having received the impression of the New York date stamp, shall be forwarded to the exchange post-office of Honduras, where it shall be impressed with the date stamp of that office, and where the requisite arrangements for effecting payment of the order shall be carried out.

Post p. 1611.

In like manner, the particulars of money orders drawn in Honduras upon the United States shall be entered at the exchange office at Tegucigalpa in a list similar to the form marked B in which shall be shown the amount of each order in the money of both countries, which list, after having received the impression of the date stamp of that office, shall be forwarded to the exchange office of New York, where it shall receive the impression of the date stamp in use at that office and where the necessary arrangements for effecting payments of the orders shall be carried out.

Lists to be numbered.

Each list, as well as the entries in the list dispatched, shall be numbered consecutively 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, etc., in the order of dispatch, commencing on July 1 of each calendar year, and the receipt of each list shall be acknowledged, on either side, by means of the first subsequent list forwarded in the opposite direction.

Duplicate lists.

Such a list shall be transmitted by each mail dispatched from Honduras to the port of New York, and vice versa, and in order to prevent inconvenience, in case the original lists shall be lost, each officer shall forward by the following mail a duplicate of the list sent by the preceding mail.

Should it happen that on the day when the list is to be dispatched there are no orders to be communicated for payment, the list must nevertheless be sent. But in that event the exchange office will write across the list the words "No money orders."

The orders issued in the United States during the second quarter, or the quarter ending June 30 of each year, which may arrive at the office of exchange at New York in the following quarter shall be entered on lists supplementary to the last list of the month of June and, in like manner, the orders issued in Honduras during the second quarter, or quarter ending June 30 of each year, which may arrive at the exchange office at Tegucigalpa in the following quarter, shall be entered on lists supplementary to the last list of the month of June.

Receipt of list from dispatching office, etc.

ART. 10. As soon as the list of the dispatching office shall have reached the receiving office of exchange, the latter shall make out internal money orders in favor of the payees for the amounts specified in the list, and shall forward them, free of postage, to the addresses, or to the offices of destination, in conformity with the regulations in each country for the payment of money orders. When the lists shall show irregularities which the receiving office shall not be able to rectify, that office shall demand an explanation with as little delay as possible. Pending the receipt of the explanation, the issue of internal money orders of payment relating to the entries found to be erroneous in the list should be suspended.

One copy of each exchange list shall be returned by the receiving exchange office to the dispatching office, but, before returning such copy, the receiving exchange office shall enter therein the names of the respective offices of payment of the orders enumerated in the list, and, in the lists from the United States returned by the exchange office of Tegucigalpa, the latter office shall also enter the amount of each order, in the money of Honduras, according to the conversion made by it.

Orders subject to regulations governing domestic orders.

ART. XI. The orders issued by each country on the other shall be subject, as regards payment, to the regulations which govern the payment of domestic orders in the country of destination. It is agreed that all money orders paid in either country shall be retained in the country in which they are paid.

Errors, etc.

ART. XII. When it is desired that any error in the name of the payee or remitter shall be corrected, or that the amount of a money order shall be repaid to the remitter, application must be made by the remitter to the postal administration of the country in which the order was issued.

Duplicate orders shall only be issued by the postal administration of the country on which the original orders were drawn, and in conformity with the regulations established in that country.

Duplicates.

ART. XIII. Repayment, whether of an original or by means of a duplicate order, shall not be made to the remitter until it has been ascertained through the postal administration of the country on which the original order was drawn that the order has not been paid, and will not be paid in the country of payment.

Repayment.

ART. XIV. Orders which shall not have been paid within twelve calendar months from the month of issue shall become void and the sums received shall accrue to, and be at the disposal of, the country of origin.

Not paid within twelve months, void, etc.

The Post-Office Department of Honduras shall therefore enter to the credit of the United States, in the quarterly account, all money orders entered in the lists received from the United States, and which remain unpaid at the end of the period specified.

On the other hand, the Post-Office Department of the United States shall, at the close of each month, transmit to the Post-Office Department of Honduras, for entry in the quarterly account, a detailed statement of all orders included in the lists dispatched from the latter office, which under this article become void.

ART. XV. At the close of each quarter an account shall be prepared by the Post-Office Department of Honduras, showing in detail the totals of the lists containing the particulars of orders issued in either country during the quarter and the balance resulting from such transactions.

Preparation, etc., of an account at close of quarter, etc.

Two copies of the account shall be transmitted to the Post-Office Department of the United States, at Washington, and the balance, which must always be stated in United States money, shall, after proper verification, if due by the post-office department of Honduras, be paid at New York, in the money of the United States, by a sight bill of exchange sent by the post-office department of Honduras at the same time that it transmits the account, and if due by the Post-Office Department of the United States it shall be paid at Tegucigalpa, at the same time that the Post-Office Department of the United States returns the accepted copy of the account, by means of a sight bill of exchange on Tegucigalpa, drawn in United States money. But it is hereby agreed that either of the two post-office departments shall be empowered to pay such balances due to the other by means of sight bills of exchange drawn on London, in sterling money, on the basis that $4.78 of the money of the United States shall be equivalent to £1 sterling. For this quarterly account forms shall be used in exact conformity with the patterns C, D, and E in the appendix.

Post, p. 1612.

If, pending the settlement of an account, one of the two postal administrations shall ascertain that it owes the other a balance exceeding $5,000, the indebted administration shall promptly remit the approximate amount of such balance to the credit of the other.

ART. XVI. The Postmaster-General, in either country, shall be authorized to adopt any additional rules, if not repugnant to the foregoing, for the greater security against fraud, or for the better working of the system generally. All such additional rules, however, must be communicated to the Postmaster General of the other country.

CONVENTIONS.

Convention for the exchange of money orders between the United States of America and Egypt.

ARTICLE I. There shall be a regular exchange of money orders between the United States of America and Egypt.

Exchange of money orders between the United States and Egypt.

To be expressed in United States money.

ARTICLE II. The amounts of orders in both directions shall be expressed in United States money, and shall be converted into their proper equivalents by the Post-Office Department of Egypt; that is to say, the sums received by the Post-Office Department of Egypt for orders drawn on the United States shall be converted, at the time of issue, into United States money, at the current rate of exchange, and the amounts of orders drawn in the United States on Egypt shall in like manner be rendered by the Post-Office Department of Egypt into the currency of Egypt, at the current rate of exchange on the day of the arrival of the exchange list at Alexandria.

ARTICLE III. The maximum amount for which a money order may be drawn in either country upon the other shall be $100.

Maximum amount.

No money order shall contain the fractional part of a cent.

ARTICLE IV. The amounts of money orders shall be deposited by the remitters and paid to the payees in gold coin or in any other legal money of the same current value. However, in case there should be in circulation in either country a paper currency of legal tender, but of less value than gold, the Administration of that country shall have the right to receive and employ the same in its relations with the public, taking into account the difference in value.

Payment in legal money, etc.

ARTICLE V. The Post-Office Department of Egypt and the Post-Office Department of the United States shall each have the power to fix, from time to time, the rates of commission to be charged on all money orders they may respectively issue. This commission shall belong to the issuing postal administration, but the Post-Office Department of Egypt shall pay to the Post-Office Department of the United States one-half of one per cent on the amount of money orders issued in Egypt and payable in the United States, and the Post-Office Department of the United States shall make a like payment to the Post-Office Department of Egypt for money orders issued in the United States and payable in Egypt.

Rates of commission.

ARTICLE VI. No money order shall be issued unless the applicant furnish in full the surname and at least the initial of one given name, both of the remitter and payee, or of the name of the firm or company who are the remitters or payees, together with the address of the remitter and that of the payee.

Names.

If, however, any applicant for a money order shall tender the name of either the remitter or payee at greater length, such particulars shall be received and entered in the list.

ARTICLE VII. The service of the postal money-order system between the two countries shall be performed exclusively by the agency of the offices of exchange. On the part of Egypt the office of exchange shall be the general post-office at Alexandria and on the part of the United States, New York, N. Y.

Offices of exchange.

Lists.

ARTICLE VIII. The particulars of all money orders drawn in the United States upon Egypt shall be entered at the exchange office, New York, in a list similar to the form marked A (in the Appendix), in which shall be shown the amount of each order in United States money, which list, after having received the impression of the New York date stamp, shall be forwarded to the exchange office of Egypt, where it shall be impressed with the date stamp of that office, and where the requisite arrangements for effecting payment of the order shall be carried out.

In like manner the particulars of money orders drawn in Egypt on the United States shall be entered at the exchange office at Alexandria in a list similar to the form marked B, in which shall be shown the amount of each order in the money of both countries, which list, after having received the impression of the date stamp of that office, shall be forwarded to the exchange office of New York, where it shall receive the impression of the date stamp in use at that office, and where the necessary arrangements for effecting payment of the orders shall be carried out.

To be numbered.

Each list, as well as the entries in the list dispatched, shall be numbered consecutively, 1, 2, 3, etc., in the order of dispatch, commencing on July 1st of each calendar year, and the receipt of each list shall be acknowledged on each side by means of the first subsequent list forwarded in the opposite direction.

Duplicates, etc.

Such a list shall be transmitted by each mail dispatched from Egypt to the port of New York, and vice versa, and in order to prevent inconvenience in case the original lists shall be lost each office shall forward by the following mail a duplicate of the list sent by the preceding mail.

Should it happen that on the day when the list is to be dispatched there are no orders to be communicated for payment, the list must nevertheless be sent. But in that event the exchange office will write across the list the words "No money orders."

Receipt of list from dispatching office, etc.

ARTICLE IX. As soon as the list of the dispatching office shall have reached the receiving office of exchange, the latter shall make out internal money orders in favor of the payees for the amounts specified in the list, and shall forward them, free of postage, to the addressees or to the offices of destination, in conformity with the regulations in each country for the payment of money orders. When the list shall show irregularities which the receiving office shall not be able to rectify, that office shall demand an explanation with as little delay as possible. Pending the receipt of the explanation the issue of internal money orders of payment relating to the entries found to be erroneous in the list should be suspended.

One copy of each exchange list shall be returned by the receiving exchange office to the dispatching office, but, before returning such copy the receiving exchange office shall enter therein the names of the respective offices of payment of the orders enumerated in the list, and, in the lists from the United States returned by the exchange office of Alexandria, the latter office shall also enter the amount of each order in the money of Egypt, according to the conversion made by it.

Orders subject to regulations governing domestic orders.

ARTICLE X. The orders issued by each country on the other shall be subject, as regards payment, to the regulations which govern the payment of domestic orders in the country of destination. It is agreed that all money orders paid in either country shall be retained in the country in which they are paid.

Correction of errors.

ARTICLE XI. When it is desired that any error in the name of the payee or remitter shall be corrected, or that the amount of a money order shall be repaid to the remitter, application must be made by the remitter to the postal administration of the country in which the order was issued.

Duplicate orders shall be issued only by the postal administration of the country on which the original orders were drawn, and in conformity with the regulations established in that country.

Duplicates.

ARTICLE XII. Repayment, whether of an original or by means of a duplicate order, shall not be made to the remitter until it has been ascertained through the postal administration of the country on which the original order was drawn that the order has not been paid, and will not be paid in the country of payment.

Repayment.

ARTICLE XIII. Orders which shall not have been paid within twelve calendar months from the month of issue shall become void and the sums received shall accrue to and be at the disposal of the country of origin.

Not paid within twelve months, void, etc.

The Post-Office Department of Egypt shall therefore enter to the credit of the United States, in the quarterly account, all money orders entered in the lists received from the United States, and which remain unpaid at the end of the period specified. On the other hand, the Post-Office Department of the United States shall, at the close of each month, transmit to the Post-Office Department of Egypt, for entry in the quarterly account, a detailed statement of all orders included in the lists despatched from the latter office, which under the article become void.

Void orders, credit in quarterly account, etc.

ARTICLE XIV. At the close of each quarter an account shall be prepared by the Post-Office Department of Egypt, showing in detail the totals of the lists containing the particulars of orders issued in each country during the quarter, and the balance resulting from such transactions. Two copies of the account shall be transmitted to the Post-Office Department of the United States at Washington, and the balance, which must always be stated in United States money, shall, after proper verification, if due by the Post-Office Department of Egypt, be paid at New York in the money of the United States, by a bill of exchange sent by the Post-Office Department of Egypt at the same time that it transmits the accounts, and if due by the Post-Office Department of the United States, the balance shall be paid by means of a bill of exchange on London, England, drawn in sterling money and payable at sight. It is further hereby agreed that the postal administration of Egypt may pay balances due the United States in like manner by means of sight drafts on London, England, drawn in sterling money, and that, whenever balances are paid by either country by means of sterling bills of exchange, the value of the pound sterling shall be reckoned at $4.87 of the money of the United States.

Accounts.

ARTICLE XV. The Postmaster-General, in either country, shall be authorized to adopt any additional rules, if not repugnant to the foregoing, for the greater security against fraud, or for the better working of the system generally. All such additional rules, however, must be communicated to the Postmaster-General of the other country.

Additional rules.

ARTICLE XVI. Each administration is authorized, in extraordinary circumstances that would justify the measure, to suspend temporarily the money-order service, in whole or in part, upon condition of giving notice of such suspension immediately to the other country, and, if deemed necessary, by means of the telegraph.

Temporary suspension of service.

ARTICLE XVII. This convention shall come into operation on the first day of October, 1897, and shall continue in force until twelve months after each of the contracting parties shall have notified to the other its intention to terminate it.

Duration of convention.

Elles s'appliquent également à l'échange postal des objets ci-dessus entre les pays de l'Union et les pays étrangers à l'Union, toutes les fois que cet échange emprunte les services de deux des parties contractantes, au moins.

ARTICLE 2.

The stipulations of this Convention extend to letters, to single post cards and post-cards with paid reply, prints of every kind, commercial papers and samples of merchandise originating in one of the countries of the Union, and intended for another of those countries. They also apply to the exchange by mail of the articles above mentioned between the countries of the Union and the countries foreign to the Union, whenever the services of two of the contracting parties at least are used for that exchange.

Art. 3.

ARTICLE 3.

Special agreements by contiguous countries.

1.—Les Administrations des postes des pays limitrophes ou aptes à correspondre directement entre eux sans emprunter l'intermédiaire des services d'une tierce Administration, déterminent, d'un commun accord, les conditions du transport de leurs dépêches réciproques à travers la frontière ou d'une frontière à l'autre.

ARTICLE 3.

1.—The Postal Administrations of neighboring countries, or countries able to correspond directly with each other without using the intermediary of the services of a third Administration, determine, by mutual agreement, the conditions of the conveyance of mails which they exchange across the frontier, or from one frontier to the other.

Maritime conveyance.

2.—A moins d'arrangement contraire, on considère comme services tiers les transports maritimes effectués directement entre deux pays, au moyen de paquebots ou bâtiments dépendant de l'un d'eux, et ces transports, de même que ceux effectués entre deux bureaux d'un même pays, par l'intermédiaire de services maritimes ou territoriaux dépendant d'un autre pays, sont régis par les dispositions de l'article suivant.

2.—Unless there be a contrary arrangement, the direct maritime conveyance performed between two countries by means of packets or vessels depending upon one of them, shall be considered as a third service, and this conveyance, as well as that performed between two offices of the same country by the intermediary of maritime or territorial services depending upon another country, is regulated by the stipulations of the following Article.

ARTICLE 4.

1.—La liberté du transit est garantie dans le territoire entier de l'Union.

2.—En conséquence, les diverses Administrations postales de l'Union peuvent s'expédier réciproquement, par l'intermédiaire d'une ou de plusieurs d'entre elles, tant des dépêches closes que des correspondances à découvert, suivant les besoins du trafic et les convenances du service postal.

3.—Les correspondances échangées, soit à découvert, soit en dépêches closes, entre deux Administrations de l'Union au moyen des services d'une ou de plusieurs autres Administrations de l'Union, sont soumises, au profit de chacun des pays traversés ou dont les services participent au transport, aux frais de transit suivants, savoir :

1° pour les parcours territoriaux, à 2 francs par kilogramme de lettres et cartes postales, et à 25 centimes par kilogramme d'autres objets;

2° pour les parcours maritimes:
a. aux prix du transit territorial, si le trajet n'excède pas 300 milles marins. Toutefois, le transport maritime sur un trajet n'excédant pas 300 milles marins est gratuit si l'Administration intéressée reçoit déjà, du chef des dépêches ou correspondances transportées, la rémunération afférente au transit territorial;

b. à 5 francs par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes postales et à 50 centimes par kilogramme d'autres objets, pour les échanges effectués sur un parcours excédant 300 milles marins, entre pays d'Europe, entre l'Europe et les ports d'Afrique et d'Asie sur la Méditerranée et la mer Noire ou de l'un à l'autre de ces ports, et entre l'Europe et l'Amérique du Nord. Les mêmes prix sont applicables aux transports assurés dans tout le ressort de l'Union entre deux ports d'un même État ainsi qu'entre les ports de deux États desservis par la même ligne de paquebots lorsque le trajet maritime n'excède pas 1500 milles marins;

c. à 15 francs par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes postales et à

ARTICLE 4.

1.—The right of transit is guaranteed throughout the entire territory of the Union.

2.—Consequently, the several Postal Administrations of the Union may send reciprocally, through the intermediary of one or of several of them, as well closed mails as correspondence in open-mail according to the needs of the traffic, and the convenience of the postal service.

3.—The correspondence exchanged, whether in open-mail or in closed mails between two Administrations of the Union, by means of the services of one or several other Administrations of the Union, is subject to the following transit charges, to be paid to each of the countries traversed, or whose services participate in the conveyance, viz:

1st. For territorial conveyance, 2 francs per kilogram of letters and post cards, and 25 centimes per kilogram of other articles;

2nd. For maritime conveyance:
a. the territorial transit rates, if the distance traversed does not exceed 300 nautical miles. Nevertheless, the maritime conveyance on a route not exceeding 300 nautical miles is gratuitous if the Administration interested receives already, on account of mails or correspondence conveyed, the remuneration applicable to territorial transit;

b. 5 francs per kilogram of letters and post cards and 50 centimes per kilogram of other articles, for exchanges effected on a route exceeding 300 nautical miles, between countries of Europe, between Europe and the ports of Africa and Asia on the Mediterranean and the Black Sea or between any of these ports, and between Europe and North America. The same rates are applicable to conveyances secured within the entire jurisdiction of the Union between two ports of one and the same State, as well as between the ports of two States served by the same line of steamers when the maritime conveyance does not exceed 1500 nautical miles;

c. 15 francs per kilogram of letters and post cards and 1 franc

En cas de transport maritime effectué par deux ou plusieurs Administrations, les frais du parcours total ne peuvent pas dépasser 15 francs par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes postales et 1 franc par kilogramme d'autres objets; ces frais sont, le cas échéant, répartis entre les Administrations participant au transport, au prorata des distances parcourues, sans préjudice des arrangements différents qui peuvent intervenir entre les parties intéressées.

Rates not applicable to conveyance by extraordinary services.

4.—Les prix de transit spécifiés au présent article ne s'appliquent, ni aux transports au moyen de services dépendant d'Administrations étrangères à l'Union, ni aux transports dans l'Union au moyen de services extraordinaires spécialement créés ou entretenus par une Administration, soit dans l'intérêt, soit sur la demande d'une ou de plusieurs autres Administrations. Les conditions de cette dernière catégorie de transports sont réglées de gré à gré entre les Administrations intéressées.

Free, etc., conveyance.

En outre, partout où le transit, tant territorial que maritime, est actuellement gratuit ou soumis à des conditions plus avantageuses, ce régime est maintenu.

5.—Il est toutefois entendu :

1^o que les frais de transit territorial seront réduits, savoir :

de 5%, pendant les deux premières années d'application de la présente Convention;

de 10%, pendant les deux années suivantes;

de 15%, au delà de quatre ans;

2^o que les pays dont les recettes et les dépenses en matière de transit territorial ne dépassent pas ensemble la somme de 5000 francs par an et dont les dépenses excèdent les recettes pour ce transit, sont exonérés de tout payement de ce chef;

3^o que le prix de transit maritime de 15 francs par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes postales prévu à la lettre c du paragraphe 3 précédent sera réduit, savoir :

à 14 francs, pendant les deux per kilogram of other articles, for all conveyances not coming under the categories mentioned under "a" and "b" above. In the case of maritime conveyance effected by two or several Administrations, the charges for the entire conveyance can not exceed 15 francs per kilogram of letters and post cards and 1 franc per kilogram of other articles. The charges are, in such cases, divided between the Administrations participating in the service pro rata for the distances traversed, without prejudice to other arrangements which may be made between the parties interested.

4.—The transit rates specified in the present Article do not apply either to conveyance by means of services depending upon Administrations foreign to the Union, or to conveyance within the Union by means of extraordinary services specially established or maintained by one Administration, either in the interest, or at the request of one or several other Administrations. The conditions of the last mentioned category of conveyance are regulated by mutual agreement between the Administrations interested.

Moreover, wherever the transit, either territorial or maritime, is at present gratuitous or subject to more advantageous conditions, that state of affairs is maintained.

5.—It is however understood :

1st that the charges for territorial transit shall be reduced, viz :

5%, during the first two years of the application of the present Convention;

10%, during the two following years;

15%, after four years;

2nd that countries whose receipts and expenditure for territorial transit together do not exceed the sum of 5,000 francs per year and whose expenditure exceeds their receipts for that transit, are exempt from any payment on this score;

3d that the maritime transit rates of 15 francs per kilogram of letters and post cards provided under the letter c of section 3 preceding shall be reduced, as follows, viz :

6.—Les frais de transit sont à la charge de l'Administration du pays d'origine.

7.—Le décompte général de ces frais a lieu dans les conditions à déterminer par le Règlement d'exécution prévu par l'article 20 ci-après.

8.—Sont exempts de tous frais de transit territorial ou maritime la correspondance officielle mentionnée au paragraphe 2 de l'article 11 ci-après; les cartes postales-réponse renvoyées au pays d'origine; les objets réexpédiés ou mal dirigés; les rebuts; les avis de réception; les mandats de poste et tous autres documents relatifs au service postal.

7.—The general settlement of these expenses takes place under the conditions to be determined on in the Regulations of execution referred to in Article 20 hereafter.

8.—The official correspondence mentioned in Section 2 of Article 11 hereafter, the reply halves of double post-cards returned to the country of origin, articles reforwarded or missent, undeliverable articles, return-receipts, money orders, and all other documents relative to the postal service, are exempt from all transit charges, whether territorial or maritime.

When the rate of prepayment of a single post-card comprises one or the other of the surtaxes authorized by the two preceding sections, the same rate is applicable to each of the halves of a post-card with paid reply.

Penalty for insufficient prepayment.

3—En cas d'insuffisance d'affranchissement, les objets de correspondance de toute nature sont passibles, à la charge des destinataires, d'une taxe double du montant de l'insuffisance, sans que cette taxe puisse dépasser celle qui est perçue dans le pays de destination sur les correspondances non affranchies de mêmes nature, poids et origine.

3.—In case of insufficient prepayment, articles of correspondence of every kind are liable to a charge equal to double the amount of the deficiency, to be paid by the addressees, which charge however may not exceed that which is levied in the country of destination on correspondence not prepaid, of the same nature, weight and origin.

Prepayment required.

4—Les objets autres que les lettres et les cartes postales doivent être affranchis au moins partiellement.

4.—Articles other than letters and post-cards must be prepaid at least in part.

5—Les paquets d'échantillons de marchandises ne peuvent renfermer aucun objet ayant une valeur marchande ; ils ne doivent pas dépasser le poids de 350 grammes, ni présenter des dimensions supérieures à 30 centimètres en longueur, 20 centimètres en largeur et 10 centimètres en épaisseur ou, s'ils ont la forme de rouleau, à 30 centimètres de longueur et 15 centimètres de diamètre.

6.—Les paquets de papiers d'affaires et d'imprimés ne peuvent pas dépasser le poids de 2 kilogrammes, ni présenter, sur aucun de leurs côtés, une dimension supérieure à 45 centimètres. On peut, toutefois, admettre au transport par la poste les paquets en forme de rouleau dont le diamètre ne dépasse pas 10 centimètres et dont la longueur n'excède pas 75 centimètres.

6.—Packets of commercial papers and prints may not exceed 2 kilograms in weight or measure more in any direction than 45 centimeters. Packets in the form of a roll may, however, be admitted to the mails provided they do not exceed 10 centimeters in diameter, and 75 centimeters in length.

ARTICLE 6.

1.—Les objets désignés dans l'article 5 peuvent être expédiés sous recommandation.

2.—Tout envoi recommandé est passible, à la charge de l'envoyeur: 1° du prix d'affranchissement ordinaire de l'envoi, selon sa nature;

2° d'un droit fixe de recommandation de 25 centimes au maximum, y compris la délivrance d'un bulletin de dépôt à l'expéditeur.

3.—L'expéditeur d'un objet recommandé peut obtenir un avis de réception de cet objet, en payant, au moment du dépôt, un droit fixe de 25 centimes au maximum. Le même droit peut être appliqué aux demandes de renseignements sur le sort d'objets recommandés qui se produisent postérieurement au dépôt, si l'expéditeur n'a pas déjà acquitté la taxe spéciale pour obtenir un avis de réception.

ARTICLE 6.

1.—The articles specified in Article 5 may be registered.

2.—Every registered article is liable, at the charge of the sender: 1st. To the ordinary prepaid rate of postage upon the article, according to its nature;

2nd. To a fixed registration fee of 25 centimes at the maximum, including the issue of a receipt to the sender.

3.—The sender of a registered article may obtain an acknowledgment of the delivery of said article by paying at the moment of mailing a fixed fee of 25 centimes at the maximum. ARTICLE 7.

1.—Les correspondances recommandées peuvent être expédiées grevées de remboursement dans les relations entre les pays dont les Administrations conviennent d'assurer ce service.

Les objets contre remboursement sont soumis aux formalités et aux taxes des envois recommandés.

Le maximum du remboursement est fixé, par envoi, à 1,000 francs ou à l'équivalent de cette somme en la monnaie du pays de destination. Chaque Administration a toutefois la faculté d'abaisser ce maximum à 500 francs, par envoi ou à l'équivalent de cette somme dans son système monétaire.

Le montant d'un mandat de remboursement tombé en rebut reste à la disposition de l'Administration du pays d'origine de l'envoi grevé de remboursement.

Responsibility for lost article.

3.—La perte d'une correspondance recommandée grevée de remboursement engage la responsabilité du service postal dans les conditions déterminées par l'article 8 ci après pour les envois recommandés non suivis de remboursement. Après la livraison de l'objet, l'Administration du pays de destination est responsable du montant du remboursement et doit, en cas de réclamation, justifier de l'envoi à l'expéditeur de la somme encaissée, sauf prélèvement des taxes et droit prévus au § 2.

The amount of an undeliverable money order of this kind remains at the disposal of the Administration of the country of origin of the article marked with trade charges.

3.—For the loss of a registered article marked with trade charges the responsibility of the postal service is fixed under the conditions determined by Article 8 hereafter for registered articles not marked with trade charges. After the article has been delivered, the Administration of the country of destination is responsible for the amount of the trade charge and must, in case of complaint, prove that the sum collected has been transmitted to the sender, after deducting the fee and charge contemplated by Section 2.

Indemnity for lost registered article.

1.—En cas de perte d'un envoi recommandé et sauf le cas de force majeure, l'expéditeur ou, sur sa demande, le destinataire a droit à une indemnité de 50 francs.

Surtax for force majeure risks.

2.—Les pays disposés à se charger des risques pouvant dériver du cas de force majeure sont autorisés à percevoir de ce chef sur l'expéditeur une surtaxe de 25 centimes au maximum pour chaque envoi recommandé.

Obligation to pay the indemnity.

3.—L'obligation de payer l'indemnité incombe à l'Administration dont relève le bureau expéditeur. Est réservé à cette Administration le recours contre l'Administration responsable, c'est-à-dire contre l'Administration sur le territoire ou dans le service de laquelle la perte a eu lieu.

Force majeure risks, responsibility for losses.

En cas de perte, dans des circonstances de force majeure, sur le territoire ou dans le service d'un pays se chargeant des risques mentionnés au paragraphe précédent, d'un objet recommandé provenant d'un autre pays, le pays où la perte a eu lieu en est responsable devant l'Office expéditeur, si ce dernier se charge, de son côté, des risques en

ARTICLE 8.

1.—In case of the loss of a registered article, and except in case of force majeure, the sender, or, at his request, the addressee, is entitled to an indemnity of 50 francs.

2.—The countries disposed to undertake risks arising from cases of force majeure are authorized to collect from the sender, on this account, a surtax not to exceed 25 centimes for each registered article.

3.—The obligation to pay the indemnity is incumbent on the Administration to which the dispatching office belongs. There is reserved to that Administration a remedy against the responsible Administration, that is to say, against the Administration on the territory or in the service of which the loss occurred.

In case of loss, under circumstances of force majeure, on the territory or in the service of a country undertaking the risks mentioned in the preceding section, of a registered article sent from another country, the country where the loss occurred is responsible for it to the dispatching Office, if the latter, on its part, undertakes risks in cases cas de force majeure à l'égard de ses expéditeurs.

4.—Jusqu'à preuve du contraire, la responsabilité incombe à l'Administration qui, ayant reçu l'objet sans faire d'observation, ne peut établir ni la délivrance au destinataire ni, s'il y a lieu, la transmission régulière à l'Administration suivante. Pour les envois adressés poste restante, la responsabilité cesse par la délivrance à une personne qui a justifié, suivant les règles en vigueur dans le pays de destination, que ses nom et qualité sont conformes aux indications de l'adresse.

5.—Le paiement de l'indemnité par l'Office expéditeur doit avoir lieu le plus tôt possible et, au plus tard, dans le délai d'un an à partir du jour de la réclamation. L'Office responsable est tenu de rembourser sans retard, à l'Office expéditeur, le montant de l'indemnité payée par celui-ci.

L'Office d'origine est autorisé à désintéresser l'expéditeur pour le compte de l'Office intermédiaire ou destinataire qui, régulièrement saisi, a laissé une année s'écouler sans donner suite à l'affaire. En outre, dans le cas où un Office dont la responsabilité est dûment établie, a tout d'abord décliné le paiement de l'indemnité, il doit prendre à sa charge, en plus de l'indemnité, les frais accessoires résultant du retard non justifié apporté au paiement.

6.—Il est entendu que la réclamation n'est admise que dans le délai d'un an, à partir du dépôt à la poste de l'envoi recommandé; passé ce terme, le réclamant n'a droit à aucune indemnité.

7.—Si la perte a eu lieu en cours de transport sans qu'il soit possible d'établir sur le territoire ou dans le service de quel pays le fait s'est accompli, les Administrations en cause supportent le dommage par parts égales.

8.—Les Administrations cessent d'être responsables des envois recommandés dont les ayants droit ont donné reçu et pris livraison.

of force majeure over against its senders.

4.—Until the contrary be proved, the responsibility rests with the Administration which, having received the article without making any remark, cannot prove either the delivery to the addressee, or the regular transmission to the next Administration, as the case may be. As regards articles addressed poste restante, the responsibility ceases upon delivery to a person who has proved, according to the regulations in force in the country of destination, that his name and description correspond to those indicated in the address.

5.—The payment of the indemnity by the dispatching Office should be made as soon as possible, and at the latest within the period of one year dating from the day of the reclamation. The responsible Office is bound to refund to the dispatching Office without delay the amount of the indemnity paid by the latter.

The Office of origin is authorized to indemnify the sender on account of the intermediary Office or the Office of destination which, after regular application has been made, has allowed a year to elapse without attending to the matter. Moreover, in case an office whose responsibility has been duly established, has originally declined to pay the indemnity, it must take upon itself, in addition to the indemnity, the accessory charges resulting from the unwarranted delay in payment.

6.—It is understood that the application for an indemnity is entertained only if made within the period of one year from the time when the registered article was mailed; after this period has passed, the claimant has no right to any indemnity.

7.—If the loss has occurred during transportation, and it is impossible to ascertain on the territory or in the service of what country the loss took place, the Administrations concerned bear the loss in equal proportions.

8.—Administrations cease to be responsible for registered articles, for which the owners have given a receipt and have accepted them.

3.—Les dispositions du présent article ne sont pas obligatoires pour les pays dont la législation ne permet pas à l'expéditeur de disposer d'un envoi en cours de transport.

ARTICLE 17.

1.—The Offices of the Union which have relations with countries situated outside the Union must lend their aid to all the other Offices of the Union for the transmission in open mail, through their intermediary, of articles of correspondence destined for or originating in said countries.

2.—As regards the transit charges on articles of every kind and responsibility in the matter of registered articles, the articles of correspondence in question are treated:

L'Office de l'Union qui sert d'intermédiaire.

Toutefois, les frais du transport maritime total, dans l'Union et hors l'Union, ne peuvent pas excéder 20 francs par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes postales et 1 franc par kilogramme d'autres objets; le cas échéant, ces frais sont répartis, au prorata des distances, entre les Offices intervenant dans le transport maritime.

Les frais de transit, territorial ou maritime, en dehors des limites de l'Union comme dans le ressort de l'Union, des correspondances auxquelles s'applique le présent article, sont constatés dans la même forme que les frais de transit afférents aux correspondances échangées entre pays de l'Union.

3.—Les frais de transit des correspondances à destination des pays en dehors de l'Union postale sont à la charge de l'Office du pays d'origine, qui fixe les taxes d'affranchissement dans son service des dites correspondances, sans que ces taxes puissent être inférieures au tarif normal de l'Union.

4.—Les frais de transit des correspondances originaires des pays en dehors de l'Union ne sont pas à la charge de l'Office du pays de destination. Cet Office distribue sans taxe les correspondances qui lui sont livrées comme complètement affranchies; il taxe les correspondances non affranchies au double du tarif d'affranchissement applicable dans son propre service aux envois similaires à destination du pays d'où proviennent les dites correspondances, et les correspondances insuffisamment affranchies au double de l'insuffisance, sans que la taxe puisse dépasser celle qui est perçue sur les correspondances non affranchies de mêmes nature, poids et origine.

5.—Les correspondances expédiées d'un pays de l'Union dans un pays en dehors de l'Union et vice versa, par l'intermédiaire d'un Office de l'Union, peuvent être transmises, de part et d'autre, en dépêches closes, si ce mode de transmission est admis d'un commun accord par les offices d'origine et de destination des dépêches, avec l'agrément de l'Office intermédiaire.

tions notified by the Office of the Union which serves as intermediary.

Nevertheless, the charges for the entire maritime conveyance, within and without the Union, may not exceed 20 francs per kilogram of letters and post cards and 1 franc per kilogram of other articles; if necessary, these charges are divided, pro rata for the distances, between the Offices participating in the maritime conveyance.

The transit charges, territorial or maritime, outside as well as within the limits of the Union on the articles of correspondence to which the present Article applies, are ascertained in the same manner as the transit charges relative to articles of correspondence exchanged between countries of the Union.

3.—The transit charges on articles of correspondence destined for countries outside the Union are payable by the Office of the country of origin, which fixes the postage rates of prepayment in its service on said articles; these rates, however, may not be lower than the normal Union rates.

4.—The transit charges on articles of correspondence originating in countries outside the Union are not payable by the Office of the country of destination. That Office delivers without charge the articles which it has received fully prepaid; on the unpaid articles it levies a charge equal to double the prepaid rate applicable in its own service to similar articles destined for the country where said articles originate; and on insufficiently prepaid articles it levies a charge equal to double the amount of the insufficiency; the charge, however, may not exceed that which is levied on unpaid articles of the same nature, weight and origin.

5.—Articles dispatched from one country of the Union to a country outside the Union and vice-versa, through the intermediary of an Office of the Union, may be transmitted, in both directions, in closed mails, if that mode of transmission is agreed to by the Offices of origin and destination of the mails, with the assent of the intermediary Office.

Elles s'engagent également à prendre, ou à proposer à leurs législatures respectives, les mesures nécessaires pour interdire et réprimer les opérations frauduleuses de fabrication, vente, colportage ou distribution de vignettes et timbres en usage dans le service des postes, contrefaits ou imités de telle manière qu'ils pourraient être confondus avec les vignettes et timbres émis par l'Administration d'un des pays adhérents.

A cet effet, chacune des Administrations en cause choisit un autre membre de l'Union qui n'est pas directement intéressé dans l'affaire.

[Translation.]

Au moment de procéder à la signature des Conventions arrêtées par le Congrès postal universel de Washington, les plénipotentiaires soussignés sont convenus de ce qui suit:

At the moment of proceeding to sign the Conventions concluded by the Universal Postal Congress of Washington, the undersigned plenipotentiaries have agreed as follows:

I.

I.

Il est pris acte de la déclaration faite par la délégation britannique au nom de son Gouvernement et portant qu'il a cédé aux colonies et protectorats britanniques de l'Afrique du Sud la voix que l'article 27, 5°, de la Convention attribue à "l'ensemble de toutes les autres colonies britanniques."

Official notice is taken of the declaration made by the British delegation, in the name of its Government, to the effect that it has assigned to the British Colonies and Protectorates of South Africa the vote which Article 27, 5th, of the Convention attributes to the whole of the other British Colonies.

Vote of British South African colonies.

II.

II.

En dérogation à la disposition de l'article 6 de la Convention, qui fixe à 25 centimes au maximum le droit de recommandation, il est convenu que les États hors d'Europe sont autorisés à maintenir ce maximum à 50 centimes, y compris la délivrance d'un bulletin de dépôt à l'expéditeur.

In modification of the stipulation of Article 6 of the Convention, which fixes the maximum registration-fee at 25 centimes, it is agreed that the States outside of Europe are authorized to maintain this maximum at 50 centimes, including a receipt given to the sender.

III.

III.

En dérogation aux dispositions de l'article 8 de la Convention, il est convenu que, par mesure de transition, les Administrations des pays hors d'Europe dont la législation est actuellement contraire au principe de la responsabilité, conservent la faculté d'ajourner l'application de ce principe jusqu'au jour où elles auront pu obtenir du pouvoir législatif l'autorisation de l'introduire. Jusqu'à ce moment, les autres Administrations de l'Union ne sont pas astreintes à payer une indemnité pour la perte, dans leurs services respectifs, d'envois recommandés à destination ou provenant desdits pays.

IV.

Adhesion.
Dominican
Republic.

La République Dominicaine, qui fait partie de l'Union postale, ne s'étant pas fait représenter au Congrès, le protocole lui reste ouvert pour adhérer aux conventions qui y ont été conclues ou seulement à l'une ou à l'autre d'entre elles.

China.

Le protocole reste également ouvert en faveur de l'Empire de Chine, dont les délégués au Congrès ont déclaré l'intention de ce pays d'entrer dans l'Union postale universelle, à partir d'une date à fixer ultérieurement.

Orange Free State.

Il demeure aussi ouvert à l'État libre d'Orange, dont le représentant a manifesté l'intention de ce pays d'adhérer à l'Union postale universelle.

for certain countries.

Le protocole demeure ouvert en faveur des pays dont les représentants n'ont signé aujourd'hui que la Convention principale, ou un certain nombre seulement des conventions arrêtées par le Congrès, à l'effet de leur permettre d'adhérer aux autres conventions signées ce jour, ou à l'une ou l'autre d'entre elles.

VI.

Notification of adhesion.

Les adhésions prévues à l'article IV ci-dessus devront être notifiées du Gouvernement des États-Unis à l'Amérique, par les Gouvernements respectifs, en la forme diplomatique. Le délai qui leur est accordé pour cette notification expirera le 1^{er} octobre 1898.

whose legislation is at present opposed to the principle of responsibility, retain the option of postponing the application of that principle until they shall have been able to obtain from the legislative power the authority to introduce it. Up to that time, the other Administrations of the Union are not bound to pay an indemnity for the loss, in their respective services, of registered articles addressed to or originating in the said countries.

IV.

The Dominican Republic, which forms part of the Postal Union, not having been represented at the Congress, the protocol remains open to it in order that it may adhere to the Conventions which have been concluded at the Congress, or only to one or the other of them.

The protocol likewise remains open to the Empire of China, whose delegates at the Congress have declared the intention of that country to enter the Universal Postal Union on a date to be fixed hereafter.

It also remains open to the Orange Free State, whose representative has declared the intention of that country to adhere to the Universal Postal Union.

V.

The protocol remains open to those countries whose representatives have signed this day the principal Convention only or only a certain number of the Conventions concluded by the Congress, for the purpose of allowing them to adhere to the other Conventions signed this day, or to one or the other of them.

VI.

The adhesions contemplated by Article IV preceding, must be notified to the Government of the United States of America by the respective Governments, in diplomatic form. The term accorded to them for that notification will expire on the 1st of October 1898.

VII.

Dans le cas où une ou plusieurs des parties contractantes aux conventions postales signées aujourd'hui à Washington, ne ratifieraient pas l'une ou l'autre de ces conventions, cette convention n'en sera pas moins valable pour les États qui l'auront ratifiée.

En foi de quoi, les plénipotentiaires ci-dessous ont dressé le présent Protocole final, qui aura la même force et la même valeur que si ses dispositions étaient insérées dans le texte même des conventions auxquelles il se rapporte, et ils l'ont signé en un exemplaire qui restera déposé aux Archives du Gouvernement des États-Unis d'Amérique et dont une copie sera remise à chaque partie.

Fait à Washington, le quinze juin mil huit cent quatre-vingt-dix-sept.

Pour l'Allemagne et les protectorats allemands
Pour la République Majeure de l'Amérique centrale

In case one or more of the contracting parties to the Postal Conventions signed this day at Washington, shall not ratify one or the other of those Conventions, this Convention shall be none the less valid for the States which shall have ratified it.

In faith of which, the undersigned plenipotentiaries have drawn up the present final protocol, which shall have the same force and value as if its provisions were inserted in the text itself of the Conventions to which it relates, and they have signed it on a single copy which shall remain in the Archives of the Government of the United States of America, and a copy of which shall be delivered to each party.

Les soussignés, vu l'article 20 de la Convention postale universelle conclue à Washington le 15 juin 1897, ont, au nom de leurs Administrations respectives, arrêté d'un commun accord les mesures suivantes, pour assurer l'exécution de ladite Convention.

The undersigned, in view of Article 20 of the Universal Postal Convention concluded at Washington on the 15th of June 1897, have, in the name of their respective Administrations, established, by mutual agreement, the following measures to insure the execution of the said Convention.

I.

Direction des Correspondances.

1.—Chaque Administration est obligée d'expédier, par les voies les plus rapides dont elle peut disposer pour ses propres envois, les dépêches closes et les correspondances à découvert qui lui sont livrées par une autre Administration.

2.—Les Administrations qui usent de la faculté de percevoir des taxes supplémentaires, en représentation des frais extraordinaires afférents à certaines voies, sont libres de ne pas diriger par ces voies, lorsqu'il existe d'autres moyens de communication, celles des correspondances insuffisamment affranchies pour lesquelles l'emploi desdites voies n'a pas été réclamé expressément par les envoyeurs.

II.

Exchange in closed mails.

1.—The exchange of articles in closed mails between the Administrations of the Union is regulated by mutual agreement and according to the needs of the service between the Administrations concerned.

2.—If an exchange is to be made through the intermediary of one or more countries, the Administrations of those countries must be informed thereof in due time.

3.—It is, moreover, obligatory, in this latter case, to make up closed mails, whenever the number of articles is such as to impede the operations of an intermediary Administration, according to the Exceptions en Matière de Poids.

Exceptions in the Matter of Weight.

Weight equivalents.

Il est admis, par mesure d'exception, que les États qui, à cause de leur régime intérieur, ne peuvent adopter le type de poids décimal métrique, ont la faculté d'y substituer l'once avoirdupois (28.3465 grammes), en assimilant une demi-once à 15 grammes et deux onces à 50 grammes, et d'élever, au besoin, la limite du port simple des journaux à quatre onces, mais sous la condition expresse que, dans ce dernier cas, le port des journaux ne soit pas inférieur à 10 centimes et qu'il soit perçu un port entier par numéro de journal, alors même que plusieurs journaux se trouveraient groupés dans un même envoi.

As an exceptional measure, it is agreed that the States which, in consequence of their domestic regulations, are unable to adopt the decimal metrical system of weight, have the right to substitute for it the ounce avoirdupois (28.3465 grams), by assimilating a half-ounce to 15 grams, and two ounces to 50 grams, and to raise, if needful, the limit of the single rate of postage for newspapers to four ounces, but under the express condition that, in the latter case, the postage on newspapers be not less than 10 centimes, and that an entire rate of postage be charged for each copy of the newspaper, even though several newspapers be included in the same package.

Postage-stamps.

1.—Les timbres-poste représentant les taxes-types de l'Union ou leur équivalent dans la monnaie de chaque pays sont confectionnés autant que possible dans les couleurs suivantes:

- Stamps of the value of 25 centimes in dark blue;
- Stamps of the value of 10 centimes in red;
- Stamps of the value of 5 centimes in green.

—inscription of value.

2.—Les timbres-poste doivent porter sur leur face l'inscription de la valeur qu'ils représentent effectivement pour l'affranchissement des correspondances d'après le tableau des équivalents inséré à l'article IV précédent.

2.—The postage-stamps must bear on their face the inscription of the value which they represent for the prepayment of articles of correspondence in accordance with the Table of equivalents inserted in Article IV preceding.

VII.

Correspondance avec les Pays Étrangers à l'Union.

Les Offices de l'Union qui ont des relations avec des pays étrangers à l'Union fournissent aux autres Offices de l'Union la liste de ces pays, avec les indications suivantes :

1° frais de transit maritime ou territorial applicables au transport en dehors des limites de l'Union ;

2° désignation des correspondances admises ;

3° affranchissement obligatoire ou facultatif ;

4° limite, pour chaque catégorie de correspondances, de la validité de l'affranchissement perçu [jusqu'à destination, jusqu'au port de débarquement, etc.] ;

5° étendue de la responsabilité pécuniaire en matière d'envois recommandés ;

6° possibilité d'admettre les avis de réception, et

7° autant que possible, tarif d'affranchissement en vigueur dans le pays en dehors de l'Union par rapport au pays de l'Union.

VIII.

Application des Timbres.

1.—Les correspondances originaires des pays de l'Union sont frappées d'un timbre indiquant le lieu d'origine et la date du dépôt à la poste.

2.—A l'arrivée, le bureau de destination applique son timbre à date au verso des lettres et au recto des cartes postales.

3.—Le timbrage des correspondances déposées sur les paquebots dans les boîtes mobiles ou entre les mains des commandants, incombe, dans les cas prévus par le paragraphe 3 de l'article 11 de la Convention, à l'agent des postes embarqué ou, s'il n'y en a pas, au bureau de poste auquel ces correspondances sont livrées. Le cas échéant, celui-ci les frappe de son timbre à date ordinaire et y appose la mention "Paquebot" soit à la main, soit au moyen d'une griffe ou d'un timbre.

VII.

Correspondence with Countries Foreign to the Union.

Offices of the Union which have relations with countries foreign to the Union, furnish to the other Offices of the Union a list of those countries with the following indications :

1st the maritime or territorial transit charges applicable to conveyance outside the limits of the Union ;

2nd the kind of articles admitted ;

3d whether prepayment is compulsory or optional ;

4th the limit for each category of articles, of the validity of the prepayment levied [to destination, to the port of debarkation, etc.] ;

5th the extent of the pecuniary responsibility in the matter of registered articles ;

6th whether return-receipts are obtainable or not ;

7th as far as possible, the rates of postage from the country outside of the Union to the Union country.

VIII.

Application of Stamps.

1.—Articles originating in countries of the Union are impressed with a stamp indicating the place of origin and the date of mailing.

Application of post-marks.

—at place of origin.

2.—On arrival, the office of destination impresses its date-stamp on the back of letters and on the front of post-cards.

—at destination.

3.—The stamping of articles deposited on board vessels in the movable boxes, or in the hands of the commanders, devolves, in the cases contemplated by Section 3 of Article 11 of the Convention, on the postal agent on board, or if there be none, on the post office to which the articles are delivered. In that case, this post office stamps them with its ordinary date-stamp and adds the word "paquebot" [mail-steamer] either in manuscript, or by means of a stamp.

—on ships.

—from non-Union countries.

4.—Les correspondances originaires des pays étrangers à l'Union sont frappées, par l'Office de l'Union qui les a recueillies, d'un timbre indiquant le point et la date d'entrée dans le service de cet Office.

4.—Articles originating in countries foreign to the Union are impressed by the Office of the Union which first receives them, with a stamp indicating the place and date of entry into the service of that Office.

—on unpaid, etc., articles.

5.—Les correspondances non affranchies ou insuffisamment affranchies sont, en outre, frappées du timbre T (taxe à payer), dont l'application incombe à l'Office du pays d'origine s'il s'agit de correspondances originaires de l'Union, et à l'Office du pays d'entrée s'il s'agit de correspondances originaires des pays étrangers à l'Union.

5.—Unpaid or insufficiently paid articles are, in addition, impressed with the stamp T (tax to be paid), the application of which devolves upon the Office of the country of origin in the case of articles originating in the Union, and upon the Office of the country of entry in the case of articles originating in countries foreign to the Union.

—on special-delivery articles.

6.—Les envois à remettre par exprès sont frappés d'un timbre portant en gros caractères le mot „Exprès“. Les Administrations sont toutefois autorisées à remplacer ce timbre par une étiquette imprimée ou par une inscription manuscrite et soulignée en crayon de couleur.

6.—Articles to be delivered by special messenger are impressed with a stamp showing in large letters the word “Exprès”. The Administrations are, however, authorized to substitute for this stamp a printed label or a written inscription underscored with a colored pencil.

Articles not stamped T considered as prepaid.

7.—Tout objet de correspondance ne portant pas le timbre T est considéré comme affranchi et traité en conséquence, sauf erreur évidente.

7.—Every article of correspondence which does not bear the stamp T is considered as prepaid and treated accordingly, unless there be an obvious error.

Omission to cancel stamps.

8.—Les timbres-poste non oblitérés ensuite d'erreur ou d'omission dans le service d'origine doivent l'être de la manière usuelle par le bureau qui constate l'irrégularité.

8.—Postage-stamps which have not been canceled owing to an error or omission on the part of the office of origin must be canceled in the usual manner by the post office which detects the irregularity.

—subsequent cancellation.

IX.

Indication du Nombre de Ports.

Rates due to be marked.

Lorsqu'une lettre ou tout autre objet de correspondance non affranchi ou insuffisamment affranchi est passible, en raison de son poids, de plus d'un port simple, l'Office d'origine ou d'entrée dans l'Union, suivant le cas, indique, à l'angle gauche supérieur de la suscription en chiffres ordinaires, le nombre des ports de l'objet.

IX.

Indication of the Number of Rates.

When an unpaid or insufficiently paid letter or other article of correspondence is liable, by reason of its weight, to more than a single rate of postage, the Office of origin or of entry into the Union, as the case may be, indicates in the upper left-hand corner of the address, in ordinary figures, the number of rates of the article.

X.

Affranchissement Insuffisant.

Marking insufficient payment.

1.—Lorsqu'un objet est insuffisamment affranchi au moyen de timbres-poste, l'Office expéditeur indique en chiffres noirs, apposés à côté des timbres-poste, le mon-

1.—When an article is insufficiently paid by means of postage-stamps, the dispatching Office indicates, in black figures placed at the side of the postage-stamps, tant de l'insuffisance en l'exprimant en francs et centimes.

2.—D'après cette indication, le bureau d'échange du pays de destination taxe l'objet au double de l'insuffisance constatée.

3.—Dans le cas où il a été fait usage de timbres-poste non valables pour l'affranchissement, il n'en est tenu aucun compte. Cette circonstance est indiquée par le chiffre zéro (0) placé à côté des timbres-poste.

XI.

Conditionnement des Objets Recommandés.

1.—Les objets de correspondance adressés sous des initiales et ceux qui portent une adresse écrite au crayon ne sont pas admis à la recommandation.

2. Aucune condition spéciale de forme ou de fermeture n'est exigée pour les objets recommandés. Chaque Office a la faculté d'appliquer à ces envois les règles établies dans son service intérieur.

3.—Les objets recommandés doivent porter une étiquette conforme ou analogue au modèle A annexé au présent Règlement, avec l'indication du nom du bureau d'origine et du numéro d'ordre sous lequel l'envoi est inscrit dans le registre de ce bureau.

Toutefois, il est permis aux Administrations dont le régime intérieur s'oppose actuellement à l'emploi des étiquettes, d'ajourner la mise à exécution de cette mesure et de continuer à employer des timbres pour la désignation des objets recommandés.

Il est, cependant, de rigueur de désigner chaque envoi recommandé par un numéro d'ordre. Si les règlements internes d'un Office réexpéditeur comportent la désignation des envois recommandés par un nouveau numéro d'ordre, cet Office est tenu de biffer le numéro original, tout en ayant soin de le laisser lisible.

4.—Les envois recommandés non affranchis ou insuffisamment affranchis sont transmis aux destinataires sans taxe, mais le bureau qui reçoit un envoi dans ces conditions est tenu de signaler le cas par bul-the amount of the deficiency, expressing it in francs and centimes.

2.—According to this indication, the exchange office of the country of destination charges the article with double the deficiency noted.

3.—In case postage-stamps not valid for prepayment have been used, no account is taken of them. This circumstance is indicated by a cipher (0) placed at the side of the postage-stamps.

—double rate charged.

XI.

Conditions applicable to Registered Articles.

1.—Articles of correspondence addressed under initials or in pencil are not admitted to registration.

2.—No special condition of form or fastening is prescribed for registered articles. Each Office has the right to apply to such articles the regulations in force in its domestic service.

3.—Registered articles should bear a label in conformity with or analogous to Form A annexed to the present Regulations, indicating the name of the office of origin and the number of order under which the article is entered on the records of that office.

Nevertheless, Administrations whose domestic regulations do not at present authorize the use of labels, are permitted to defer the execution of this measure and to continue the use of stamps for designating registered articles.

It is, however, indispensable to designate each registered article by a number of order. If the domestic regulations governing a re-forwarding post office require the designation of registered articles by a new number of order, that office must cross out the original number, taking care however to leave it legible.

4.—Unpaid or insufficiently paid registered articles are forwarded to the addressees without charge, but the office which receives an article in these conditions, must report the case by a Bulletin of letin de vérification à l'Administration dont relève le bureau d'origine. Le bulletin doit relater très exactement l'origine, la date du dépôt et le numéro d'envoi. Cette prescription ne s'applique pas aux envois recommandés qui, par suite de réexpédition, deviennent passible d'une taxe supérieure. Ces derniers envois sont traités en conformité des dispositions du § 2 de l'article XXV du présent Règlement.

Verification to the Administration to which the post office of origin is subordinate. The Bulletin must state very exactly the origin, date of mailing and number of the article. This stipulation does not apply to registered articles which, in consequence of having been forwarded, become liable to a higher rate of postage. Such articles are treated in conformity with the provisions of Section 2 of Article XXV of the present Regulations.

XII.

Indemnité pour la Perte d'un Envoi Recommandé.

Reimbursement of losses.

Lorsque l'indemnité due pour la perte d'un envoi recommandé a été payée par une Administration pour le compte d'une autre Administration, rendue responsable, celle-ci est tenue d'en rembourser le montant dans le délai de trois mois après avis du paiement. Ce remboursement s'effectue, soit au moyen d'un mandat de poste ou d'une traite, soit en espèces ayant cours dans le pays crédeur. Lorsque le remboursement de l'indemnité comporte des frais, ils sont toujours à la charge de l'Office débiteur.

XII.

Indemnity for the Loss of a Registered Article.

When the indemnity due for the loss of a registered article has been paid by one Administration, on behalf of another Administration which is responsible for the loss, the latter Administration is obliged to reimburse the amount within a period of three months after having been advised of the payment. This reimbursement is made either by means of a money-order, or a draft, or in specie current in the creditor country. When the reimbursement of the indemnity involves expenses, they are invariably borne by the debtor Office.

XIII.

Avis de Réception.

Return receipts.

1.—Les envois dont l'expéditeur demande un avis de réception doivent porter l'annotation très apparente: „Avis de réception“ ou l'empreinte d'un timbre portant: A. R.

Form.

Post. p. 1706.

2.—Ils sont accompagnés d'une formule conforme ou analogue au modèle B ci-annexé; cette formule est établie par le bureau d'origine ou par tout autre bureau à désigner par l'Office expéditeur et réunie, au moyen d'un croisé de ficelle, à l'objet auquel elle se rapporte. Si elle ne parvient pas au bureau de destination, celui-ci dresse d'office un nouvel avis de réception.

Les avis de réception doivent être traduits en français ou porter une traduction surlinéaire en cette langue.

XIII.

Return-Receipts for Registered Articles.

1.—Articles for which the sender requests a Return-receipt must be marked very clearly: „Avis de réception“ (Return-Receipt) or be stamped with the letters: A. R.

2.—They are accompanied by a Form conforming or analogous to the Form B appended hereto; this Form is prepared by the post office of origin or by any other post office which the dispatching Office may designate, and attached, by means of a string tied crosswise, to the article to which it relates. If it does not reach the post office of destination, that office officially prepares a new Return-receipt.

Return-receipts must be formulated in French or bear an inter-linear translation in that language.

3.—Le bureau de destination, après avoir dûment rempli la formule B, la renvoie sous enveloppe et avec recommandation d'office au bureau d'origine.

4.—Lorsque l'expéditeur demande un avis de réception d'un objet recommandé postérieurement au dépôt de cet objet, le bureau d'origine reproduit sur une formule B, préalablement revêtue d'un timbre-poste représentant la taxe d'avis de réception, la description très exacte de l'objet recommandé [nature de l'objet, bureau d'origine, date de dépôt, numéro, suscription]. Cette formule est transmise d'Administration à Administration avec l'indication de la dépêche dans laquelle l'objet recommandé à rechercher a été livré au service d'échange de l'Office correspondant. Le bureau de destination remplit la formule et la renvoie au bureau d'origine de la manière prescrite par le §. 3 précédent.

5.—Si un avis de réception régulièrement demandé par l'expéditeur au moment du dépôt, n'est pas parvenue dans les délais voulus au bureau d'origine, on procède, pour réclamer l'avis manquant conformément aux règles tracées au §. 4 précédent. Toutefois, dans ce dernier cas, au lieu de revêtir la formule B d'un timbre-poste, le bureau d'origine inscrit en tête la mention "Réclamation de l'avis de réception, etc."

3.—The office of destination, after having duly filled out the Form B, returns it in an envelope and under official registration, to the office of origin.

4.—When a sender requests a Return-receipt for a registered article after the article has been mailed, the post office of origin reproduces on a Form B, to which there has been previously attached a postage-stamp representing the charge for a Return-receipt, a very exact description of the registered article [its nature, post office of origin, date of mailing, number, address]. This Form is transmitted from Office to Office with the indication of the mail in which the registered article inquired for has been delivered to the corresponding Office of exchange. The post office of destination fills out the Form and returns it to the office of origin in the manner prescribed by Section 3 preceding.

5.—If a Return-receipt regularly requested by the sender at the moment of mailing, has not reached the office of origin within the time stipulated, the rules laid down in Section 4 preceding are followed for reclaiming the missing Return-receipt. In this last mentioned case, however, instead of affixing a postage-stamp to the Form B, the office of origin enters at the top of the Form the words "Reclamation for a Return-receipt, etc."

XIV.

Envois Recommandés Grevés de Remboursement.

1.—Les envois recommandés grevés de remboursement doivent être revêtus de l'empreinte d'un timbre ou d'une étiquette portant le mot "Remboursement."

2.—Le montant du remboursement doit être énoncé dans la monnaie du pays de destination sur le recto de l'envoi en caractères latins, en toutes lettres et en chiffres, sans rature ni surcharge. L'expéditeur doit indiquer, au-dessous, son nom et son adresse, également en caractères latins.

XIV.

Registered Articles Marked with Trade Charges.

1.—Registered articles marked with trade charges must bear the impression of a stamp or a label showing the word "Remboursement."

2.—The amount of the trade charge must be given in the currency of the country of destination on the address-side of the article in Roman characters, both in words and in Arabic figures, without erasure or interlineations. The sender must indicate, below, his name and address, likewise in Roman characters.

3.—Si le destinataire ne paye pas le montant du remboursement dans un délai de 7 jours dans les relations entre pays d'Europe et dans un délai de 15 jours dans les relations des pays d'Europe avec les pays hors d'Europe et de ces derniers pays entre eux, à partir du jour qui suit celui-ci de l'arrivée au bureau destinataire, l'envoi est réexpédié au bureau d'origine.

3.—If the addressee does not pay the amount of the trade charge within a period of 7 days when the service is between the countries of Europe, and a period of 15 days when the service is between countries of Europe and countries outside of Europe, or is between these last mentioned countries themselves, dating from the day following the day of arrival at the post office of destination, the article is sent back to the office of origin.

Disposition of amount collected.

4.—Sauf autre arrangement, la somme recouvrée, déduction faite du droit d'encaissement prévu à l'article 7, §. 2, de la Convention et de la taxe ordinaire des mandats de poste, est convertie en un mandat de poste portant en tête du recto la mention "Remb." et établi pour le surplus en conformité du Règlement d'exécution de l'Arrangement concernant le service des mandats de poste. Il doit être fait mention, sur le coupon du mandat, du nom et de l'adresse du destinataire de l'envoi contre remboursement, ainsi que du lieu et de la date du dépôt de cet envoi.

4.—Unless there be a contrary arrangement, the amount collected, after deducting the charge for cashing contemplated by Article 7, Section 2, of the Convention and the ordinary charge for a money order, is converted into a Money Order showing at the head of the front part the word "Remb," and issued for the amount remaining after the deductions indicated above, in conformity with the Regulations for the execution of the Arrangement concerning the service of Money Orders. Mention should be made, on the coupon of the money order, of the name and address of the addressee of the article marked with trade charges, as well as of the place and date of mailing of the article.

Forwarding of articles, etc.

5.—Sauf arrangement contraire, les envois grevés de remboursement peuvent être réexpédiés d'un des pays participant à ce service sur un autre de ces pays. En cas de réexpédition, l'envoi conserve intacte la demande de remboursement originale, telle que l'expéditeur lui-même l'a formulée. L'Office de la destination définitive doit seul procéder à la conversion dans sa monnaie du montant du remboursement, d'après le taux en vigueur pour les mandats de poste, dans le cas où il n'aurait pas le même système monétaire que celui dans lequel le remboursement est exprimé; il lui appartient aussi de transformer le remboursement en un mandat sur le pays d'origine.

5.—Unless there be a contrary arrangement, articles marked with trade charges may be forwarded from one of the countries participating in this service to another one of those countries. In case of forwarding, the sender's marking of the trade-charges is preserved intact. The Office of the final destination is the only one which may proceed to convert into its currency the amount of the trade-charge, according to the rate of conversion applicable to money orders, in case it has not the same monetary system as that in which the trade charge is expressed; it is likewise its duty to convert the trade charge into a money order payable in the country of origin.

en tête du recto, le titre "Carte postale" exprimé d'une manière apparente en langue française ou avec traduction surlinéaire en cette langue. Ce titre est suivi, autant que possible, des mentions "Union postale universelle" "[Côté réservé à l'adresse]". Le reste du recto est réservé aux timbres d'affranchissement, aux indications relatives au service postal [recommandé, avis de réception, etc.] et à l'adresse du destinataire, laquelle peut être écrite à la main ou figurer sur une étiquette collée n'excédant pas deux centimètres sur cinq.

Lorsque l'expéditeur utilise pour l'étranger une carte postale du service intérieur, on donne cours à cette carte pourvu qu'elle porte soit le titre, imprimé ou écrit, "Carte postale", soit l'équivalent de ce titre dans la langue du pays d'origine.

En outre, l'expéditeur a la faculté d'indiquer au recto son nom et son adresse, soit par écrit, soit au moyen d'un timbre, d'une griffe ou de tout autre procédé typographique.

Des vignettes ou réclames peuvent être imprimées sur le recto. Toutefois, elles ne doivent nuire en rien à l'indication claire de l'adresse, ainsi qu'à l'apposition des timbres et notices du service postal.

A l'exception des timbres d'affranchissement et des étiquettes mentionnées au premier alinéa et au paragraphe 4 du présent article, il est interdit de joindre ou d'attacher aux cartes postales des objets quelconques.

2.—Les cartes postales ne peuvent excéder les dimensions suivantes: longueur, 14 centimètres; largeur, 9 centimètres.

3.—Les cartes postales avec réponse payée doivent présenter, au recto, comme titre sur la première partie: „Carte postale avec réponse payée“; sur la seconde partie: „Carte postale-réponse“. Les deux parties doivent d'ailleurs remplir, chacune, les autres conditions imposées à la carte postale simple; elles sont repliées l'une sur l'autre et ne peuvent être fermées d'une manière quelconque.

head of the front, the title "Post Card" in a conspicuous manner in the French language, or with an interlinear translation in that language. This title is followed, as far as possible, by the words "Universal Postal Union", "[side reserved for the address]". The remaining portion of the front is reserved for postage stamps, for indications relating to the postal service [registered, Return-receipt, etc.] and for the address of the addressee, which may be in manuscript or in the shape of a label pasted on the card, not exceeding two centimeters by five.

When the sender uses for a foreign destination a post card of the domestic service, the card is forwarded provided it bears the title, printed or written, "Post Card", or the equivalent of that title in the language of the country of origin.

Moreover, the sender has the option of indicating his name and address on the front either in writing, or by means of a stamp, autograph stamp, or other typographical process.

Engravings or advertisements may be printed on the front. They must in no wise interfere (however) with the clear indication of the address, or with the application of stamps and notices of the postal service.

Except stamps for prepayment and the labels mentioned in the first paragraph and in section 4 of the present Article, it is forbidden to join or attach to post-cards any articles whatsoever.

2.—Post-cards may not exceed the following dimensions: length, 14 centimeters; breadth, 9 centimeters.

3.—Post-cards with paid reply must bear on the front, as a title, on the first half: "Post-card with paid reply"; on the second half: "Reply Post-Card". Each of the two halves must also comply with the other conditions prescribed for single post-cards; one half is folded over the other, and must not be closed in any manner whatsoever.

Return cards.

Sender's address on reply.

4.—Il est loisible à l'expéditeur d'une carte postale avec réponse payée d'indiquer son nom et son adresse au recto de la partie „Réponse“, soit par écrit, soit en y collant une étiquette.

4.—The sender of a post-card with paid reply may indicate his name and address on the front of the “reply half”, either in writing or by pasting a label on it.

Prepayment limited to country of origin, etc.

5.—L'affranchissement de la partie „Réponse“ au moyen du timbre-poste du pays qui a émis la carte n'est valable que si les deux parties de la carte postale avec réponse payée sont parvenues adhérentes du pays d'origine et si la partie „Réponse“ est expédiée à destination de ce pays. Dans les autres cas elle est traitée comme carte postale non affranchie.

5.—The prepayment of the “reply half” by means of the postage-stamp of the country which issued the card is valid only if the two parts of the post-card with paid reply are received from the country of origin adhering to each other, and if the “reply” half is forwarded to a destination in that country. In other cases it is treated as an unpaid post-card.

Private cards.

6.—Les cartes postales simples et celles avec réponse payée, émanant de l'industrie privée, sont admises à la circulation internationale pourvu que la législation du pays d'origine le permette et qu'elles remplissent les conditions déterminées dans le présent article pour l'admission au tarif réduit, dans les échanges de pays à pays, des cartes postales émises par les Administrations des postes et qu'elles soient conformes, en ce qui concerne le format et la consistance du papier, aux cartes émises par l'Office d'origine.

6.—Single post-cards and post-cards with paid reply, issued by private establishments, are admitted to international circulation, provided the legislation of the country of origin allows it, and that they fulfil the conditions prescribed in the present Article for the admission at the reduced rate, in the exchanges from country to country, of post-cards issued by the Postal Administrations, and that they be in conformity with the post-cards issued by the Office of origin, as regards their size and the consistency of the paper.

Cards treated as letters.

7.—Les cartes postales ne remplissant pas, quant aux indications prescrites aux dimensions, à la forme extérieure, etc., les conditions imposés par le présent article à cette catégorie d'envois, sont traitées comme lettres.

7.—Post-cards not fulfilling, as regards dimensions, external form, etc., the conditions prescribed by the present Article for articles of this category, are treated as letters.

Cependant, les cartes postales adressées originairement à l'intérieur du pays d'origine et réexpédiées sur un autre pays sont admises à bénéficier du tarif réduit si elles remplissent les conditions prescrites pour la circulation des cartes postales à l'intérieur de pays d'origine et ne dépassent pas les dimensions fixées au § 2 précédent.

Nevertheless, post-cards addressed originally to the interior of the country of origin and forwarded to another country are admitted at the reduced rate if they fulfil the conditions prescribed for the circulation of post-cards in the interior of the country of origin and do not exceed the dimensions fixed by Section 2 preceding.

Transmission des Objets Recommandés.

Registered articles.

1.—Les objets recommandés, les avis de réception, les envois exprès et, s'il y a lieu, les listes spéciales prévues au paragraphe 5 de l'article XX, sont réunis en un ou plusieurs paquets ou sacs distincts, qui doivent être convenablement enveloppés ou fermés et cachetés de manière à en préserver le contenu.

Les objets recommandés sont classés dans chaque paquet d'après leur ordre d'inscription. Quand on emploie plusieurs listes détachées, chacune d'elle est insérée dans le paquet renfermant les objets recommandés auxquelles elle se rapporte.

2.—Au paquet d'objets recommandés est attachée extérieurement, par un croisé de ficelle, l'enveloppe spéciale contenant la feuille d'avis. Le paquet est ensuite placé au centre de la dépêche.

3.—La présence, dans la dépêche, d'un paquet d'objets recommandés dont la description est faite sur la liste spéciale mentionnée au paragraphe 1 ci-dessus, doit être annoncée par l'application, en tête de la feuille d'avis, soit d'une annotation spéciale, soit de l'étiquette ou du timbre de recommandation en usage dans le pays d'origine.

4.—Il est entendu que le mode d'emballage et de transmission des objets recommandés, prescrit par les paragraphes 1 et 2 ci-dessus, s'applique seulement aux relations ordinaires. Pour les relations importantes, il appartient aux Administrations intéressées de prescrire, d'un commun accord, des dispositions particulières, sous réserve, dans l'un comme dans l'autre cas, des mesures exceptionnelles à prendre par les chefs des bureaux d'échange, lorsqu'ils ont à assurer la transmission d'objets recommandés qui, par leur nature, leur forme ou leur volume, ne seraient pas susceptibles d'être insérés dans la dépêche.

Toutefois, les bureaux d'échange expéditeurs indiquent en tête de la feuille d'avis, le cas échéant, le nombre des objets recommandés qui se trouvent dans la dépêche en

Transmission of Registered Articles.

1.—Registered articles, Return-Receipts, express articles, and, if there be any, the special lists mentioned in section 5 of Article XX, are placed together in one or more separate packages or sacks, which must be suitably enclosed or fastened and sealed so as to preserve their contents.

The registered articles are placed in each package in their order of entry. When several detached lists are used, each one is inserted in the package containing the registered articles to which it relates.

2.—To the outside of the package of registered articles is attached, by a string tied crosswise, the special envelope containing the Letter Bill. The package is then placed in the center of the mail.

3.—The presence in the mail of a package of registered articles, the description of which is given on the special list mentioned in section 1 above, must be announced by placing at the head of the Letter Bill, either a special entry or the registration label or stamp in use in the country of origin.

4.—It is understood that the mode of wrapping up and forwarding registered articles prescribed by sections 1 and 2 above, applies only to ordinary relations. For important exchanges it appertains to the Administrations interested to prescribe, by mutual agreement, special arrangements, subject, in the one case as in the other, to exceptional measures to be taken by the chiefs of the exchange offices, when they have to ensure the transmission of registered articles which, from their nature, form, or bulk, could not be inserted in the mail.

In such case, however, the dispatching exchange offices indicate at the head of the Letter Bill the number of registered articles contained in the mail outside the spe-

XXII.

Confection des Dépêches.

1.—En règle générale, les objets qui composent les dépêches doivent être classés et enliassés par nature de correspondances, en séparant les objets affranchis des objets non ou insuffisamment affranchis.

Les lettres portant des traces d'ouverture ou d'avarie doivent être munies d'une mention du fait et frappées du timbre à date du bureau qui a constaté ce fait.

2.—Toute dépêche, après avoir été ficelée, est enveloppée de papier fort en quantité suffisante pour éviter toute détérioration du contenu, puis ficelée extérieurement et cachetée à la cire ou au moyen d'un cachet en papier gommé, avec l'empreinte du cachet du bureau. Elle est munie d'une suscription imprimée portant, en petits caractères, le nom du bureau expéditeur et, en caractères plus forts, le nom du bureau destinataire: „de . . . pour . . .

3.—Si le volume de la dépêche le comporte, elle est renfermée dans un sac convenablement fermé, cacheté ou plombé et étiqueté.

4.—Les paquets ou sacs renfermant des envois à remettre par exprès doivent porter extérieurement une désignation signalant ces objets à l'attention des agents postaux.

5.—Lorsqu'il est fait usage d'étiquettes en papier, elles doivent être collées sur des planchettes.

XXII.

Making up the Mails.

1.—As a general rule, the articles of which the mails consist must be classified and tied up in bundles according to the nature of correspondence, separating the prepaid articles from those unpaid or insufficiently prepaid.

Letters bearing traces of having been opened or damaged, must be furnished with an indication of the fact, and be stamped with the date stamp of the office which has ascertained this fact.

2.—Every mail, after having been tied with a string, is enclosed in strong paper of sufficient quantity to prevent any injury to the contents, then tied again with a string on the outside and sealed with wax or by means of a gummed paper label bearing an impression of the seal of the office. The mail is furnished with a printed address bearing, in small characters, the name of the dispatching office, and, in larger characters, the name of the office of destination: “From . . . for . . .”

3.—If the size of the mail requires it, it is placed in a sack properly closed, sealed with wax or with lead, and labeled.

4.—The packages or sacks containing articles to be delivered by special messenger must bear on the outside an indication directing the attention of the postal officials to these articles.

Verification of mails.

Vérification des Dépêches.Verification of the Mails.

1.—Le bureau d'échange qui reçoit une dépêche constate si les inscriptions sur la feuille d'avis et, s'il y a lieu, sur la liste des objets recommandés, sont exactes.

1.—The office of exchange which receives a mail ascertains whether the entries on the Letter Bill and on the list of registered articles, if there be one, are correct.

Les dépêches doivent être livrées en bon état. Cependant, la réception d'une dépêche ne peut pas être refusé à cause de son mauvais état. S'il s'agit d'une dépêche pour un autre bureau que celui qui en a pris livraison, elle doit être emballée de nouveau, tout en conservant, autant que possible, l'emballage original. Le remballage est précédé de la vérification du contenu, s'il est à présumer que celui-ci n'est pas resté intact.

The mails must be delivered in good condition. Nevertheless, the receipt of a mail can not be refused on account of its bad condition. If it is a mail for an office other than that which has received it, it must be packed anew, preserving however, as far as possible, the original packing. The repacking is preceded by a verification of the contents, if there is reason to suppose that they have not remained intact.

Corrections of errors.

2.—Lorsque le bureau d'échange reconnaît des erreurs ou des omissions, il opère immédiatement les rectifications nécessaires sur les feuilles ou listes, en ayant soin de biffer, d'un trait de plume, les indications erronées de manière à laisser reconnaître les inscriptions primitives.

2.—When the office of exchange detects errors or omissions, it immediately makes the necessary corrections on the Letter Bills or lists, taking care to strike out the erroneous entries by the stroke of a pen, in such a manner as to leave the original entries legible.

—acceptance.

3.—Ces rectifications s'effectuent par le concours de deux agents. A moins d'une erreur évidente, elles prévalent sur la déclaration originale.

3.—These corrections are made with the concurrence of two officers. Except in the case of an obvious error, they are accepted in preference to the original statement.

Bulletin of verification.

4.—Un bulletin de vérification, conforme au modèle D annexé au présent Règlement, est dressé par le bureau destinataire et envoyé sans délai, sous recommandation d'office, au bureau expéditeur. En même temps, un duplicata du bulletin de vérification est envoyé par le bureau destinataire à l'Administration dont relève le bureau expéditeur.

4.—A Bulletin of verification, in conformity with the Form D annexed to the present Regulations, is prepared by the receiving office and sent without delay, under official registration, to the dispatching office. At the same time a duplicate of the Bulletin of verification is sent by the receiving office to the Administration to which the dispatching office belongs.

Dans le cas prévu au paragraphe 1 du présent article, une copie du bulletin de vérification est insérée dans la dépêche remballée.

In the case contemplated in section 1 of the present Article, a copy of the Bulletin of verification is inserted in the repacked mail.

Post, p. 1712.

5.—Le bureau expéditeur, après examen, renvoie le bulletin avec ses observations, s'il y a lieu.

6.—En cas de manque d'une dépêche, d'un objet recommandé, de la feuille d'avis ou de la liste spéciale, le fait est constaté immédiatement dans la forme voulue par deux agents du bureau d'échange destinataire, et porté à la connaissance du bureau d'échange expéditeur au moyen du bulletin de vérification. Si le cas le comporte, ce dernier bureau peut, en outre, être avisé par télégramme aux frais de l'office expéditeur du télégramme. En même temps, un bulletin de vérification est envoyé par le bureau destinataire à l'Administration dont relève le bureau expéditeur.

Dès la rentrée d'une dépêche dont l'absence avait été signalée au bureau d'origine ou à un bureau intermédiaire, il y a lieu d'adresser au même bureau un second bulletin de vérification annonçant la réception de cette dépêche.

7.—En cas de perte d'une dépêche close, les offices intermédiaires sont rendus responsables des objets recommandés qu'enfermait la dépêche, dans les limites de l'article 8 de la Convention, à condition que la non-réception de cette dépêche leur ait été signalée aussitôt que possible.

8.—Lorsque le bureau destinataire n'a pas fait parvenir au bureau expéditeur par le premier courrier après la vérification un bulletin constatant des erreurs ou des irrégularités quelconques, l'absence de ce document vaut comme accusé de réception de la dépêche et de son contenu, jusqu'à preuve du contraire.

5.—The dispatching office, after examination, returns the Bulletin with any observations to which it may give rise. —return.

6.—In case of the failure of a mail, of a registered article, of the Letter Bill, or of the special list, the fact is immediately authenticated, in the manner prescribed, by two officers of the receiving exchange office, and reported to the dispatching exchange office by means of a Bulletin of verification. If needful, the latter office may also be advised thereof by telegram at the expense of the office which sends the telegram. At the same time, a Bulletin of Verification is sent by the office of destination to the Administration to which the dispatching office is subordinate. Report of errors and irregularities.

Upon the receipt of a mail whose absence had been notified to the office of origin, or to an intermediary office, a second Bulletin of Verification announcing the receipt of the mail must be transmitted to the same office.

7.—In case of the loss of a closed mail, the intermediary offices become responsible for the registered articles contained in the mail, within the limits of Article 8 of the Convention, provided the non-receipt of that mail has been reported to them as soon as possible. Responsibility for losses.

8.—In case the receiving office has not forwarded to the dispatching office by the first mail after verification, a Bulletin reporting errors or irregularities of any kind, the absence of that document is to be regarded as evidence of the receipt of the mail and of its contents, until the contrary be proved. Failure to send Bulletin evidence of receipt of mail.

3.—Les dépêches à destination ou provenant de divisions navales ou de bâtiments de guerre sont acheminées, sauf indication d'une voie spéciale sur l'adresse, par les voies les plus rapides et dans les mêmes conditions que les dépêches échangées entre bureaux de poste.

Quand les dépêches à destination d'une division navale ou d'un bâtiment de guerre sont expédiées en dehors, le capitaine du paquebot postal qui les transporte, les tient à la disposition du commandant de la division ou du bâtiment destinataire pour le cas où celui-ci viendrait demander au paquebot en route la livraison de ces dépêches.

3.—Mails destined for or sent from naval squadrons or ships of war are forwarded, unless a special route be indicated in the address, by the most rapid routes and under the same conditions as mails exchanged between post offices.

4.—Si les bâtiments ne se trouvent pas au lieu de destination quand les dépêches à leur adresse y arrivent, ces dépêches sont conservées au bureau de poste, en attendant leur retrait par le destinataire ou leur réexpédition sur un autre point. La réexpédition peut être demandée, soit par l'Office postal d'origine, soit par le commandant de la division navale ou du bâtiment destinataire, soit enfin par un Consul de même nationalité.

4.—If the vessels are not at the place of destination when the mails addressed to them arrive there, the mails are kept at the post office, until claimed by the addressee or forwarded to another place. The forwarding may be requested, either by the post office of origin, or by the commander of the naval squadron or ship addressed, or finally by a Consul of the same nationality.

In care of Consul.

5.—Celles des dépêches dont il s'agit qui portent la mention „Aux soins du Consul de“ sont consignées au Consulat du pays d'origine. Elles peuvent être ultérieurement, à la demande du Consul, réintégrées dans le service postal et réexpédiées sur le lieu d'origine ou sur une autre destination.

Dans l'un et l'autre cas, les taxes prévues ci-dessus restent exigibles du destinataire, alors même que, par suite de réexpéditions successives, les envois reviennent dans le pays d'origine.

The amount of this difference must be expressed in francs and centimes at the side of the postage-stamps, by the forwarding office.

3.—When articles originally addressed from one part to another of a country of the Union, and prepaid in cash, are forwarded to another country, the forwarding office must indicate, on each article, the amount of postage so prepaid in cash.

4—Missent articles of every kind are forwarded without delay by the quickest route to their destination.

5.—Articles of every kind, ordinary or registered, which, bearing an incomplete or erroneous address, are returned to the senders in order that they may complete or correct the address, are not considered, when remailed with a completed or corrected address, as forwarded correspondence, but as newly mailed articles, and become, in consequence, subject to a new charge.

XXVI.

Undeliverable Articles.

1.—Articles of every kind which have become undeliverable, from whatever cause, must be returned as soon as possible after the expiration of the period for keeping them required by the Regulations of the country of destination, and at latest at the expiration of six months in relations with countries beyond the sea, and of two months in other relations, through the intermediary of the respective offices of exchange, and in a special bundle labeled “Rebuts”, and bearing an indication of the country of origin of the articles. The periods mois comptent à partir de la fin du mois dans lequel les correspondances sont parvenues au bureau de destination.

2.—Toutefois, les correspondances recommandées tombées en rebut sont renvoyées au bureau d'échange du pays d'origine comme s'il s'agissait de correspondances recommandées à destination de ce pays, sauf qu'en regard de l'inscription nominative au tableau n° I de la feuille d'avis ou sur la liste détachée, la mention „Rebuts“ est consignée dans la colonne „Observations“ par le bureau réexpéditeur.

3.—Par exception, deux Offices correspondants peuvent, d'un commun accord, adopter un autre mode de renvoi de rebuts, ainsi que se dispenser de se renvoyer réciproquement certains imprimés considérés comme dénués de valeur.

4.—Avant de renvoyer à l'Office d'origine les correspondances non distribuées pour un motif quelconque, l'Office destinataire doit indiquer d'une manière claire et concise, en langue française, au verso de ces objets, la cause de la non-remise sous la forme suivante: inconnu, refusé, parti, non réclamé, décédé, etc. Cette indication est fournie par l'application d'un timbre ou l'apposition d'une étiquette. Chaque Office a la faculté d'ajouter la traduction, dans sa propre langue, de la cause de non-remise et les autres indications qui lui conviennent.

5.—Si des correspondances mises à la poste dans un pays de l'Union et adressées à l'intérieur de ce même pays ont pour expéditeurs des personnes habitant un autre pays et doivent, par suite de non-distribution et de mise en rebut, être renvoyées à l'étranger pour être rendues à leurs auteurs, elles deviennent des envois de l'échange international. En pareil cas, l'Office réexpéditeur et l'Office distributeur font application aux dites correspondances des dispositions de §§ 2 et 3 de l'article XXV précédent.

6.—Les correspondances pour les marins et autres personnes adressées aux soins d'un Consul et rendues par celui-ci au bureau de poste local comme non réclamées doivent être traitées de la manière of two months and six months are counted from the end of the month in which the articles reached the office of destination.

2.—Nevertheless, registered articles which become undeliverable are returned to the exchange office of the country of origin as if they were registered articles addressed to that country, except that opposite the descriptive entry in Table No. I of the Letter Bill, or in the separate list, the word “Rebuts” is entered in the column “Observations” by the returning office.

3.—As an exception, two corresponding Offices may, by mutual agreement, adopt a different mode of returning undeliverable articles, and may also dispense with the reciprocal return of certain prints considered to be without value.

4.—Before returning to the office of origin the articles which for any cause have not been delivered, the Office of destination must indicate in a clear and concise manner, in the French language, on the back of the articles, the cause of non-delivery, in the following form: not known, refused, left, not claimed, deceased, etc. This indication is furnished by the impression of a stamp or by attaching a label. Each Office has the option of adding a translation, in its own language, of the cause of non-delivery, and any other useful particulars.

5.—If articles mailed in one country of the Union and addressed to the interior of the same country have as senders persons living in another country, and must, owing to having become undeliverable, be returned to the senders abroad, they become articles of international exchange. In such cases, the forwarding Office and the Office of delivery apply to said articles the provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of Article XXV preceding.

d'une formule conforme au modèle F annexé au présent Règlement. L'Office du pays d'origine, après avoir établi les dates de transmission des envois en question au service suivant, transmet cette formule directement à l'Office de destination.

2.—Lorsque l'Office destinataire est en état de fournir les renseignements sur le sort définitif de l'envoi réclamé, il renvoie cette formule, revêtu des renseignements que le cas comporte, à l'Office d'origine.

3.—Lorsque le sort d'un envoi qui a passé à découvert par plusieurs services ne peut être immédiatement constaté dans le service du pays de destination, l'Office destinataire transmet la formule au premier Office intermédiaire, qui, après avoir établi les données de transmission de l'objet au service suivant, transmet la réclamation à l'Office suivant et ainsi de suite, jusqu'à ce que le sort définitif de l'objet réclamé soit établi. L'Office qui a effectué la remise au destinataire, ou qui, le cas échéant, ne peut établir, ni la remise, ni la transmission régulière à une autre Administration, constate le fait sur la formule et la renvoie à l'Office d'origine.

4.—Les formules F sont rédigées en français ou portent une traduction sublinéaire en cette langue. Elles sont transmises sans lettre d'envoi sous enveloppe fermée, et soumises à la formalité de la recommandation. Chaque Administration est libre de demander, par une notification adressée au Bureau international, que les réclamations qui concernent son service soient transmises, soit à son Administration centrale, soit à un bureau spécialement désigné, soit enfin directement au bureau de destination ou, si elle est seulement intéressée à titre d'intermédiaire, au bureau d'échange auquel l'envoi a été expédié.

5.—Les dispositions qui précèdent ne s'appliquent pas au cas de spoliation de dépêches, manque de dépêche, etc., qui comportent une correspondance plus étendue entre les Administrations.

Form similar to the Form F annexed to the present Regulations. The Office of the country of origin, after having entered the dates of transmission to the next service, of the articles in question, transmits this Form direct to the Office of destination.

2.—When the Office of destination is able to furnish information as regards the definite disposal of the article applied for, it returns the Form, after having entered thereon the necessary information, to the Office of origin.

3.—Where it cannot immediately be ascertained in the service of the country of destination in what manner an article has been disposed of, which has passed in open-mail through several services, the Office of destination transmits the Form to the first intermediary service, which, after having entered the data relative to the transmission of the article to the next service, transmits the application to the next service, and so on, until the final disposal of the article is ascertained. The Office which has delivered the article to the addressee, or which cannot show proof either of its delivery or of its regular transmission to another Administration, states the fact on the Form and returns it to the Office of origin.

4.—The Forms F are drawn up in French or bear an interlinear translation in that language. They are forwarded without a letter of transmission in a sealed envelope, and subjected to the formality of registration. Every Administration is at liberty to request, by a notification addressed to the International Bureau, that applications which concern its service shall be transmitted, either to its central Administration, or to a post office specially designated, or finally direct to the post office of destination, or, if it is the only Administration interested as an intermediary, to the exchange office to which the article was sent.

5.—The preceding provisions do not apply to cases of violation of mails, loss of mails, etc., which call for a more extended correspondence between the Administrations.

Withdrawing articles or correcting addresses.

Retrait de Correspondance et Rectification d'Adresses.

Withdrawal of Articles and Correction of Addresses.

1.—Pour les demandes de renvoi ou de réexpédition de correspondances, ainsi que pour les demandes de rectification d'adresses, l'expéditeur doit faire usage d'une formule conforme au modèle G annexé au présent Règlement. En remettant cette réclamation au bureau de poste, l'expéditeur doit y justifier de son identité et produire, s'il y a lieu, le bulletin du dépôt. Après la justification, dont l'Administration du pays d'origine assume la responsabilité, il est procédé de la manière suivante:

1° Si la demande est destinée à être transmise par voie postale, la formule, accompagnée d'un fac-similé parfait de l'enveloppe ou suscription de l'envoi, est expédiée directement, sous pli recommandé, au bureau de poste destinataire;

2° Si la demande doit être faite par voie télégraphique, la formule est déposée au service télégraphique chargé d'en transmettre les termes au bureau de poste destinataire.

2.—A la réception de la formule G ou du télégramme en tenant lieu, le bureau de poste destinataire recherche la correspondance signalée et donne à la demande la suite nécessaire.

Toutefois, s'il s'agit d'un changement d'adresse demandé par voie télégraphique, le bureau destinataire se borne à retenir la lettre et attend, pour faire droit à la demande, l'arrivée du fac-similé nécessaire.

Si la recherche est infructueuse, si l'objet a déjà été remis au destinataire ou si la demande par voie télégraphique n'est pas assez explicite pour permettre de reconnaître sûrement l'objet de correspondance indiqué, le fait est signalé immédiatement au bureau d'origine, qui en prévient le réclamant.

3.—A moins d'entente contraire, la formule G est rédigée en français ou porte une traduction sublinéaire en cette langue, et, dans le cas d'emploi de la voie télégraphique, le télégramme est formulé en langue française.

1.—For request to have articles returned or forwarded, as well as for requests to have addresses corrected, the sender must use a form similar to Form G annexed to the present Regulations. In handing this application to the post office, the sender must establish his identity and produce, if necessary, the certificate of mailing. After identification, the responsibility for which is assumed by the country of origin, the following course is pursued:

1st. If the request is to be transmitted by mail, the Form, accompanied by a perfect facsimile of the envelope or address of the article, is despatched direct, under registration, to the post office of destination;

2nd. If the request is to be made by telegraph, the Form is handed to the telegraph service which is charged to transmit its contents to the post office of destination.

2.—Upon receipt of Form G, or of the telegram taking its place, the office of destination institutes an inquiry for the articles indicated and takes such steps as may be necessary.

If, however, the request for change of address has been made by telegraph, the office of destination simply retains the letter, and defers compliance with the request until the necessary facsimile arrives.

If the inquiry is without result, if the article has already been delivered to the addressee, or if the request by telegraph is not explicit enough to allow the article indicated to be recognized with absolute certainty the fact is immediately made known to the office of origin, which communicates it to the claimant.

3.—Unless there be an agreement to the contrary, Form G is drawn up in French or bears an interlinear translation in that language, and, in case the telegraph is used, the telegram is written in the French language.

4.—Une simple correction d'adresse (sans modification du nom ou de la qualité du destinataire) peut aussi être demandée directement au bureau destinataire, c'est-à-dire sans l'accomplissement des formalités prescrites pour le changement d'adresse proprement dit.

4.—A simple correction of address (without change of the name or description of the addressee) may also be requested direct of the office of destination, that is to say, without conforming to the formalities prescribed for a change of address properly so called.

Simple corrections.

5.—Toute Administration peut exiger, par une notification adressée au Bureau international, que l'échange des réclamations, en ce qui la concerne, soit effectué par l'entremise de son Administration centrale ou d'un bureau spécialement désigné.

5.—Any Administration may require, by means of a notification addressed to the International Bureau, that the exchange of applications, so far as that Administration is concerned, shall be effected through the intermediary of its Central Administration or of an office specially designated.

Specially designated offices.

Dans le cas où l'échange des réclamations s'effectue par l'entremise des Administrations centrales, il doit être tenu compte des demandes expédiées directement par les bureaux d'origine aux bureaux de destination, dans ce sens que les correspondances y relatives sont exclues de la distribution jusqu'à l'arrivée de la réclamation de l'Administration centrale.

In cases where the exchange of applications is effected through the intermediary of the Central Administrations, requests sent directly by the office of origin to the office of destination must be taken into account to the extent that the article concerned shall be withheld from delivery until the arrival of the application from the Central Administration.

Les Administrations qui usent de la faculté prévue par le premier alinéa du présent paragraphe, prennent à leur charge les frais que peut entraîner la transmission, dans leur service intérieur, par voie postale ou télégraphique, des communications à échanger avec le bureau destinataire.

The Administrations which avail themselves of the option given by the first paragraph of the present section, take upon themselves the expenses involved by the transmission in their domestic service, by mail or telegraph, of the communications to be exchanged with the delivering office.

Le recours à la voie télégraphique est obligatoire lorsque l'expéditeur a lui-même fait usage de cette voie et que le bureau destinataire ne peut pas être prévenu en temps utile par la voie postale.

The use of the telegraph is compulsory when the sender himself has made use of it, and when the office of destination cannot be advised in due time by mail.

Use of postage stamps presumed to be fraudulent.

Use of fraudulent stamps.

1.—Sous réserve des dispositions que comporte la législation de chaque pays, même dans les cas où cette réserve n'est pas expressément stipulée dans les dispositions du présent article, la procédure ci-après est suivie pour la constatation de l'emploi, pour l'affranchissement, de timbres-poste frauduleux :

1.—Subject to the regulations prescribed by the laws of each country, even in the cases where this reservation is not expressly stipulated in the provisions of the present Article, the following mode of procedure is followed for detecting the use of fraudulent postage stamps for the prepayment of postage :

a) Lorsque la présence, sur un envoi quelconque, d'un timbre-poste frauduleux (contrefait ou ayant déjà servi), est constatée au départ, par un Office dont la législation particulière n'exige pas la saisie immédiate de l'envoi, la figurine n'est altérée d'aucune façon, et l'envoi, inséré dans une enveloppe à l'adresse du bureau destinataire, est acheminé sous recommandation d'office.

b) Cette formalité est notifiée, sans délai, aux Administrations des pays d'origine et de destination, au moyen d'un avis conforme au modèle H annexé au présent Règlement. Un exemplaire de cet avis est, en outre, transmis au bureau de destination dans l'enveloppe qui renferme l'objet revêtu du timbre-poste réputé frauduleux.

c) Le destinataire est convoqué pour constater la contravention.

La remise de l'envoi n'a lieu que dans le cas où le destinataire ou son fondé de pouvoirs consent à faire connaître le nom et l'adresse de l'expéditeur, et à mettre à la disposition de la poste, après avoir pris connaissance du contenu, l'objet entier s'il est inséparable du corps du délit ou bien la partie de l'objet (enveloppe, bande, portion de lettre, etc.) qui contient la suscription et le timbre signalé comme frauduleux.

d) Le résultat de la convocation est constaté par un procès-verbal conforme au modèle I annexé au présent Règlement et où il est fait mention des incidents survenus, tels que non-comparution, refus de recevoir l'envoi, de l'ouvrir ou d'en faire connaître l'expéditeur, etc. Ce document est signé par l'agent des postes et par le destinataire de l'envoi ou son fondé de pouvoirs; si ce dernier refuse de signer, le refus est constaté aux lieux et place de la signature.

Le procès-verbal est transmis, avec pièces à l'appui et par l'intermédiaire de l'Administration du pays de destination, à l'Administration des postes du pays d'origine, qui, à l'aide de ces documents, fait poursuivre, s'il y a lieu, la repression de l'infraction, d'après sa législation intérieure.

article whatever is detected, at the time the mail is dispatched, by the post office of a country the legislation of which does not require the immediate seizure of the article, the stamp is not altered in any way, and the article, placed in an envelope addressed to the office of destination, is forwarded under official registration.

b) This formality is notified, without delay, to the Administrations of the countries of origin and destination, by means of a notice in conformity with Form H annexed to the present Regulations. A copy of this notice is also transmitted to the delivering post office in the envelope which encloses the article bearing the supposed fraudulent postage-stamp.

c) The addressee is summoned for the purpose of verifying the offence.

The delivery of the article takes place only in case the addressee or his representative consents to make known the name and address of the sender, and to place at the disposal of the post office, after having taken cognizance of its contents, the entire article if it is inseparable from the offence itself, or else the part of the article (envelope, wrapper, portion of the letter, etc.) which contains the address and the postage stamp said to be fraudulent.

d) The result of the investigation is incorporated in a deposition in conformity with Form I annexed to the present Regulations, in which are mentioned the incidents which have happened, such as non-appearance, refusal to receive the article, to open it, or to make known the sender, etc. This document is signed by the postal official and by the addressee of the article or his representative; if the latter refuses to sign, the refusal is recorded instead of, and in the place of the signature.

The deposition is transmitted, with the vouchers relating thereto, through the intermediary of the Administration of the country of destination, to the Postal Administration of the country of origin which, with the aid of those documents, proceeds, if necessary, to take notice of the offence, in accordance with its domestic legislation.

Frais de Transit.

1.—La statistique effectuée au mois de mai 1896 pour le décompte des frais de transit sortira ses effets jusqu'à l'expiration de la Convention du 15 juin 1897 et du présent Règlement, sous réserve des dispositions prévues aux paragraphes 2 et 3 suivants.

2.—Dans le cas d'accession à l'Union d'un pays ayant des relations importantes, les pays de l'Union dont la situation pourrait, par suite de cette circonstance, se trouver modifiée sous le rapport du payement des frais de transit, ont la faculté de réclamer une statistique spéciale se rapportant exclusivement au pays nouvellement entré.

3.—Lorsqu'il se produit une modification importante dans le mouvement des correspondances et pour autant que cette modification affecte une période de six mois, au moins, les Offices intéressés s'entendent pour régler entre eux, au besoin par la voie d'une nouvelle statistique, le partage des frais de transit proportionnellement à la part d'intervention desdits Offices dans le transport des correspondances auxquelles ces frais se rapportent.

4.—Le simple entrepôt, dans un port, de dépêches closes apportées par un paquebot et destinées à être reprises par un autre paquebot, ne donne pas lieu au paiement de frais de transit territorial au profit de l'Office des postes du lieu d'entrepôt.

Transit Expenses.

1.—The statistics taken in the month of May, 1896, for the settlement of the transit expenses will apply until the expiration of the Convention of the 15th of June, 1897, and the present Regulations, under the limitation of the stipulations provided in Sections 2 and 3 following.

2.—In case of the accession to the Union of a country having important relations, the countries of the Union whose situation might, owing to this circumstance, be found to be modified as regards the payment of transit expenses, have the liberty to request special statistics relating exclusively to the newly entered country.

3.—When an important modification takes place in the movement of correspondence, and when the modification affects a period of at least six months, the Offices interested come to an agreement to arrange among themselves, if necessary by means of new statistics, the division of the transit expenses in proportion to the part taken by said Offices in the conveyance of the correspondence to which the expenses relate.

4.—The mere storing, at a port, of closed mails brought by one vessel, and intended for dispatch by another, does not give rise to the payment of territorial transit charges to the Post-Office of the place where these mails are stored.

Account of Transit Expenses.

1.—In order to carry out the stipulations of paragraphs 1st and 2nd of Section 5 of Article 4 of the Convention, the following mode of procedure is pursued:

b. En cas de différences entre les indications correspondantes de deux Administrations, le Bureau international les invite à se mettre d'accord et à lui communiquer les sommes définitivement fixées.

c. Dans le cas où l'une des Administrations correspondantes n'a pas fourni d'indication dans le délai déterminé par le Bureau international, les indications de l'autre Administration font foi.

d. Aucune réclamation n'est admise de la part des Administrations qui n'ont pas fourni dans le délai déterminé par le Bureau international les indications prévues ci-dessus.

e. Le Bureau international désigne, sur la base de la statistique de 1896, les pays à exonérer de tout paiement du chef du transit territorial, jusqu'à l'expiration de la Convention de Washington et du présent Règlement, relève le total des sommes que ces pays auraient à payer et en opère la déduction proportionnelle sur le total des créances brutes des autres pays afférents à ce transit. Il effectue en second lieu la réduction déterminée par le § 5, chiffre 1^o, de l'article 4 de la Convention et transmet le résultat définitif à toutes les Administrations, avec indication, pour chacune d'elles, du montant de sa dette ou de son avoir vis-à-vis de chacune des autres Administrations intéressées.

Administrations with which it exchanges mails, on account of territorial transit, to the exclusion of the extraordinary transit expenses provided for in Section 4 of Article 4 of the Convention, without taking account of the reductions provided by Section 5, paragraph 1 of the same Article 4.

b. In case of differences between the indications furnished by two Administrations, the International Bureau invites them to come to an understanding and to communicate to the Bureau the sums as definitely fixed.

c. In case one of the corresponding Administrations has not furnished a statement within the period prescribed by the International Bureau, the statement of the other Administration is admitted.

d. No objection is admitted on the part of the Administrations which have not furnished the statement referred to above within the period prescribed by the International Bureau.

e. The International Bureau designates, on the basis of the statistics of 1896, the countries to be exonerated from the payment of territorial transit charges, until the expiration of the Convention of Washington and of the present Regulations; states the total of the sums which these countries would have to pay and calculates the proportional deduction from these sums on the total of the gross credits of the other countries concerned in this transit. It calculates in the second place the reduction prescribed by Section 5 paragraph 1 of Article 4 of the Convention, and transmits the definite result to all the Administrations, indicating, for each of them, the amount of its debit and credit in regard to each of the other Administrations interested.

2.—The duty of preparing the accounts of maritime transit expenses, on the basis of Articles 4 and 17 of the Convention, making the reductions provided for by paragraph 3d of Section 5 of the first mentioned of these Articles, devolves upon the creditor Office, which transmits them to the debtor Office. The latter Office returns them, accepted or with its observations, with as little delay as pos-

2.—Le soin d'établir les comptes des frais de transit maritime, sur la base des articles 4 et 17 de la Convention principale et avec les réductions prévues au chiffre 3^o du § 5 du premier de ces articles, incombe à l'Office créancier, qui les transmet à l'Office débiteur. Settlement of transit charges.

1.—Le solde annuel résultant de la balance des comptes réciproques entre deux Offices est payé par l'Office débiteur à l'Office créateur, en francs effectifs et au moyen de traites tirées sur une place du pays créateur au gré de l'Office débiteur. Les frais du paiement, y compris les frais d'escompte, restent, le cas échéant, à la charge de l'Office débiteur.

1.—The annual balance resulting from balancing the reciprocal accounts between two Offices is paid by the debtor Office to the creditor Office, in effective francs, and by means of bills of exchange drawn on a place in the creditor country at the option of the debtor Office. The costs of payment, including the discount charges, if any, are borne by the debtor Office.

Payment of balance in accounts between two offices.

2.—Le paiement des comptes des frais de transit afférents à un exercice doivent être effectués dans le plus bref délai possible, et, au plus tard, avant l'expiration du premier semestre de l'exercice suivant. En tout cas, si l'Office qui a envoyé le compte n'a reçu dans cet intervalle aucune observation rectificative, ce compte est considéré comme admis de plein droit. Cette disposition s'applique également aux observations non contestées faites par un Office sur les comptes présentés par un autre Office. Passé ce délai de six mois, les sommes dues par un Office à un autre Office sont productives d'intérêts, à raison de 5 pour cent l'an et à dater du jour d'expiration dudit délai.

2.—Payment of the accounts of transit expenses relating to a period of service must be effected with the least possible delay, and, at the latest, before the expiration of the first six months of the following period of service. In any case, if the Office which has transmitted the account has not received during that period a correcting observation, the account is considered as duly accepted. This provision likewise applies to uncontested observations made by one Office relative to the accounts presented by another. When the term of six months has passed, the amounts due from one Office to another Office are subject to interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum, dating from the day of expiration of said term.

Accounts to be promptly paid, etc.

3.—Est réservée, toutefois, aux Offices intéressés la faculté de prendre d'un commun accord, d'autres dispositions que celles qui sont formulées dans le présent article.

Des recueils analogues concernant l'exécution des Arrangements spéciaux de l'Union peuvent être publiés par le Bureau international sur la demande des Administrations participant à ces Arrangements.

Les Administrations qui ont l'intention de réclamer, pour ce service de liquidation, le concours du Bureau international, se concertent, à cet effet, entre elles et avec ce Bureau.

The dictionary is kept up to date by means of supplements, or in any other manner which the International Bureau shall deem suitable.

The dictionary mentioned in the present section is furnished at prime cost to the Administrations which may apply for it.

XXXVIII.

Central Office of Settlement and Liquidation of Accounts between the Administrations of the Union.

1.—The International Bureau of the Universal Postal Union is charged with the duty of effecting the balance and liquidation of accounts of every kind relating to the international postal service between the Administrations of the countries of the Union which have the franc for their monetary unit or which have come to an agreement as regards the rate of conversion of their currency into metallic francs and centimes.

The Administrations which intend to claim the aid of the International Bureau for the service of liquidation, arrange accordingly among themselves and with the Bureau.

Notwithstanding its adhesion, each Administration retains the right to prepare, at its option, special accounts for different branches of the service, and to effect the settlement of them, to suit itself with respondants, sans employer l'intermédiaire du Bureau international, auquel, à teneur de l'alinéa qui précède, elle se borne à indiquer pour quelles branches de service et pour quels pays elle réclame ses offices.

Sur la demande des Administrations intéressées, les décomptes télégraphiques peuvent aussi être indiqués au Bureau international pour entrer dans la compensation des soldes.

Les Administrations qui auront emprunté l'intermédiaire du Bureau international pour la balance et la liquidation des décomptes peuvent cesser d'user de cet intermédiaire trois mois après qu'ils en auront averti ledit Bureau.

2.—Après que les comptes particuliers ont été débattus et arrêtés d'un commun accord, les Administrations débitrices transmettent aux Administrations créditrices, pour chaque nature d'opérations, une reconnaissance, établie en francs et centimes, du montant de la balance des deux comptes particuliers, avec l'indication de l'objet de la créance et de la période à laquelle elle se rapporte.

Toutefois, en ce qui concerne l'échange des mandats, la reconnaissance doit être transmise par l'Office débiteur dès l'établissement de son propre compte particulier et la réception du compte particulier de l'Office correspondant, sans attendre qu'il ait été procédé à la vérification de détail. Les différences ultérieurement constatées sont reprises dans le premier compte à intervenir.

Sauf entente contraire, l'Administration qui désirerait, pour sa comptabilité intérieure, avoir des comptes généraux, aurait à les établir elle-même et à les soumettre à l'acceptation de l'Administration correspondante.

Les Administrations peuvent s'entendre pour pratiquer un autre système dans leurs relations.

3.—Chaque Administration adresse mensuellement, au Bureau international, un tableau indiquant son Avoir du chef des décomptes particuliers, ainsi que le total des sommes dont elle est créditrice en-its correspondents, without using the intermediary of the International Bureau; simply advising the Bureau, in accordance with the tenor of the preceding paragraph, for which branches of the service and for which countries it intends to employ its services.

At the request of the Administrations interested, the telegraph accounts may also be reported to the International Bureau, to be included in the settlement of the balances.

Administrations which shall have used the intermediary of the International Bureau for the balancing and liquidation of accounts, may cease to use that intermediary three months after giving notice to the Bureau to that effect.

2.—After the special accounts have been examined and accepted by common consent, the debtor Administrations transmit to the creditor Administrations, for each class of operations, an acknowledgment, made out in francs and centimes, for the amount of the balance of the two special accounts, indicating the object of the credit and the period to which it relates.

As regards the exchange of money orders, however, the acknowledgment must be transmitted by the debtor office at the time when its own special account is prepared and the account from the corresponding office is received, without waiting until the verification of the details is proceeded with. Any differences which are subsequently ascertained, are taken up in the next account.

Unless there be an understanding to the contrary, the Administration which desires, for its domestic bookkeeping, to have general accounts, has to prepare them itself, and submit them, for acceptance, to the office with which it exchanges mails.

Administrations may come to an understanding among themselves for the adoption of some other system in their relations.

3.—Each Administration transmits monthly, to the International Bureau, a Table showing the total credit due to it on the special accounts, as well as the total of the sums which are due to it from each vers chacune des Administrations contractantes; chaque créance figurant dans ce tableau doit être justifiée par une reconnaissance de l'Office débiteur.

Ce tableau doit parvenir au Bureau international le 19 de chaque mois au plus tard, sous peine de n'être compris que dans la liquidation du mois suivant.

Comparisons.

4.—Le Bureau international constate, en rapprochant les reconnaissances, si les tableaux sont exacts. Toute rectification nécessaire est notifiée aux Offices intéressés.

Le Doit de chaque Administration envers une autre est reporté dans un tableau récapitulatif; afin d'établir le total dont chaque Administration est débitrice, il suffit d'ajouter les diverses colonnes de ce tableau récapitulatif.

General balance sheet.

5.—Le Bureau international réunit les tableaux et les récapitulations en une balance générale indiquant:

a) le total du Doit et de l'Avoir de chaque Administration;

b) le solde débiteur ou le solde créditeur de chaque Administration, représentant la différence entre le total du Doit et le total de l'Avoir;

c) les sommes à payer par une partie des membres de l'Union à une Administration, ou réciproquement les sommes à payer par cette dernière à l'autre partie.

Les totaux des deux catégories de soldes sous a et b doivent nécessairement être égaux.

Payment.

On pourvoira autant que possible à ce que chaque Administration n'ait à effectuer, pour se libérer, qu'un ou deux paiements distincts.

—remittances on account.

Toutefois, l'Administration qui se trouve habituellement à découvert vis-à-vis d'une autre Administration pour une somme supérieure à 50,000 francs, a le droit de réclamer des acomptes.

Ces acomptes sont inscrits, tant par l'Administration créditrice que par l'Administration débitrice, au bas des tableaux à adresser au Bureau international (voir § 3).

Settlements.

6.—Les reconnaissances (voir § 3) transmises au Bureau interna-

of the contracting Administrations; each credit appearing in this Table must be substantiated by an acknowledgment from the debtor office:

This Table should reach the International Bureau, on the 19th of each month, at the latest; otherwise its liquidation is liable to be deferred until the following month.

4.—The International Bureau ascertains, by comparing the acknowledgments, if the Tables are correct. Every correction which is necessary is notified to the Offices interested.

The Debit of each Administration to another is stated in a recapitulation; in order to ascertain the total amount of indebtedness of each Administration it is only necessary to add up the different columns of the recapitulation.

5.—The International Bureau incorporates the Tables and the recapitulations in a general balance-sheet, showing:

a) the total of the Debit and of the Credit of each Administration;

b) the balance against or in favor of each Administration, representing the difference between the total of the Debit and the total of the Credit;

c) the sums to be paid by some of the members of the Union to a single Administration, or reciprocally the sums to be paid by the latter to the former.

The totals of the two categories of balances under a and b must necessarily be the same.

It shall be arranged, as far as possible, that each Administration, in order to liquidate its indebtedness, shall have to make only one or two distinct payments.

Nevertheless, an Administration which habitually finds a sum exceeding 50,000 francs due to it from another Administration, has the right to claim remittances on account.

These remittances on account are entered, both by the creditor Administration and by the debtor Administration, at the foot of the Tables to be transmitted to the International Bureau (see Section 3).

6.—The acknowledgments (see Section 3) transmitted to the Inter-tional avec les tableaux sont classées par Administration.

Elles servent de base pour l'établissement de la liquidation de chacune des Administrations intéressées. Dans cette liquidation doivent figurer :

a) les sommes afférentes aux décomptes spéciaux portant sur les divers échanges ;

b) le total des sommes résultant de tous les décomptes spéciaux par rapport à chacune des Administrations intéressées ;

c) les totaux des sommes dues à toutes les Administrations créditrices pour chaque branche du service, ainsi que leur total général.

Ce total doit être égal au total du Doit qui figure dans la récapitulation.

Au bas de la liquidation, la balance est établie entre le total du Doit et le total de l'Avoir résultant des tableaux adressés par les Administrations au Bureau international (voir § 3). Le montant net du Doit ou de l'Avoir doit être égal au solde débiteur ou au solde créditeur porté dans la balance générale. En outre, la liquidation statue sur le mode de liquidation, c'est-à-dire qu'elle indique les Administrations en faveur desquelles le paiement doit être effectué par l'Administration débitrice.

Les liquidations doivent être transmises aux Administrations intéressées par le Bureau international, au plus tard le 22 de chaque mois.

7.—Le paiement des sommes dues, en vertu d'une liquidation, par une Administration à une autre Administration, doit être effectué aussitôt que possible et au plus tard quinze jours après réception de la liquidation par l'Administration débitrice.

Les soldes débiteurs ou créditeurs n'excédant pas 500 francs peuvent être reportés à la liquidation du mois suivant, à la condition toutefois que les Administrations intéressées soient en rapport mensuel avec le Bureau international. Il est fait mention de ce report dans les récapitulations et dans les liquidations pour les Administrations créditrices et débitrices.

national Bureau with the Tables are classified by Administrations.

They serve as the basis for settling the account of each of the Administrations interested. In this settlement should appear :

a) the sums relating to the special accounts regarding the different exchanges ;

b) the total of the sums resulting from all the special accounts with respect to each of the Administrations interested ;

c) the totals of the sums due to all the creditor Administrations on account of each branch of the service, as well as their general total.

This total should be equal to the total of the Debit which appears in the recapitulation.

At the foot of the liquidation account the balance is shown between the total of the Debit and the total of the Credit resulting from the Tables transmitted by the Administrations to the International Bureau (see Section 3). The net amount of the Debit or of the Credit should be equal to the Debit balance or to the Credit balance carried into the general balance sheet. Moreover, the liquidation account determines the manner of settlement, that is to say, it indicates the Administrations to which payment must be made by the debtor Administration.

The liquidation-accounts must be transmitted to the Administrations interested by the International Bureau, at the latest on the 22nd of each month.

7.—Payment of the sums due, in virtue of a liquidation, to another Administration must be effected as soon as possible, and at the latest, two weeks after the receipt of the liquidation by the debtor Administration.

Debit or Credit balances not exceeding 500 francs may be carried forward to the account for the following month, on condition however that the Administrations interested are in monthly communication with the International Bureau. The amounts brought forward are entered in the recapitulations and in the liquidation-accounts for the creditor and debt-

ARTICLE IV.

Extent of Convention.

ARTICLE II.

1. There shall be admitted to the mails exchanged under this Convention, articles of merchandise and mail matter—except letters, post cards, and written matter—of all kinds, that are admitted under any conditions to the domestic mails of the country of origin, except that no packet may exceed 11 pounds (or 5 kilograms) in weight, nor the following dimensions: Greatest length in any direction, three feet six inches; greatest length and girth combined, six feet; and must be so wrapped or enclosed as to permit their contents to be easily examined by postmasters and customs officers; and except that the following articles are prohibited admission to the mails exchanged under this Convention:

Articles admitted to the mails.

Publications which violate the copyright laws of the country of destination; poisons, and explosive or inflammable substances; fatty substances, liquids and those which easily liquefy, confections and pastes; live or dead animals, except dead insects and reptiles when thoroughly dried; fruits and vegetables, and substances which exhale a bad odor; lottery tickets, lottery advertisements, or lottery circulars; all obscene or immoral articles; articles which may in any way damage or destroy the mails or injure the persons handling them.

Articles prohibited.

2. All admissible articles of merchandise mailed in one country for the other, or received in one country from the other, shall be free from any detention or inspection whatever, except such as is required for collection of customs duties, and shall be forwarded by the most speedy means to their destination, being subject in their transmission to the laws and regulations of each country, respectively.

Freedom from inspection.

ARTICLE III.

1. A letter or communication of the nature of personal correspondence must not accompany, be written on, or enclosed with any parcel.

Letters must not accompany parcels.

Rejection. 2. If such be found, the letter will be placed in the mails if separable, and if the communication be inseparably attached, the whole package will be rejected. If, however, any such should inadvertently be forwarded, the country of destination will collect double rates of postage according to the Universal Postal Union Convention.

Address. 3. No parcel may contain packages intended for delivery at an address other than that borne by the parcel itself. If such enclosed packages be detected, they must be sent forward singly, charged with new and distinct parcel-post rates.

ARTICLE IV.

Rates of postage. 1. The following rates of postage shall in all cases be required to be fully prepaid with postage stamps of the country of origin, viz:

2. In the United States, for a parcel not exceeding one pound in weight, 12 cents; and for each additional pound, or fraction of a pound, 12 cents.

3. In Trinidad, for a parcel not exceeding one pound in weight, six pence; and for each additional pound, or fraction of a pound, six pence.

Registry. 2. The sender of a package may have the same registered in accordance with the regulations of the country of origin.

Return receipt. 3. An acknowledgment of the delivery of a registered article shall be returned to the sender when requested; but either country may require of the sender prepayment of a fee therefor not exceeding five cents or two and one-half pence.

Notice to addressee. 4. The addressees of registered articles shall be advised of the arrival of a package addressed to them by a notice from the post-office of destination.

ARTICLE VI.

Customs declaration. 1. The sender of each parcel shall make a customs declaration, pasted upon or attached to the package, upon a special form provided for the purpose, (see Form 2 annexed hereto) giving a general description of the parcel, an accurate statement of its contents and value, date of mailing, and the sender's signature and place of residence, and place of address.

Collection of duties. 2. The parcels in question shall be subject in the country of destination to all customs duties and all customs regulations in force in that country, for the protection of its customs revenues; and the customs duties properly chargeable thereon shall be collected on delivery in accordance with the customs regulations of the country of destination; but neither sender nor addressee shall be subject to the payment of any charge for fines or penalties on account of failure to comply with any customs regulation.

ARTICLE VII.

Fees to be retained. Each country shall retain to its own use the whole of the postages, registration and delivery fees, it collects on said parcels; consequently, this Convention will give rise to no separate accounts between the two countries.

ARTICLE VIII.

Preamble.

In remembrance of God's goodness to us during the past year, which has been so abundant, "let us offer unto Him our thanksgiving and pay our vows unto the Most High." Under His watchful providence industry has prospered, the conditions of labor have been improved, the rewards of the husbandman have been increased and the comforts of our homes multiplied. His mighty hand has preserved peace and protected the Nation. Respect for law and order has been strengthened, love of free institutions cherished and all sections of our beloved country brought into closer bonds of fraternal regard and generous coöperation.

For these great benefits it is our duty to praise the Lord in a spirit of humility and gratitude and to offer up to Him our most earnest supplications. That we may acknowledge our obligation as a people to Him who has so graciously granted us the blessings of free government and material prosperity I, William McKinley, President of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday the twenty-fifth day of November for national Thanksgiving and Prayer, which all of the people are invited to observe with appropriate religious services in their respective places of worship. On this day of rejoicing and domestic reunion let our prayers ascend to the Giver of every good and perfect gift for the continuance of His love and favor to us, that our hearts may be filled with charity and good-will, and we may be ever worthy of His beneficent concern.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

A PROCLAMATION.

Preamble.

The approaching November brings to mind the custom of our ancestors, hallowed by time and rooted in our most sacred traditions, of giving thanks to Almighty God for all the blessings He has vouchsafed to us during the year.

Few years in our history have afforded such cause for thanksgiving as this. We have been blessed by abundant harvests, our trade and commerce have wonderfully increased, our public credit has been improved and strengthened, all sections of our common country have been brought together and knitted into closer bonds of national purpose and unity.

The skies have been for a time darkened by the cloud of war; but as we were compelled to take up the sword in the cause of humanity we are permitted to rejoice that the conflict has been of brief duration and the losses we have had to mourn, though grievous and important, have been so few, considering the great results accomplished, as to inspire us with gratitude and praise to the Lord of Hosts. We may laud and magnify His Holy Name that the cessation of hostilities came so soon as to spare both sides the countless sorrows and disasters that attend protracted war.

November 24, 1898,
set apart as a day of
national thanksgiving.

I do therefore invite all my fellow-citizens, as well those who may be at sea or sojourning in foreign lands as those at home, to set apart and observe Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November, as a day of national thanksgiving, to come together in their several places of worship, for a service of praise and thanks to Almighty God for all the blessings of the year; for the mildness of the seasons and the fruitfulness of the soil, for the continued prosperity of the people, for the devotion and valor of our countrymen, for the glory of our victory and the hope of a righteous peace, and to pray that the Divine guidance which has brought us heretofore to safety and honor may be graciously continued in the years to come.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-eighth day of October in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-[SEAL.] eight and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-third.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

A PROCLAMATION.

Preamble.

Whereas by a Proclamation of the President of the United States, dated the second day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, upon proof then appearing satisfactory that no tonnage or light-house dues or other equivalent tax or taxes were imposed upon American vessels entering the ports of the Island of Tobago, one of the British West India Islands, and that vessels belonging to the United States of America and their cargoes were not required in the ports of the said Island of Tobago to pay any fee or due of any kind or nature, or any import due higher than was payable by vessels from ports or places in the said Island of Tobago, or their cargoes, in the United States, the President did therefore declare and proclaim, from and after the date of his said proclamation of December second, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, the suspension of the collection of the whole of the duty of three cents per ton, not to exceed fifteen cents per ton per annum, imposed upon vessels entered in the ports of the United States from any of the ports of the Island of Tobago by section 11 of the act of Congress approved June nineteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-six, entitled "An act to abolish certain fees for official services to American vessels and to amend the laws relating to shipping commissioners, seamen, and owners of vessels and for other purposes."

Vol. 27, p. 995.

Vol. 24, p. 81.

And Whereas the President did further declare and proclaim in his proclamation of December second, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, that the said suspension should continue so long as the reciprocal exemption of vessels belonging to citizens of the United States and their cargoes should be continued in the said ports of the Island of Tobago and no longer;

And Whereas it now appears upon satisfactory proof that tonnage or light-house dues, or a tax or taxes equivalent thereto, are in fact imposed upon American vessels and their cargoes entered in ports of the Island of Tobago higher and other than those imposed upon vessels from ports in the Island of Tobago, or their cargoes, entered in ports of the United States, so that said proclamation of December second, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, in its operation and effect contravenes the meaning and intent of said section 11 of the act of Congress approved June nineteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-six;

Now, Therefore, I, William McKinley, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the aforesaid section 11 of the act aforesaid, as well as in pursuance of the terms of said proclamation itself, do hereby revoke the said proclamation of December second, eighteen hundred and ninety-one suspending the collection of the whole of the duty of three cents per ton, not to exceed fifteen cents per ton per annum (which is imposed by the aforesaid section of said act) upon vessels entered in the ports of the United States from any of the ports of the Island of Tobago; this revocation of said proclamation to take effect on and after the date of this my proclamation.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
